

A NEW STUDY of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, victim of the California "hammer" murder. The photograph was made a few weeks ago

OLE'S IS BACK AT HIS FRUIT STAND. George L. Oles, who recently resigned as Mayor of Youngstown, Ohio

PENN STUDENT does lifeguard work. As soon as his studies were over William H. Grotzinger went to Ocean City, where he is busy protecting bathers

SHERIFF H. R. DUVALL, of Brooke County, West Virginia, killed in the West Virginia mine war

MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS pleaded not guilty when charged with killing Mrs. Alberta Meadows with a hammer, near Los Angeles

JUST BEFORE HIS WONDERFUL TRIUMPH Walter M. Hoover, world's champion sculler, under an umbrella, along the Thames at Henley

DURING A LULL IN THE FIGHTING. Civilians and Free State soldiers, one of whom has been wounded in Dublin. The Red Cross officer, is ready for a hurry-up call

GLORIA SWANSON in Los Angeles Court. She aided mother, Mrs. P. Burns, who lost fight to prevent setting aside husband's will. Left to right, Mrs. Burns, Joseph Scott, attorney, and Gloria

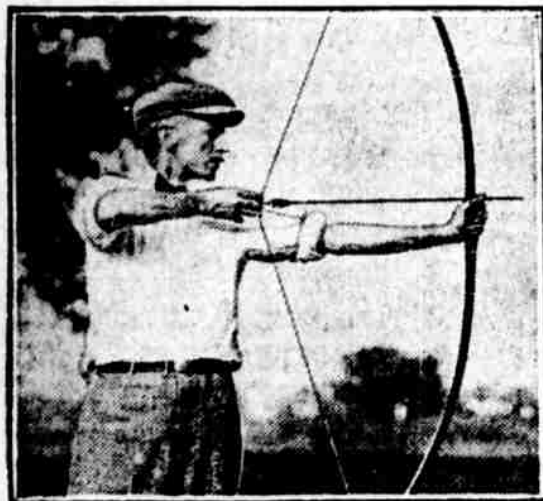

ENGLAND GIVING JAPAN POINTERS ON BUILDING FIGHTING PLANES. Crown Prince of Japan (right), with Colonel Sempill, head of the British Air Mission to Japan

PLENTY OF TREES IN HEART OF CITY. The photographer pointed his camera out of a City Hall window, getting the plaza, band concert pavilion, the Central Y. M. C. A., Philopatrian Club and U. G. I. Building in the range

SHOVELING SNOW in a Chicago cold-storage plant. It's two below zero. That didn't make the slightest difference to Helen Connaughton

MISS FLORENCE E. WARD, in charge of Department of Agriculture's co-operation with agricultural schools

EDWARD HYDE. New Chief of Police of Camden. He has been for many years a member of Camden force

WILLIAM McDERMOTT, commander of Grant Post, G. A. R., which meets at Sixteenth and Arch streets

MEREDITH HANNA talks of increased cost of divorce actions in Editorial Page interview

F. W. KING, whose archery this year has caused favorable comment by followers of that sport

ONE OF THE BATTLERS falling into Christiana Creek. This all happened during a tilting contest by members of the Delaware Canoe Club

THE END OF A 75-YARD DASH. Holt leading the field in the Sherwood Recreation Center event

CAPT. ARTHUR J. HEPBURN, now with American squadron in Turkish waters

WIFE of the Minister from Ecuador. She is Senora Dona Irene Bernales de Elizalde

F. McCLEOD, Columbia Country Club, Washington. They are participating in the open-golf championship of Philadelphia, at the Merion Golf Club

GEORGE PETERS, of the Gulph Mills Country Club

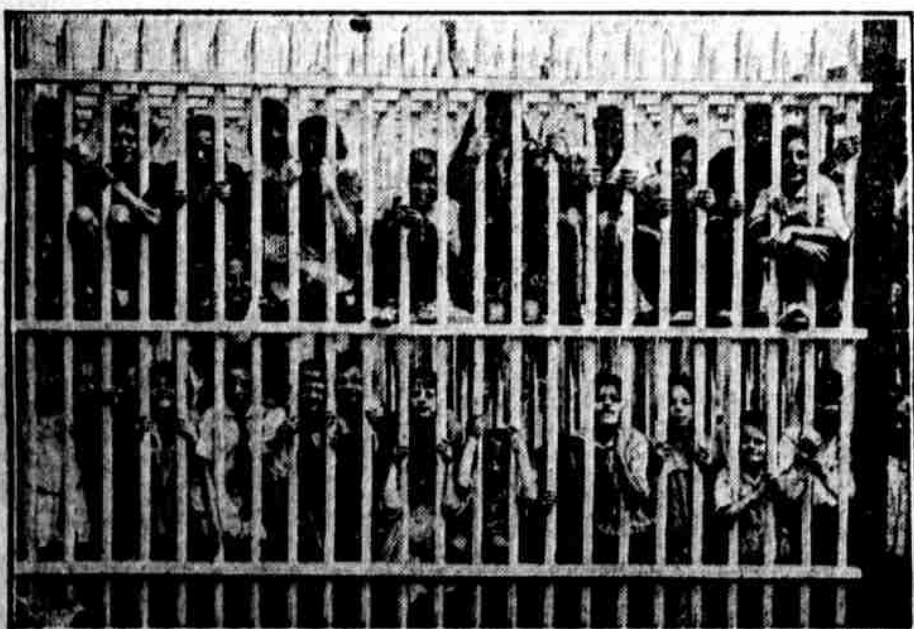

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

NINA PAYNE, American dancer, and her striped creation, which startled Paris

SOCIETY ENJOYS CAPE MAY. Miss Nancy Little has just come out of the ocean

IN CHARGE French Embassy. Count Charles de Chambrun

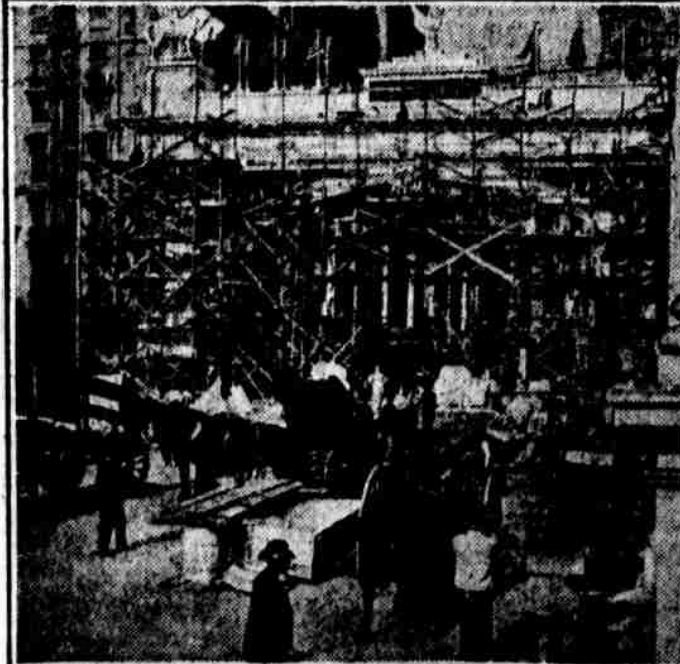

MRS. ELMER MELICK, field secretary Republican State Committee, on tour

THEY HAD A WONDERFUL TIME. The kiddies who traveled from Tioga to Atlantic City were "behind the bars" for a little while on one of the amusement piers. The Tioga Business Men's Association saw that all the youngsters had a big time

MISS ELIZABETH THAYER, ready for tennis at the Merion Cricket Club

YOU MAY HAVE WATCHED THE WORKMEN. Photograph of the building of the Court of Honor for the Peace Jubilee in 1898 was made by Clyde O. DeLand, who is the contributor. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

JOHN THOMAS GATLEY, of 310 Erie street, winner of a Camden baby show prize

MARINES AT THE PHILADELPHIA NAVY YARD. They are drilling daily as preparations are made for their departure to Brazil, where they will represent the U. S. during the coming national celebration