

CAISSON B FOR THE DELAWARE RIVER BRIDGE GOES INTO THE WATER. The plunge was taken yesterday morning at the New York Shipbuilding Company's plant in Camden. Tugs were chasing after the caisson when the photograph at the left was made. Hundreds saw the launching

MISS MARGARET KATES smashed bottle of champagne on the caisson

WHERE SIX WERE KILLED IN WEST VIRGINIA MINE BATTLE. A view of the burning tipple of the Richland Mining Company, at Cliftonville, which was the center of warfare between striking miners and deputy sheriffs. Two of the striking miners, handcuffed, are under guard of a deputy sheriff

PARACHUTE JUMP FROM AIRPLANE. This remarkable picture was made over Buffalo as George Starr, of that city, made his leap at a height of 2000 feet

MRS. LEONA SCHWARTZ, one of best women swimmers in Atlantic City

SPEEDING AROUND THE BOWL AT POINT BREEZE. The wheelmen are Clarence Carman, American (leading), and Vincenzo Maddona, Italian. Eddie Root is pacing Carman, while Maddona is paced by Johnny Schlee

"SWAMP" BABY AND MOTHER. Leah Silver's child found badly bitten by mosquitoes in swamp

"THE SPIRIT OF CARNIVAL." Miss Marion Byrd in battle of flowers in Boardwalk carnival, Brighton, England

IN PHILADELPHIA CRICKET CLUB tennis championships. Jos. J. Brown (left) and Jos. Rowland fought hard in contests against Alex and Sidney Thayer. The Thayers won

HE'S BEEN ON THE JOB A LONG TIME. Alex McCullen was showing how he carried the fair ones from the water when they got out too far at Atlantic City

LIEUT. WALTER HINTON plans to fly from New York to Brazil's Centennial

$1,000,000 PROPERTY LOSS WHEN DAMS BURST AND FLOOD MASSACHUSETTS TOWN. Twenty million gallons of water flooded the Williamsett section of Chicopee, Mass., early Monday morning as a result of the bursting of two dams. Photograph shows a wrecked house, the occupants of which had a narrow escape from death. They escaped by means of a plank laid from a second-floor window to the house next door

WM. MacCARTER, of Norwood, Asst. District Attorney of Delaware County

EGYPTIAN PRINCE WOULD MARRY MABEL NORMAND. Prince Ibrahim, nephew of the Khedive of Egypt, is pictured here with the movie star, to whom, it is reported, he has proposed marriage

PICKING 'EM UP. Joseph di Piani on duty at the bottom of the slide at Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets

WORK IN YOUR SHIRT SLEEVES IF YOU WANT. This busy man is Attorney General Daugherty. He's reading strike telegrams

JULIA MEYERHOFF, 5338 Irving street, well known in West Philadelphia as an entertainer

CALIFORNIA'S BEST BET. Miss Truth Wood picked to represent that State in the women's Olympic games at Paris

SADIE BARNETT, of Passaic, N. J., was shot to death as she lay asleep, by love-mad uncle, Isadore Barnett. He then killed himself

MARGUERITA SYLVIA, the Carmen of the great outdoor production of "Carmen," now in progress at Hollywood, Calif.

IT MUST HAVE BEEN A GOOD ONE. King George of England laughs heartily as he chats with old-time athletes

ONE OF PHILADELPHIA'S OLD-TIME CHURCHES. It's the St. James Gospel Church and stood at the northeast corner of Seventh and Commerce streets. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

FRANK DONNELLY, who is charged with killing Patrolman James Lambert at Donnelly's home, 406 N. Sixth street

MARY SMITH Sisters on sands at Ocean City. They are Philadelphians

HELEN SMITH

NORTHWEST CHILDREN KEEP COOL. The new sprinkler device adopted by the city has been set up at the corner of Twenty-sixth and York streets, where members of Engine Company No. 46 see that enough water pressure is furnished. The girls at the left are Stella Gross and Frances Flynn

