Nancy Wynne Tells of Various Doings in and About the Country Clubs-She Sees Pretty Frocks-She Speaks of Mrs. Sullivan's Accident .

EVEN though a great many people row for Europe, where they will spend the summer. have gone away, there is still a lot going on in the country in the way of informal parties at the clubs and at different houses. Pienics and swimming parties are especially popular, and there is always a crowd at the outdoor pool at the Penllyn Club, though I do hope that as I write this the pool is not undergoing one of its cleanings and so as entirely empty. I remember a whole party went out there from town one afternoon last year, only to find the pool empty, except for about three inches. It was a hot day, too, so you nches. It was a hot day, too, so you Mr.

THERE has been a great deal doing That the Philadelphia Cricket Club, where the men's singles and doubles for the club championship are being played off. On Monday Alec Theyer and his cousin. Sydney Thayer, won the doubles by defeating Joe Rowland and Joe Brown in three exciting sets, and yesterday the finals of the singles between Alec and Sydney were to have been played, but on account of the rain the match was postponed until this aft-

Lots of the Thayers turned out. On Monday Mrs. George Thayer and four of her children came over from Villanova, and, of course, Margaretta Jeanes Thayer, Sydney's wife, was a faithful fan. She looked very pretty one day in a blue-and-white figured vol'e sim-was in lavender linen. Tiny and Bunny Schwartz, who had just finished a hard match of tennis, were watching, too. They were stylish wide head bands, Tiny's or Anne's was of tan and red figured silk, and Bunny's-her right name is Katherine-was of gray and blue. Clair Gittings, another autumn debutante, wore a black canton crepe dress and a large black hat trimmed with a single yellow lily, and Lucy Jeffreys a white shirtwaist and skirt and lavgader silk sweater. Lucy is going to Cape May soon to stay with her sister, Mrs. Algy Clapp. I hear, and then, August 1, she will go up to Prouts eck with her parents. Dr. and Mrs. Neck with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Jeffreys, of Prospect avenue and New street, Chestnut Hill.

2114 De Lancey place, who recently sailed for Europe, have arrived in England, where they will spend some time. They will later go to France.

I WAS so sorry to hear about Hannah Sullivan's accident. You know she and Upton were coming home in their car late yesterday evening, and were nearly run into at Wynnewood. Upton swerved his car to escape the other motor, which had come syddeniy along a cross road, but not in time to avoid the company of motor, which had come syddenly along a cross road, but not in time to avoid a collision. Mrs. Sullivan was thrown out of the car with such force that she went over a fence, falling into a field.

THE haby, who is five months old, spends most of her time contentedly meking her thumb in the crib. Small sister Edna, four years old, had been in rather a bad way most of the day. It was one of those days when everything seemed a bit wrong, and somehow she had to get it out of her system. Imagine mother's surprise to hear Edna, for no reason, scolding her small sister, who gazed placidly at her. "Why are you speaking that way to the baby, dear?" "Well," said Edna, "I just want her to understand who's boss in this nursery."

He has given away the original models of the phonograph and the incandescent lamp. Only the future interests him.

Mr. Edison was interviewed vesterday Only the future interests him. on the forty-fifth anniversary of the invention of the phonograph.

"The original model of the phonograph is now in South Kensington Museum, London." he said. "Nobody around here seemed interested in it. I also gave them the original of the in-candescent light.
"I believe I have the phonograph close to perfection. I don't think the radio will ever replace the phonograph.

I worked on the radio after the war and tried it out for recording, but there was too much mutilation of sound, which is rather difficult to overcome." Woman Out for U. S. Senate
