

Lack of Experience Robs Bobby Barrett of K. O. in Seventh Round of Battle With Joe Wellin

TENDLER-LEONARD READY FOR BELL

With Big Battle Forty-eight Hours Away, Both Are Down to Weight

EVERYTHING IS COMPLETED

ALTHOUGH their twelve-round bout is still two days off, both Bobby Leonard, champion, and Lew Tandler, challenger, are on edge ready to enter the ring at Jersey at a minute's notice.

Not in a long stretch of the sporting calendar has a fight of the magnitude attracted so much interest that has been continued in the coming clash.

Tandler has been the most persistent of the champion's challengers, but efforts to bring them together have proved futile until this time.

It was then that Tex Rickard stepped in and offered to promote the match. His terms were such that neither could refuse, and the match was consummated.

They will meet in the big arena that Rickard has arranged for at the Dempsey-Carpenter battle at Boyle's Thirty Acres. The bout is scheduled for twelve rounds. Under the laws of the State of New Jersey, decisions are not permitted, so that the only manner in which the title can change hands is by a knockout or a foul.

Tex Rickard yesterday stated that the advance sale of seats for the fight totaled close to the $300,000 mark, and he added, that he is convinced the gate will be in the vicinity of $500,000.

The tickets have been on sale at Madison Square Garden, in Philadelphia, Baltimore and other places for several weeks, and the promoter has estimated that between 60,000 and 75,000 persons will witness the meeting between the rivals.

Extensive preparations have been made to handle the crowd by Rickard, the Jersey State boxing commission and the Jersey City municipal authorities.

When the match was made and Jersey City was decided upon as the site, Mayor Hague assured Rickard that the spectators would be accorded the same protection as that afforded the police and fire departments that obtained when Dempsey smothered the championships of Carpenter a year ago.

Rickard has arranged for 700 seats to be reserved for the press, and to provide plenty of light in the arena. This system also will feed the big lights over the ring.

There will be seventy lights of 1000 watts each and 120 of 500 watts each placed overhead in the arena. The lights over the ring will total 20,000 watts.

"This arrangement will provide ample light," said Rickard. "Of course, all of the lights except those indicating the exit and over the ring are in progress. The system has been installed and the work of testing it to make sure that it is in perfect working order now is going on."

INTERPID TRIUMPHS

Class H Sloop Wins 325-Mile Yacht Race

Mackinac Island, Mich., July 25.—The Class H sloop, owned and captained by Prather, of Chicago, won the annual annual yacht race, which started at Chicago on Saturday.

The race, over a course of 325 miles long, started last Saturday morning with more than a score of entries from Lake Michigan points.

Commodore J. C. Vandike's Dorset was second and E. L. Bloomer's Dorset was third. Fourth and fifth were Agawa and Commodore Sheldon Clark's Flagship Rainbow.

H. D. Moreland and Commodore Gen won the race to the straits for motor-boat and captured the Sheldon Carls trophy with a time of 34 hours and 10 minutes.

ATTACKS BOXING COMMISH

Cleveland Mayor Also Refuses Permit for Kibane-Martin Bout

Cleveland, July 25.—In refusing a permit for a proposed bout between the featherweight champion here for the forthcoming championship here this summer, Mayor Fred Kohler took occasion to attack the New York State Athletic Commission. The Mayor reiterated his stand against professional boxing, saying:

Leonard-Tandler Returns To Be Given Out in Phila.

Announcement has been made by three different promoters that returns of the Leonard-Tandler bout at Jersey City will be given out in Philadelphia. John Chapman, of the Philadelphia Volodrome, Point Street Park, has arranged for a special wire from the ring side of the drama, and a resume of the battle round by round will be announced between bike races. The National Club and Logan A. Baber have arranged for a similar service by Charley Cross and Adam Ryan, respectively.

MRS. MAY BUNDY IN NEW YORK PLAY

Coast Star Begins Campaign to Regain Tennis Laurels Won Many Years Ago

PRIMING FOR NATIONALS

New York, July 25.—Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, of Los Angeles, former national women's tennis champion, today began her second campaign to regain the laurels she won nearly a score of years ago when she first appeared in the New York State championship at the courts of the Green Meadow Club.

Mrs. Bundy was accompanied east by Mrs. William H. Henry, of Los Angeles, who will be her partner in the doubles. She plans to play in a series of women's tournaments preparatory to the national championships at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, N. Y., beginning August 14.

Since her return to California, after her remarkable performance in last year's championship, in which she was defeated by Mrs. Mollie Blythe Malory in the semi-final round, Mrs. Bundy has kept in constant practice. She has defeated Miss Mary K. Browne, of Santa Monica, Calif., in several matches and those who have watched her game believe she is playing even more effectively than last season.

Mrs. Bundy will play in the singles of the State tournament and will partner Mrs. Henry in the doubles. Next week they expect to enter the invitation tournament of the Seabright, N. J., Lawn Tennis and Cricket Club and following that the Metropolitan championship at the Nassau Country Club.

The Coast star, as May Sutton, was the national women's champion in 1904. She also holds the distinction of being the only American woman to win the all-comers title at Wimbledon, invading England victoriously in 1905 and again in 1907. Her husband, Thomas C. Bundy, held the national doubles title in 1910 with T. W. Hendrick and also in 1912 with Maurice E. McLoughlin, the California "Comet," as his partner.

MASSACHUSETTS LIFTS BAN ON JOHNNY WILSON

Middleweight Champion Immediately Issues Challenge to Greb

Boston, July 25.—Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, today lifted the ban on his manager, Marty Killian, his manager, who has been reinstated by the Massachusetts Boxing Commission.

Wilson and his manager were suspended on January 5, following the action of the New York Boxing Commission in suspending the two when Wilson refused to accept the terms of a fight with the national champion of Pittsburgh, in New York, after Killian had signed a contract for the bout.

Killian said he signed the contract in order to obtain Wilson's share of the proceeds of the Bryan Dwyer-Wilson bout last Labor Day in Jersey City.

As soon as the decision of the commission was announced Wilson issued a challenge to Greb for a bout in Massachusetts.

TETRAMETER TRIUMPHS

Wins Steward's Cup for Three-Year-Olds in England

Godwood, England, July 25.—(By A. P.) Tetrameter, by Tetrahedron, of Godwood, won the Steward's Cup, a handicap of 1000 sovereigns for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, run here today.

Night patrol was second and Morning Light third. Thirty horses ran. The betting was: Tetrameter, 10 to 1; Night Patrol, 10 to 1; Morning Light, 10 to 1. Tetrameter is owned by Sir H. McAlmont.

JESS LACKS TRAINERS

Willard Forced to Look to East for Sparring Partners

Los Angeles, Calif., July 25.—Scarcity of seasoned heavyweight boxers in Southern California may force Jess Willard to look to the East for sparring partners in the Columbus Driving Park track, a handicap of 1000 sovereigns for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, run here today.

Willard plans to use plenty of sparring partners in the daily grind of preparation for his proposed championship bout with Jack Dempsey, and he is beginning to wonder whether he can still find the "plenty" he needs.

BARRETT VICTOR BY GREAT FINISH

Redhead Has Welling on Verge of Knockout in Seventh Round

CLINCHING SAVES JOSEPH

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

BOBBY BARRETT isn't a one-handed fistman by any means. The redhead distinctly proved that fact last night in the feature bout at Shibe Park, when his left hook, more so than his deadly right, enabled him to leave the ring a victor by a shade against Joe Wellin, of Chicago.

Lack of experience, together with the vise-like clinching tactics of the Middle Westerner, it appeared in the seventh round, robbed Barrett of a knockout. In that period Wellin was in a woody condition, but he outguessed Barrett in making him miss, and at the same time fell into numerous clinches, so that the Clifton Heights lad was unable to drive over the "crusher."

That seventh session was a rather stormy one for the Windy City light-weight. It was a left hook, half turning him around, that unbalanced Wellin first, early in the round, and then a right swing, a little too high up, made Joe noisier.

Held Continually

But Joe's strongest asset in the ring is his defensive tactics. He held on continually, falling into clinches almost as soon as Referee William H. Hoopwood sought them. Several times Barrett shook his head in disgust toward his corner, from whose shouts of "Finish him!" emanated, intimating that Wellin's holding was too much for him.

The eighth round also found Wellin suffering a lot of punishment around the body and head. However, before the session was over Barrett became somewhat fatigued and Wellin finished up with a belated rally.

Barrett got into the winning at a time when it appeared as if he were being hopelessly outclassed. When the bell rang ending the sixth round it appeared like a certain victory for Wellin, whose inside work, short snappy uppercuts and body blows helped him pile up a comfortable lead.

Wellin had a lot of respect for that Barrett right, and continually had that arm of Bobby's locked tight. But when Rob got going in the seventh and continued his fast work in the eighth it proved conclusively that the Redhead was a quantity of stamina and is never defeated until the bout is over.

Eddie Fitzsimmons, of New York, proved a tartar for Earl France, of California, and the Westerner failed to win, although not beaten, for the first time since appearing in matches in Philadelphia. France displayed sufficient cleverness from the distance to give him a draw against the hard-punching Gotham southpaw.

It looked as if France were due for a visit to the canvas on two different occasions, but he came back swinging each time. In the third left to the body almost doubled up Earl, and the same glove to the jaw in the fifth by Fitzsimmons badly shook up the Californian.

Wagner Wins

Eddie Kid Wagner, local rising featherweight, added Sammy Seiger, of New York, to his list of defeated when the South Philadelphia came through with a rush in the last few rounds and killed the visitor around at pretty lively pace.

Frankie Conway, of Camden, stepped into the ring as a substitute for Benny Harris and under the circumstances he put up a good exhibition against Joe O'Donnell, of Gloucester, earning a draw by his fast finish.

The only knockout on the program occurred in the first set when Al Stone, the hard-hitting marine, scored a technical K. O. in the second round against Eddie Hayes, of Shenandoah. The latter's second round knock-out to the ring after Hayes had been dropped twice.

WORK ON STADIUM FOR OLYMPIC GAMES BEGINS

Architect Promises to Have Track Ready by October

Columbus Stadium, Paris, July 25.—Work on the erection of the stadium at Columbus, in which the 1924 Olympic games will be held, began yesterday.

The preparation for the games, which, since June, 1921, has been confined to the Finance Commission of the Paris Municipal Council, the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate, is now officially assigned to the architect, Ernest Dujarie.

He promises to have the 500-meter track ready for the athletes to begin their preparation next October.

The stands will have a capacity of 60,000, and will include a regulation rugby and association football field. They will be finished in April, 1923, said Architect Dujarie.

MORGAN'S DEFEAT IS TENNIS USPET

Penn Captain Beaten by C. W. Beard, of Cynwyd, in Middle States

BILL TILDEN WITHDRAWS

Charles N. Beard, veteran Cynwyd tennis star, furnished the surprise of the current Middle States tennis tournament yesterday when he trounced Captain Andrew Morgan, of the University of Pennsylvania, after an unusually fierce battle, 6-2, 7-5, on the clay courts of the Cynwyd Club.

Morgan, who flashed some unusually good tennis in the recent intercollegiate tourney at Merion, when he trimmed some of the best collegians in the country, was outgeneralized and outplayed by his veteran opponent.

Another Pennsylvania crack who was defeated by an unusually wide margin was Manager Donald Steel and No. 3 of the Red and Blue team, Little Gus Amsterdam, pride of Woodford courts, driving with tremendous speed, chased Steel all over the court and won in the impressive style of 6-0, 6-0. Steel was unable to advance before the match but no one expected the result to be so emphatic.

Though the tournament was hard hit by the withdrawal of Bill Tilden, in a telegram to Dr. Philip B. Hawk, tournament manager yesterday morning, Tilden expressed regret but said it was necessary to withdraw to practice on grass courts for the Davis Cup trials on Saturday. The Cynwyd affair is staged on clay and the sudden shift from clay to grass was likely to have affected the champion's game.

Two unexpected defaults came when Stanley W. Jackson, one of the ranking local stars, and young Sandy Weiner, Tilden's latest protege, defaulted. Both were expected to travel far in the tilt.

All the other favorites advanced with a clean conscience, extending national finalist and runner-up to Tilden last year won by default from Herbert Miller; Carl Fischer, present Middle States champion, defeated R. M. Graham without extending himself, 6-0, 6-2; Dr. Philip B. Hawk, several times runner-up, downed A. D. Snyder, 6-0, 6-0; while T. C. Leonard won from Daniel Kefe, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Other interesting matches were staged by J. Solis-Cohen, Jr., in defeating S. F. Farrell, 6-0, 6-3, and by Dr. E. L. Ellison in trouncing Herbert Wallis, 6-2, 6-0. One of the toughest matches of the day was that won by Dr. J. G. Taylor from Carl Martin, Jr., 6-2, 6-8, 6-4.

GOODFELLOWS TO PLAY

Will Meet Bartram Park on Home Field in Twilight Game

The Goodfellows baseball team, which last week trounced Hate Motors, 14 to 2, will open its home season at Fifty-eighth and Walnut streets tonight with Bartram Park.

Manager Lombardi has secured a great line-up for the Goodfellows, and McVey, who fanned eighteen of the Motorists last week, will again be on the hill.

The Goodfellows are a trifle late in getting started, as they did not wish to enter the field as a traveling club, and it was a long time before they were able to make arrangements for their present location, which is the best in West Philadelphia.

HOPKIN REACHES 2 TENNIS FINALS

Central High Led to Play for Boys' State Singles and Doubles Crowns

TOM McGLINN DEFEATED

Milton Hopkin, a wee lad from the Central High School, now representing the Woodford Courts, reached two final rounds in the boys' Pennsylvania State championships at the Cynwyd Club today. He survived the semi-finals in the singles and doubles.

In the singles Hopkin showed his ability by eliminating Harry Ax, conqueror of Donald Strachan, the national boys' clay court champion, in two sets, 6-0, 6-2. In the doubles he played with Milford Myers. They defeated L. Powell and F. W. Armstrong, Jr., in two love sets, 6-0, 6-0.

William Maguire and John McGlinn also reached the doubles final. They defeated Thomas Nicely and Malcolm Hodge, 6-3, 7-5. The meet Hopkin and Myers for the title tomorrow.

Hopkin will also play for the singles championship tomorrow. He will oppose the winner of the Milford Myers-Thomas Nicely match tomorrow.

Earl Bartlett, the southpaw youth, reached two semi-finals. He won from Al J. Maguire, Jr., in the singles, 6-3, 6-0 and with Thomas McGlinn advanced in the doubles by eliminating C. Gordon Hodge and J. J. M. Bowker, 6-3, 6-2.

One of the surprises of the day was the elimination of Tom McGlinn from the singles. McGlinn, who with Miles Valentine won the national boys' doubles last year, was beaten by Neil Sullivan in two sets, 6-2, 6-2.

Hopkin showed great steadiness in his match against Ax. His extreme coolness was a factor in his victory. He played continually to Ax's backhand and forced his opponent to defeat himself. The point score follows:

BOYS' SINGLES Semi-Final Round

Neil Sullivan defeated Thomas McGlinn, 6-2, 6-2.

Earl Bartlett defeated Al J. Maguire, Jr., 6-3, 6-0.

Jack Brommal defeated L. B. Kraft, Jr., 6-4, 7-6.

BOYS' DOUBLES (Semi-Final Round)

Milton Hopkin and Milford Myers defeated Neil Sullivan and Thomas Nicely, 6-0, 6-0.

Earl Bartlett and John McGlinn defeated Thomas Nicely and Malcolm Hodge, 6-3, 7-4.

JUNIOR DOUBLES (Semi-Final Round)

Thomas McGlinn and Earl Bartlett defeated C. Gordon Hodge and J. J. M. Bowker, 6-3, 6-2.

LANSDOWNE TITLE FOR COUNTRY CLUB

"Doc" Cariss, Penn Coach, Beats Legion Nine, 4 to 3, Before Record Crowd

ERRORS DECIDE THE ISSUE

The Lansdowne Country Club, 1922 baseball champions of Lansdowne. This was the outcome of one of the greatest games of baseball played at Lansdowne last night between the representatives of that organization and the American Legion to determine the best team in the Delaware County town.

More than 1500 persons watched the pastime, which happens to be the largest crowd of fans that has witnessed a baseball contest there in years. Brilliant fielding and hard batting, with sensational catches, combined to make the event one long to be remembered by those who witnessed the fray.

Before the game began it was decided to play seven innings, but with the totals deadlocked at 3-all it was agreed to continue until some one scored.

The game was for blood, and every one was in favor of a fight to a finish—and the soldiers lost.

A galaxy of stars, past and present, trotted out when play began. Many of them were players dotted the field. They gave a good account of themselves, and Doc Cariss, Penn coach, was the winning pitcher. He hurled brilliant ball, holding the Legion batters to six hits, fanning seven and walking none.

Dan Sheppard, who opposed him, yielded eight hits, four of which were doubles, had four bases on balls and batted six. Hands Ogden and the entire Country Club infield played a bang-up game.
