

FOUR STILLS FOUND BY SHORE POLICE

Plant in Pine Woods Near Reega Reported by Women Berry Pickers

GIRL AND GUARD RESCUED

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger Atlantic City, July 27.—Acting on information furnished by women berry pickers, County Detectives Fulmer and Nusebaum assisted by four State troopers last night surrounded a moonshine still in the pine woods near Reega, a small hamlet a few miles outside of Mays Landing. A fifty-gallon still and three ten-gallon stills were working at capacity when the raiders descended on the plant. Andrew Gleery and Justin C. Czapewicz, who were caught operating the still, were arrested and brought to this city.

Detective William Taylor arrested James Creamey, a car cleaner, early this morning after a chase that led through the center of the city and ended when Creamey was boarding a train for Philadelphia. Creamey is accused of larceny of linen from a rooming house several years ago.

Members of the beach patrol yesterday took a boat under the Million Dollar Pier and rescued Frances McCall, nine years old, of 240 Marlborough street, Philadelphia, and Life Guard Eeles. Frances had been playing on the beach with several companions, but ventured out too far. As she started back to shore a bag wave washed over her and swept her off her feet, and carried her toward the pier, a block away. Eeles, sighting the child, started after her. As he reached her they were both carried under the pier, where the frightened girl got a death grip about the guard's neck. Guards Martine and Johnson, who were outside the breaker line in a boat, started for the pier, and by some of the most skillful work ever seen on the beach maneuvered their craft under the pier and around the pilings until they caught Eeles and the girl and pulled them into the boat.

Charged by George Carr, a guest at a St. James place hotel, with the larceny of jewelry valued at $150, George Culbertson, 258 South Fifty-fifth street, Philadelphia, and Thomas Ryan, who gave his address as 5543 Walton avenue, Philadelphia, were brought back from Camden today. The alleged robbery is said to have occurred several days ago while the Philadelphians were guests at the same hotel as Carr. They were held under $500 bail for a hearing tomorrow.

NIGHT IN TURKISH BATH RESTORES DOCTOR'S VISION

81-Year-Old Physician Regains Sight After 3 Years of Blindness Blind for almost three years, Dr. Lenuel J. Deal, for many years a prominent physician in this city, credits the return of his sight to a Turkish bath. At his home, 2106 North Hancock street, Dr. Deal said this morning that a six-hour sleep in the bath restored the vision that well-known eye specialists despaired of. Dr. Deal said that from childhood he had been afflicted with eye trouble, and three years ago became totally blind. Many physicians treated him, and various remedies were suggested. However, no improvement was noted. Last May Dr. Deal became obsessed with the idea that if he went to a Turkish bath and slept for several hours he would be cured. When he awakened, he said, he was able to discern objects close to him and his sight has steadily improved ever since. Dr. Deal is eighty-one years old and has lived in Philadelphia all his life. He was graduated from Jefferson Medical College in 1896, and for eight years was in charge of clinical surgery and director of chemistry at the college. He served in the Civil War as surgeon.

KENDALL ADMITS HE KNEW OF DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Ex-Dean of Yale Art School Says Wife Left Country to Get Decree New Haven, Conn., July 27.—William Sergeant Kendall, former dean of the Yale art school, admitted last night that he knew divorce proceedings had been instituted by Mrs. Kendall in Paris, but denied that the final decree was handed down on October 12, 1921. He said that was the date upon which the action was started, but the final decree was rendered on July 15, he asserted. He also admitted that Mrs. Kendall left this country in May, 1921, and that it was her intention to procure a divorce. While the technical ground given was desertion he said the real reason was "incompatibility." Allison, the youngest daughter, according to the decree, remains with her mother, who is now staying at Cambridge, England. Elizabeth, Mrs. Pleasant Underwood, the oldest daughter, is at her home in Ridgefield, Beatrice, second daughter of the couple, was awarded to the father. She is preparing to finish her art studies in France on the scholarships she won at the Yale art school last spring.

'WETS' OPPOSE LADY ASTOR

Seat in Parliament May Be Contested at General Election London, July 27.—Opposition to Lady Astor at the next general election because of her views on prohibition became definitely known yesterday when it was announced that a section of the conservative organization at Plymouth approached in London Dr. H. W. Bayly and asked him to oppose the American-born woman for Parliament. According to a Plymouth announcement, the conservative voters are of the "opinion that a conservative should not be allied or even in sympathy with prohibition." Dr. Bayly acknowledged being approached to make the race, but said he would not decide until he visited Plymouth.

How I Got Rid of Burning Feet

And Pains from Corns and Bunions Without Soaking, Powders, Plasters, Etc., After Suffering Indescribable Foot Misery for 20 Years. Prof. F. T. McIntyre, well-known world tourist and lecturer, says: "For years I was compelled to wear shoes two sizes too large, to be able to walk with any comfort at all. I tried soaking my feet in medicated baths, powders, plasters and foot-treatments galore, but the burning callouses and soreness refused to go, while the pains from corns and bunions continued to torture both mind and body, which upset my entire nervous system. One day, very fortunately, I met a lady from Egypt who gave me a little box of Gypsy Foot Relief, which she said was a secret from the desert. After using it a short time, the awful burning stopped, the callouses came off in chunks, leaving the skin of my feet clean and smooth, while the pains from corns and bunions seemed to disappear as if by magic. From that time, I said a joyful goodbye to over 20 years of indescribable foot misery. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars to again go through those years of agony. Now I feel like telling every foot sufferer to get a box of the wonderful Gypsy Foot Relief." Note—Gypsy Foot Relief, referred to by Mr. McIntyre, may be applied in a minute, without fuss or bother. Sure, quick relief comes three minutes later, or the makers give back the small amount you pay. It is sold in this city by Liggett's, Geo. B. I Was a Bad Woman—

"It is quite true," she repeated, "I wasn't a good woman before I married; but I am a good woman now." Can a BAD woman ever become a GOOD woman? This is the problem that Gouverneur Morris works out in "THE BETTER WIFE"—one of the great novels of the year—in Hearst's International for August.
