HOFFNER GETS 73 AND TAKES LEAD

Philadelphia Pro Champion Totals 225 in Open Title Tourney at Merion

J. CAMPBELL DISAPPOINTS

Charlie Hoffner, Philadelphia pro champion, placed in his bid, and a strong one, too, in the Philadelphia open today when he shot a 73 at the Merion Cricket Club in his third round.

Hoffner played consistent golf all the way today. He went out in 37 and came back in 36 for the second best nine-hole score that has been turned in to date in the tourney.

His card follows: 3 5 5 5 4 4 4 4 3 37. 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 39-75-225. Frank Coltart, Philadelphia Country Club, played his first round in 74 for a total of 227, which placed him in the running. Andy Campbell, however, did not fare so well. Yesterday he tied Hoffner, but this morning took 77 for a total of 220.

George Sayres, Merion, and Peter Conti, Merion, each has 78, which gave them 184 and 180 respectively.

Joe Jack Campbell, runner-up in the P. G. A. tourney, was off his game. He had all sorts of trouble and took an 81 for 130.

His card follows: 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 37. 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 39-75-225.

McLeod and Derr Tied. McLeod started as the big gun and though Ray Derr equaled his pace both morning and afternoon, McLeod was not dislodged from his place as leader.

Each turned in cards of 75-75-150, and each made rounds of 36-37-35 and 32-33 for nine-hole rounds.

But McLeod and Derr haven't enched things by any means. Alex Gerard, of Oakland, and George Griffin, from Philadelphia, are the other two men in the race.

Griffin's card of 72 was the finest turned in. During the morning he did a fairly workmanlike job with a 70, but in the afternoon he was off his game.

His card is worth studying: 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 37. 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 39-75-225.

Hoffner Still Famous. Hoffner, who will be paired with Gene Sarazen in the big match tomorrow against Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood, has been the favorite to zillion away with honors in this tournament, despite the class of the field.

Hoffner, with 152. To show the class of golf on exhibition on the east course of the Merion Cricket Club is the leading amateur, remark that eighteen men are under the 100 mark.

George Sayres, genial little professional of the course on which this championship match is being staged, played steady, consistent golf and finished the day six strokes behind the leader. This, in a measure, was unexpected. Sayres is still grieving over the death of his little boy, which occurred a few weeks ago. He had seemed decided against competing, but the entreaties of the club members decided him to do his best.

All this talk has had to do with the professionals. Marcus Grover, the Haverford star, is the leading amateur striving for the crown. He had cards of 79 and 78, which admits him still to be in the running.

The Caddies at Merion. With the splendid work of the home-bred golfers it would not be a bad idea to try something concerning the merits of the Merion-bred caddies. Every boy who carried a bag in this tournament, unless he was specially imported by a player, has a caddy.

Joe Jack Campbell, runner-up in the P. G. A. tourney, was off his game. He had all sorts of trouble and took an 81 for 130.

His card follows: 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 37. 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 3 39-75-225.

McLeod and Derr Tied. McLeod started as the big gun and though Ray Derr equaled his pace both morning and afternoon, McLeod was not dislodged from his place as leader.

TWO LOCAL PLAYERS LEFT AT LONGWOOD

Bill Tilden and Wallace Johnson Advance to Semi-Final Round Today

BEALS EASY FOR CHAMPION

Boston, Mass., July 21.—Wallace Johnson, of Philadelphia, has a chance to demand recognition as a worthy candidate as a member of the American Davis Cup team this afternoon in the semi-final round of the singles tournament for the Longwood Bowl.

He has been ignored for the last two years except for a questionable trial two years ago last May at Forest Hills, when he opposed Charles Garland, of Pittsburgh, and Richard Harter, of Boston.

Johnson eventually was selected to go over seas with the challenging team of 1920. This afternoon the veteran internationalist opposes R. Norris Williams, 20, of Boston, captain of the Philadelphia Cup team and considered a sure selection for this year's team.

Johnson moved into the semi-finals yesterday afternoon without ruffling his hair. In eliminating John W. Foster, of Boston, he was called out to face the rival who plays the same style of "sec-one-class" game.

Foster returned slice with slice and chopped away in a futile effort to hold his own against the Philadelphian's remarkable steadiness and effortless playing without effect.

Tilden's Remarkable Playing. Seldom has a tennis gallery been treated to such an exhibition with a racket as was given yesterday by William T. Tilden, 24, of Philadelphia.

The lanky champion raced through Sidney Beale, of Boston, without the loss of a single game in their three-set match in the fourth round. It is a rare occurrence for any player to win every game of a match in the round before the semi-final, and it is only on rare occasions that any man is in such stroke as the mighty Tilden showed.

In the Longwood challenge round two years ago William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, then national champion, crushed Nathaniel W. Niles, of Boston, in straight sets, winding up a brilliant effort with thirteen straight games. Such instances are few and far between.

Lawrence Faces Tilden. Tilden faces Lawrence B. Rice this afternoon. Rice has beaten Tilden, but this afternoon he will be satisfied to make a good showing against the lanky one. Rice, yesterday, outdove and outplayed the veteran Nathaniel W. Niles in four sets.

Dick Williams was in fine form yesterday. When he is that way it is futile for any one to oppose the former Davis Cup captain. Williams dropped five games to Albert H. Chapin, of Springfield, and Williams College. Chapin is no wizard with a racket, but he is a prospect. In this tournament last year he took a set from Willis Davis and gave that Californian a real scare before losing to Williams, however, eventually won the match.

HUESTON IN FORM. Tom Hueston was in excellent form last night and he ran 50 points at the recreation billiard table while his opponent, R. Palmer, was collecting 19 at the Recreation Academy. Hueston had a high run of 9. Palmer's best consecutive string was 5.

HARMON COMES BACK. Stages Rally in Match Against Arthur Woods. Charlie Harmon staged a comeback in his 1200-point pocket billiard match against Arthur Woods at the National Billiard Academy last night.

He defeated Woods, 255 to 100, and for a time it looked as if he would overtake the 270-point lead obtained by his rival in the early part of the week.

BOB HOFFNER TOPS GIMBEL GOLFERS

Turns in Card of 79 in Second Annual Outing at Philmont

GUESTS OF ELLIS GIMBEL

The employees of the Gimbel store held their second annual golf tournament at the Philmont Country Club yesterday. Nearly forty executives and employees of the firm took part in the tourney, which was followed by a dinner.

Bob Hoffner finished with the best gross score of the afternoon and was presented with the first prize, a heavy sports sweater. He played the course in 77.

Hoffner, who started at scratch, played a great game. His tee shots were exceptionally good and his use of the masher was brilliant. He took 39 going out and was one stroke less coming home.

L. G. Sphon, who never played the course before, finished with the second best gross score, while George Hoffner was third. Sphon, by going around in 79 won the second prize, and George copped the third prize with an 82.

The low net prize was taken by Frank Gimbel, who, though an employee, is not a member of the family. He shot 123, minus a handicap of 40, which gave him a net count of 83.

After the tourney the players were the guests of Ellis Gimbel, Sr., at a dinner. Mr. Gimbel was unable to be present, but was represented by his son, Ellis Gimbel, Jr.

Mr. Gimbel, Jr., Mr. Charles Gimbel, a senior member of the firm, also was present. It was decided to form a team at the store, and Bob Hoffner was unanimously elected captain.

Hoffner will arrange matches with other golf teams in this city and an inter-city series with the Gimbel Brothers' stores in New York and Milwaukee.

It also was decided to form an athletic association. Mr. Ellis Gimbel, Jr., was unanimously elected president. He said that the store would place basketball, basketball and other teams in the field. He also said that the firm probably would buy a field at a clubhouse near the store where the employees could play baseball, tennis and otherwise amuse themselves.

Hot Weather Suggestions. In the warm months, appetites are unusually critical, and foods have to be "just so" to please. The discriminating folks who buy their meats and groceries at our Stores know they can always depend upon our goods to give perfect satisfaction, even when the temperature is 90° in the shade.
