

4 AUTOISTS HURT IN CAMDEN CRASH

Machine Smashes Through Fence into Tree Near Chews Landing

TERMINAL CONTRACT MADE

Three men and a woman on route from Atlantic City to Baltimore early yesterday, had a close call when their machine ran into a fence and crashed against a big tree at Chews Landing, wrecking the car.

The injured, taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, were:

Joseph Lichenberg, Baltimore, cuts on forehead.

Austin T. Schussler, Baltimore, cuts on scalp and bruises.

Harry West, Atlantic City, cuts of scalp and bruises.

Miss Jacqueline Boso, Atlantic City, severe cuts of scalp, broken finger and sprained back.

The car was driven by Schussler, who was unfamiliar with the road, and did not see the sharp turn.

Lichenberg was tossed with a door of the automobile, into the tree, and Miss Boso was thrown out. They were taken to the hospital by H. S. Engle, on whose land the accident occurred.

The contract for dredging and removal of old docks on the site of the proposed $2,000,000 ferryhouse and train terminal of the Reading Railroad at the foot of Market street, Camden, was awarded yesterday to the American Dredging Company, of Camden.

The dredging will require several months. Plans were made for many years by the Dialogue Shipbuilding Company will be removed to make room for the structure.

Condemned to die in the electric chair during the week of September 3, Guilford C. Young, slayer of Harry Camden, Camden, Jersey man, has one remaining avenue of appeal in the Board of Pardons. John T. Cleary, Camden Attorney, will ask the Board for a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

Vice Chancellor Leaming, in the Camden Chancery Court yesterday, dismissed the suit of several residents of West Collingswood, who sought to prevent John Chakamain and his wife from building stores on Collings avenue, near Mount Ephraim avenue. The contention was advanced that the deeds restricted properties being used for stores. The court decided no such stipulation existed.

An association of thirteen municipalities in Camden County was formed at a meeting in the Camden Chamber of Commerce last night. The organization, known as the Associated Municipalities of Camden County, is intended to effect economies in local government, construct better sewerage facilities and establish uniform school and building regulations.

The municipalities include Camden, Gloucester, Haddon Township, Audubon, Haddonfield, Haddon Heights, Wood Lynne, Pensauken Township, Merchantville, Collingswood, Barrington and Oaklyn.

Election of officers resulted in the choice of Mayor Volney Bennett, of Merchantville, as president; Mayor Thomas Jack, of Collingswood, vice president; Mayor John S. Roberts, of Barrington, treasurer, and Mayor William B. MacMullen, of Oaklyn, secretary.

Each municipality is entitled to four members in the association and each delegation elects a member to the commission, which corresponds to the executive committee. All fear of annexation of the smaller towns was dispelled at the outset of the meeting.

TEEFY MADE CAPTAIN

To Eliminate Grade Crossing

Officials of the Old York Road Chamber of Commerce have been advised the Reading Railway would construct an overhead bridge to eliminate the dangerous crossing at Chelton Mills Station, south of Jenkintown. It is said the survey has been made. It is believed the bridge will cost between $150,000 and $200,000, and that work will be started late this year or early next year.

The Semi-Annual Sale of Furniture

Making New Friends for This Store Every Day

Already hundreds of homes have benefited. Already hundreds of home furnishers have been made happier in the knowledge that they have made every dollar do full duty. Here are the sort of questions Furniture shoppers ask—and here are the answers that help to establish the status of this Sale:

How Great Is the Sale?

We have made preparations for the greatest Sale in the history of this Store. We have assembled for this Sale the greatest and most comprehensive collection of Furniture that has ever been in this Store at one time.

How Much Can I Save?

The saving in every case is a substantial one—chiefly one-third. In some instances you save as much as one-half.

Is Regular Stock Included?

IT IS! Every piece and suit, without reservation, is now marked at a sharp reduction from our former low regular price.

Are There Special Purchases?

THERE ARE. We contracted for hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of Furniture at a time when manufacturers' prices were at the lowest point of the downward price swing. You profit thereby.

What Kind of Furniture?

TRUSTWORTHY, DESIRABLE FURNITURE. The greater part of this collection consists of medium-priced Furniture. That is—solid, well-made Furniture, in designs that conform to the demands of good taste. Furniture worthy to grace the finest of homes—your own home.

How Are the Prices?

Prices this season are one-half of those of 1920, and average one-third less than those current last year. For instance, among the attractions of this Sale—

A 10-piece Adam Dining-Room Suit, of old mahogany, at $285.00. A 10-piece Queen Anne walnut or mahogany Dining-Room Suit, for $385.00. A 4-piece Queen Anne Bedroom Suit, of walnut, for $195.00. A 4-piece Post Colonial Bedroom Suit, of walnut or mahogany, for $267.50. A 4-piece William and Mary Bedroom Suit of walnut, for $145.00. Worth one-third more.

What Will It Cost to Furnish a Home?

That would vary according to your tastes, and the number of rooms to be furnished. However, prices in this Sale will enable you to furnish three rooms for as little as $500.00 or as much as $4000.00.

How Can I Tell the Savings?

On all Furniture from regular stocks is attached two tickets. One ticket is gray—this shows the regular price. A green ticket shows the Sale price. Comparison shows exactly what you save. All special purchases bear a yellow ticket. On this is a price which is a fair valuation of this Furniture and also the Sale price. Comparison of these two prices shows that you save from one-fourth to one-half.

Can Furniture I Buy Now be Charged in My Bill for August?

CERTAINLY! Charge customers may buy now and pay in September. All Furniture purchases made during this sale, unless you stipulate otherwise, will be charged the same as if made during August and will appear on the bill rendered September first.

Can I Have the Furniture Delivered Later?

YES! Furniture selected now will, at your request, be held for later delivery. Selection now means selection while the collection is at its best.

Is Full Payment Required at Time of Purchase?

NO. If you do not care to pay cash, the salesman will gladly explain our Deferred Payment Plan—a plan of gradual payments which is dignified, simple and convenient.

Why Do You Urge Careful Comparison?

A TWO-FOLD REASON. First—that you may be sure of securing greatest Furniture value for the money you intend to spend. Second—because comparison reveals the matchless character and values of this Sale.

The Sale is now in full swing. So come, compare and judge where values are best.
