Woman and Three Men Injured
When Car Leaves Road Near
Chews Landing

ONE OF VICTIMS LIVES HERE

Three men and a young woman were injured early today when their automobile crashed through a fence and into a tree at "Dead Man's Curve," near Chews Landing, N. J.

In the morning mist the driver mistook a sharp S-turn for a straight-away. Two of the party are under treatment at the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital. Two were treated for minor injuries and discharged. The party was on the first lap of an auto trip from Atlantic City to Baltimore.

Miss Jacqueline Boso, 18 South Pennsylvania avenue, Atlantic City, suffered a scalp wound and a broken finger. She and Joseph Lichenberg, 443 Calvert street, are in the hospital. Lichenberg has a scalp wound and bruises of the body. The others in the car were Harry West, 37 South Maryland avenue, Atlantic City, and Austin T. Schussler, 217 East Thirty-first street, Baltimore, owner and driver of the car.

Lichenberg was catapulted into the tree, and Schussler went through the windshield.

Andrew Jackson Reilly Doesn't Think Much of Average Male Juror

Andrew Jackson Reilly, crier in Common Pleas Court No. 2, who during his more than fifty years' service has assisted in swearing in seventeen judges, is eighty-eight years old today. Reilly served in the Civil War with the Sixteenth New York Heavy Artillery.

He says that in his many years' experience in courtrooms he has noticed that the great majority of jurors wonder what it's all about when the lawyers present arguments. "The women jurors never make any mistakes, of course," he says.

Gimbels Twenty-fifth August FURNITURE SALE

Opened Monday—With Selling that Fully Taxed Our Large Organization

The man who organized the Furniture business in this Store—and, later in Gimbel's New York Store—was the man who created August Furniture Sales—to turn a dull month into a busy one and, by using the Store's instrumentalities that otherwise would be idle, really afford to sell furniture at lower prices. Then manufacturers caught the hunger for Summer business, and the public gained thereby.

The three Gimbel Stores—New York, Philadelphia and Milwaukee—have for this August Sale—

$2,400,000 Worth of Furniture

—at the low August prices—furniture of charm and excellence, furniture at lower prices than for years; furniture of new appeal to apartment furnishers needing to conserve space. Steadily the business has grown—through meeting the public's needs—until today—

Gimbels Are America's Largest Furniture Retailers

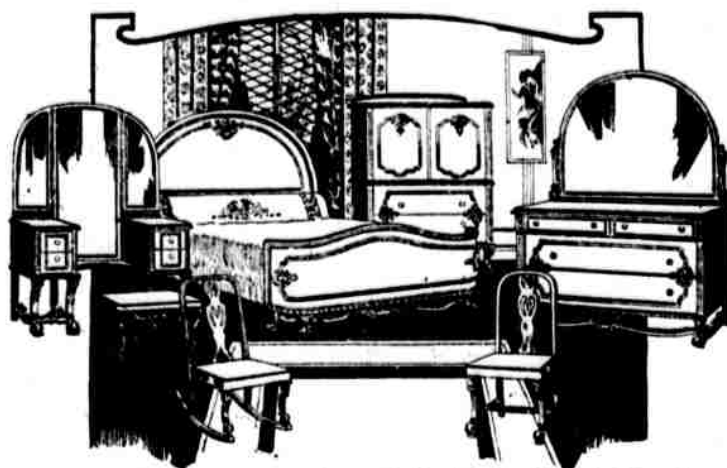

Hard work, hard study, learning values—fighting your battles to get values.

It made our furniture organization students of furniture "periods" in all countries and led to large association with the wizard worker who had access to the great houses of England—and, of course, to the museums. What things he found! How he reveled in the examples of Early Renaissance (Elizabethan), Jacobean, Georgian, Hepplewhite, Chippendale, Adam (Robert Adam, 1728-92), Sheraton. And the French Louis styles yielded much, and Chinese Chippendale—though that has no large demand.

And, withal, Gimbel Furniture is easy to buy: And—
