Instead of Counting Up Each Other's Deficiencies

perhaps not in any unfriendly way, let us "try our hands" at bringing forward each other's best traits and efficiencies and be at least half blind to each other's mistakes or failures.

But there are a hundred other reasons why every one should be glad of the mid-Summer sale!

The Prettiest Bathing Caps Are English Silk Handkerchiefs

Would You take a sled along to enjoy an August at Newport? If so, it is perfectly

all right to keep on wearing the suit you have walked around in since February or it is just as right for you to follow the scare heads and try to keep cool in the tropical suits that are sold on the bargain tag basis.

But

if you are a self-respecting citizen and know that it is one of your inherent rights to be cool in Summer and have learned that a dollar is worth one hundred hard copper pennies you'll most likely do like the other sensible men are doing and get into a tropical suit mighty quickly. And getting into a tropical suit is just like getting into an airplane-make sure it's good.

Then

About all there is to a tropical suit is the outside, so if it is going to look like a suit after a few weeks' wear it must be tailored to perfection. Tailored so that the fit will last as long as the cloth, otherwise it will be an expensive suit regardless of the price.

Maybe, then, it doesn't "just happen" that the men who can do the biggest things in a business way buy their tropical suits at Wanamaker's.
