LEONARD-TENDLER FINISH TRAINING

Limbering-Up Exercises Only Work for Champion and Challenger Today

BOTH BOXERS NERVOUS

Philadelphia fight fans who intend motoring to the Leonard-Tendler scrap at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City tomorrow night will have merely to follow the Lincoln Highway...

Strenuous training ended yesterday and today the only work that will be done will be light exercises with a view of keeping the muscles limber.

Leonard had a tough day at Budd's Lake yesterday. He walked five miles at a brisk clip in the morning and in the afternoon he boxed seven rounds with Mike Currier...

Tendler is quiet down at his camp in Delanco, N. J., and inclined to listen, but observers are beginning to wonder if this is from progressive lack of power...

HOFKIN CAPTURES BOYS' STATE TITLE

Defeats Milford Myers in Straight Sets at Cynwyd. Juniors in Final

BRAMMEL MEETS BARTLETT

Milton Hofkin won the boys' singles tennis championship of the State today at the Cynwyd Club when he defeated Milford Myers, teammate from the Woodford Courts Club, in straight sets, 6-0, 6-2.

Hofkin played his usual steady game. He waited for the ball and just hit it back over the net at all times, forcing his opponent to error, which he usually did.

Hofkin is a pocket edition of Dr. Philp B. Hawk, who is playing in the Middle States tournament. He never loses the ball, but just sends it over the net. His clubs never ward him. However, his placements are exceptionally good.

Hofkin had an easy time in the first set. He took the first three games in the Cynwyd Club when he defeated Milford Myers. He dropped the fourth game on his service, after it went to deuce, by hitting the ball into the net.

Jack Brammel defeated Neil Sullivan, 6-1, 6-2. The match was a hard fought one, but Brammel's superior courtship won out.

FLEISHER YARNERS PLAY SOUTH PHILS

North Phillies and Stenton Field Club Clash in Big Contest in Mount Airy

THE Fleisher Yarners and South Phillies are at it again tonight. These downtown rivals for the independent baseball championship of Philadelphia have mingled more times than any two teams in the city, but there is a reason.

The fans of the contesting teams are certain their favorites are supreme and turn out on masses when the ball field than in the newspapers, and who is winning with regularity. Jeff Tesreau will pitch for the South Phils.

Another big sectional clash is at the grounds of the Stenton Field Club at Phil-Ellens and Musgrave streets, where the home team collides with the North Phillies. These clubs are among the leaders in the northern section. The Phils now have won fourteen of the last sixteen starts and the record of Stenton is equally as good.

HOOPER DECIDES TO ROW IN NATIONALS

Winner of Diamond Sculls Will Defend Title Here Next Week

Hooper on his return appeared to be in the best of health. He was very modest and would say little about the classic race in which he was returned victor except that the British were good sportsmen and that he was treated royally by all, including the King.
