Ex-Governor Goodrich Will Sell President Conditions Are Improving

GRAIN SURPLUS IN SIGHT

By CLINTON W. GILBERT Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger

The most remarkable change in Russia within the last few months is the improvement in business conditions.

Communist Rigors Abandoned The Soviet Government's capitalistic practice of advertising its wares is just one of the many indications that the rigors of the early communistic days have been abandoned.

The message asked whether the Federal Government would join with the State in taking over and directing resumption of operations in the mines.

The Governor's personal investigation and conferences at Saginaw yesterday showed, he declared, that neither the workers nor employers have any major grievance and that the men are out only because workers in other States are out.

He believes, he said, that the State could man and operate the mines—the chief producing ones at least—and that the miners offered to return to work and able to do so without risking out-laws from their organization, would be glad to return to work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 20.—(By A. P.)—Workmen will be lowered today into some of the pits in the Pittsburgh bituminous coal districts to clean up the mines.

Morgantown, W. Va., July 20.—Coal operators, representing the majority of tonnage in the Morgantown district's 117 mines are in sympathy with President Harding's plan to reopen mines.

Chicago, July 20.—With immediate prospects for peace in the railway strike, strikers and railroad today settled to a test of strength.

Chicago, July 20.—With immediate prospects for peace in the railway strike, strikers and railroad today settled to a test of strength.

Reports today indicated a gradual extension of the curtailment of transportation, some portions, however, being due to the lack of repairs to equipment.

At Kansas City, a general chairman of the Maintenance of Way Men's Union, in a telegram to President E. F. Grable, said that members of that union in the Southwest would strike of their own accord unless a speedy settlement was reached.

Continued disturbances at Pittsburgh and Holington, Kans., caused Governor Allen to issue authority for mobilization of the National Guard.

Newport News, Va., July 20.—(By A. P.)—Clerks employed here and at Norfolk by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad met in what was described as a stormy secret session here today to discuss a proposal that they relinquish their job and go to work for the railroad.

Chicago, July 20.—(By A. P.)—R. M. Jewell, president of the six federated shop crafts, predicted today that the railroads will capitulate and settle the strike within two weeks.

The railroad executives' statements on the seniority question were characterized by Mr. Jewell as camouflage designed to cover up the real issue—a national adjustment board.

M'MULLEN LEADS IN NEBRASKA RACE

Has Margin of 317 Votes Over Opponent for G. O. P. gubernatorial Nomination

Omaha, Neb., July 20.—One of the four principal races in the Nebraska primary election—that for Republican gubernatorial nomination—was in doubt early today after returns from 1701 of the State's 1913 precincts had been tabulated by The Associated Press.

Adam McMullen, of Beatrice, was leading Charles H. Randall, of Randolph, by the narrow margin of 317 votes, gained on late returns last night.

Returns from 1688 precincts, tabulated early today, showed Charles W. Bryan, of Lincoln, brother of William Jennings Bryan, a comfortable lead over Dan B. Butler, of Omaha, for Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

There are some other things that I have heard from motorists in that section, and I will look into these," said the coroner.

Lieutenant Fincher, of the Williamsport police, told the authorities today that he had driven past the place where the car was parked yesterday and he, too, noted the child sitting in the machine.

PLAN DEMURRER IN HAMMER CASE

If Overruled, Plea of 'Not Guilty' Will Be Entered for Mrs. Phillips, Lawyers Assert

MAN SAYS HE WED ACCUSED

Los Angeles, July 20.—Filing of a demurrer to the indictment charging her with the murder of Mrs. Alberta Meadows was a prospect at the pleading here today of Mrs. Clara Phillips, accused of beating the young widow to death with a hammer.

According to this clerk, the woman weighed the hammer carefully in her hand and then asked: "Do you think it is heavy enough to kill a man with?"

Do you think it is heavy enough to kill a man with?" And the clerk, thinking the customer was joking, smiled and replied: "Yes, if you hit him hard enough."

That Mrs. Phillips is his missing bride, is the firm belief of Joe McGuire, a carpenter, now living in Tulsa, Okla. Descriptions of Mrs. Phillips carried in press dispatches, McGuire said last night, fit the woman who deserted him four days after their marriage in Cannon City, Col., on April 20, 1921.

McGuire said his conviction was strengthened by the fact that Mrs. Phillips gave the name of McGuire when she was arrested at Tucson, Ariz. He regarded reports that the name Hudson appeared as a laundry mark on the woman's garments as further substantiation, as he said the woman he married gave her maiden name as Mary C. Hudson.

Officials here, after a careful check of Mrs. Phillips' previous life, said they believed McGuire was mistaken. Her attorneys today divulged that she and her husband had been divorced in 1916, only to be remarried shortly afterward.

Judge Harriet, over the long-distance telephone from his home in Perry County, was perfectly willing to sign, but did not remember the case clearly. "A great many cases come before me with the request for a parole," said Judge Harriet. "Some I grant and some I refuse. I do not remember this case clearly. Perhaps Mr. Daly could throw some light on it."

Mr. Daly is spending the day at his summer home at Ocean City. There, he refused to comment on the revelations in the Ellis case. "I refuse to comment," said the attorney. "On this or any case with which I am connected."
