

THE MOUNTBATTEN-ASHLEY WEDDING. Lord Louis Mountbatten and his bride leaving St. Margaret's Church, in London, under an arch of swords formed by brother officers of Lord Louis. The bride was Miss Edwina Ashley, England's richest woman

VICTORIOUS AMERICAN SCULLER HOME. Walter Hoover, of Duluth, sculling champion of the world, arrives from England on the Majestic

COL. HENRY S. WAGNER, assistant executive officer of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Camp Dix

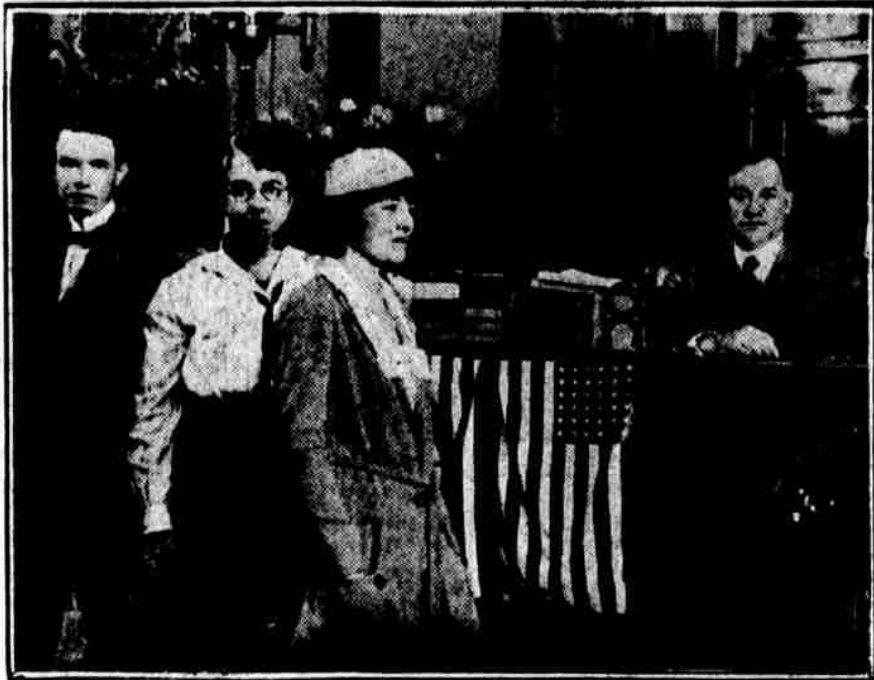

ATTACKS THE DUMMY. Lieutenant J. M. Williams, of Fort Riley, uses his sword as the hurdle is made, during Camp Dix exhibition

"MONKEY RIDERS" MAKE BIG HIT AT CAMP DIX. The riders are members of the Third United States Cavalry. They put thrills into the program given at Camp Dix

IN A LOS ANGELES PRISON, Mrs. Clara Phillips is greeting her husband, A. L. Phillips. He announced that he would fight to a finish for her freedom

"HAMMER MURDER" PRISONER IN COURT. It was Mrs. Clara Phillips' first appearance before a Judge since her arrest on the charge of killing Mrs. Alberta Meadows, near Los Angeles. Left to right, District Attorney Woolwine, prison matron, Mrs. Phillips and Judge Houser

HEADED FOR THE OCEAN. Miss Ellen MacKay, of New York, on the beach at Southampton, L. I.

DOING STRIKE GUARD WORK. Headed by a Pennsylvania State Policeman, eight members of the 104th Cavalry are going through a village near the regimental headquarters at Cokesburg

CAPE MAY LIFE GUARDS. Gen. Little, captain of the guards, is chatting with Lindell Ashburn, Harry Ewing and Edward Hallman (left to right) on the beach

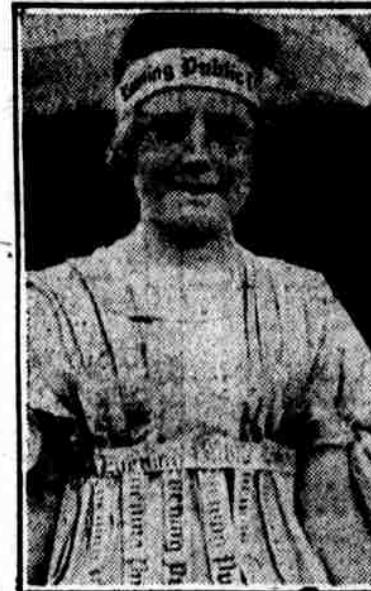

PHILADELPHIAN AT CAPE MAY. Introducing Mary Hill, of 5563 Catharine st.

THEY'RE FROM WEST PHILADELPHIA. The children at the left demonstrated the care of babies in the playground parade. At the right is Helen Dougherty, of 5981 Cedar avenue

DR. HENRY A. TUPPER will make study of Turkey for Department of Labor

HUNDREDS OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA KIDDIES IN PLAYGROUND PARADE. Meeting at the Girard Playgroud, Eighteenth street and Snyder avenue, they marched through many streets. Emma Ott was decorated with EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER headings

MISS DOROTHY FROWERT, of New York, snapped on beach at Cape May

MILTON HOFKIN, Central High, reaches singles and doubles finals. Taking part in Boys' Pennsylvania State Championship at Cynwyd

HANSON HODGE, who won, with Samuel Ewing, Jr., in junior doubles

WADING IN A FAIRMOUNT PARK FOUNTAIN. The girls were having a wonderful time when photographer caught them

RESCUING CREW FROM BRITISH STEAMER. The Wiltshire was stranded on Great Barrier Island, off New Zealand, and during a storm broke in half. Two of the crew are in the carrier

U. S. AMBASSADOR MYRON T. HERRICK laying the first stone in the reconstruction of Alame, which was shattered by the Germans

MISS MARIA DE KOSENKO, of this city, among the Americans in the French golf championship tourney

DR. C. C. F. MARBUT compares soils of Europe and America. He has charge of U. S. soil survey

VANLEER'S TAVERN, which was located at what is now Fifty-third street and Haverford avenue. It was torn down in 1910. Dr. John W. Eckfeldt, 6912 Vine street, is the contributor. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

PICKING A WATER LILY. Miss Helen Seiler, fair canoeist of Wilmington, on a creek near the Delaware city

RICHARD ENRIGHT, Commissioner of New York police, is visiting European cities

C. P. ANDERSON, of New York, will arbitrate Norwegian claims against United States

DUBLIN SNIPERS. Two members of the Free State Army watching for rebels along Sackville street

IF YOU DON'T LIKE THE HOME-TOWN hire a barge, put house on it and let a powerboat do the rest. Albert Westerman moving a frame house from Ventnor Heights to Atlantic City