MARY THAYER has one of the prettiest frocks I have seen this senson. She was out at the Philadel-phia Cricket Club one day last week, wearing a dress of lavender ratine with a band of cretonne flowered in pink. invender and green around the end of the skirt and finishing the neck and the skirt and green around the end of the skirt and finishing the neck and deeres. The cretonne was joined to the ratine with buttonhole work in lavender wool.

It was a decidedly unique idea and becoming to Mary, who is rather like all the Wheelers-you know her mother was Miss Gertrude Wheeler. The hat worn with this pretty frock was of lavender satin and had a small bunch of flowers on the brim. Mary will join the George Packards when they return from Europe and go with them to their camp in the Adi-rondacks for the month of Angust. Mary and Ruth Packard came out two seasons ago.
