

WHO IS THE FAIR BATHER? Edna Wallace Hopper having a good time on the beach, at San Monica, California. Duke Kahanamoku (left) and Fred A. Cady

VINCENT SCHWARTZ, 75 years old, appears in Seattle parade as he did in '98 during the Yukon gold rush

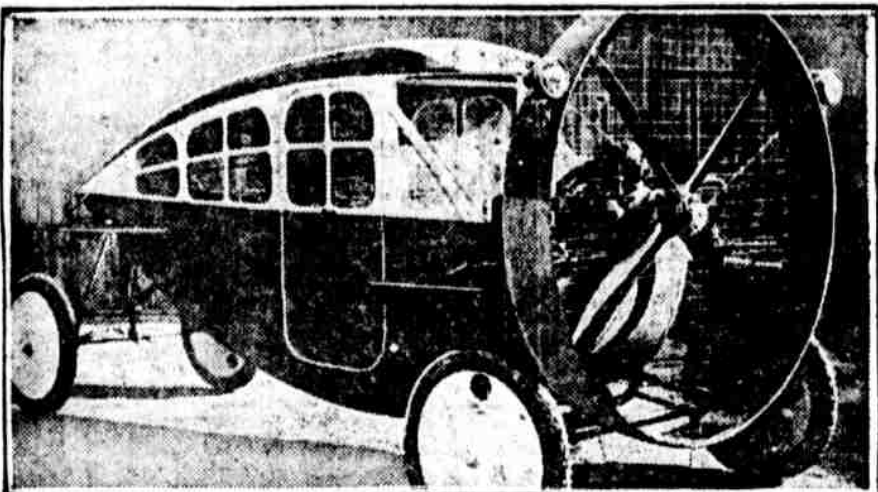

WINNER AND SCENE OF GRAND PRIX AT PARIS. Thousands saw the French auto classic. It was won by Nazzaro in record-making time. The winner and his mechanic are shown, as well as the track, with the winning machine passing the grandstand at the finish

KEEPS FIT BY DIVING AND SWIMMING. Marge Whittington ready for a back dive at Long Beach

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR WAINRIGHT and Lieutenant Colonel W. O. Smith, at the Quartermaster's warehouse, Twenty-first street & Oregon avenue

THIS FREAKISH-LOOKING AUTOMOBILE, invented and built in Europe, is driven by an air screw. Its engine is of two cylinders, air-cooled, and it is of eight horsepower

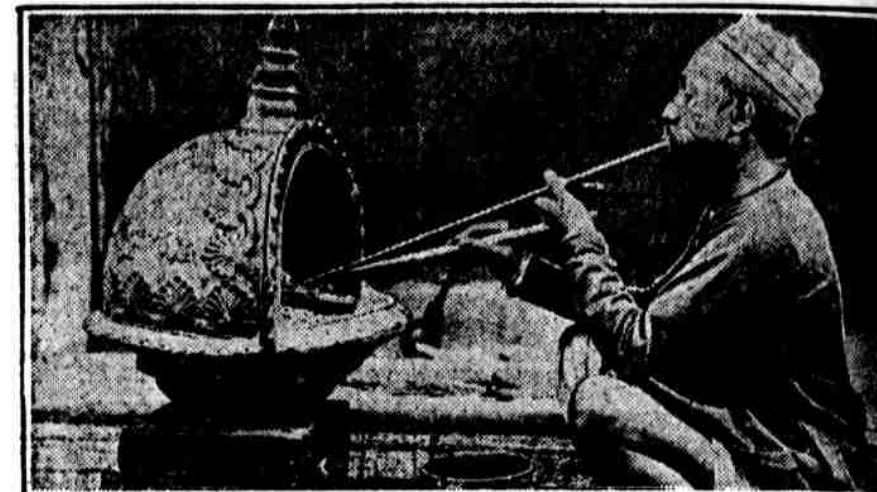

AN ITALIAN BATHER. A fair rival of American bathing beauties, snapped at Liguria, Italy

J. W. CAMPBELL AND R. MILLER, in a Crescent double, manage to get in a practice spin for the Nationals every day. Campbell is stroking the shell

WELL TAGGED. A Kensington lad found in Fairmount Park, where he attended Mrs. Ketchum's party

HIS OWN BELLOWS. A silversmith of Lucknow, India, blows air into his charcoal fire. With his right hand he is handling the tweezers, by which he manipulates the silver trinkets

MRS. R. CHURCHILL, Louisville, Ky., on links of the Point Judith Club, Rhode Island

GEORGES CARPENTIER, the boxing actor, and Flora Le Breton, appearing with him in French movies. Carpentier rushed into the hero class by saving Flora from tempestuous waters

CAUGHT BY CAMERA IN WASHINGTON. De Witt Cuyler has busy life in railroad strike conferences

ATLANTIC CITY LIFE GUARD. Alexander Berman has seen fifteen years' service. He's a star swimmer

ON DUTY AT OCEAN CITY. William Haines, Jr., Westtown, Pennsylvania. He's been a lifeguard two summers

JUDGE RALPH E. MOODY, of Portland, Oregon, will aid in the War Fraud prosecutions

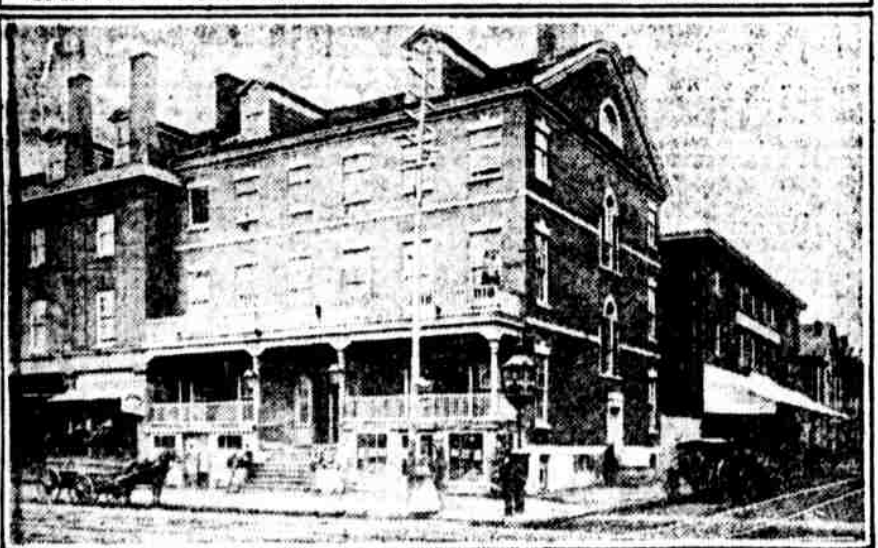

CUTS OLD BELGIAN BLOCKS IN HALF. Then they are dressed up a bit for use in the repaving of Sixth street

EARL BARTLETT, who put up wonderful game in boys' tennis matches at Cynwyd

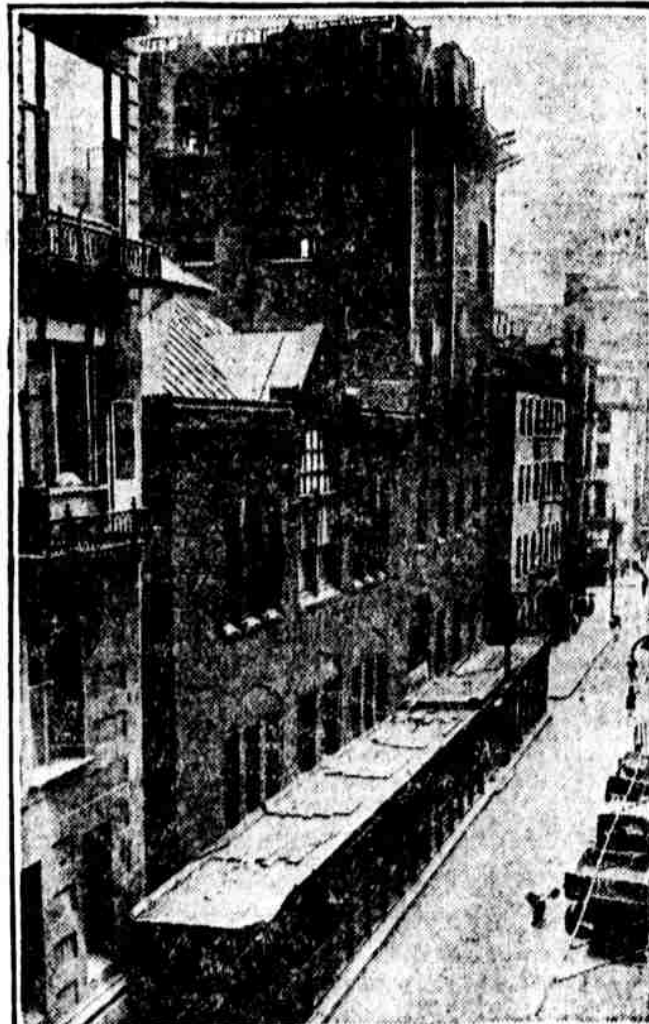

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

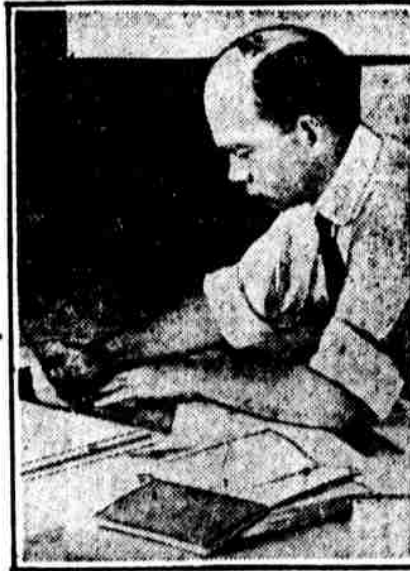

THE SOUTHEAST CORNER OF ELEVENTH AND MARKET STREETS as it looked fifty years ago. The Bingham Hotel, now being razed, has occupied the same site for many years. William R. Madison, 31 North Peach street, is the contributor

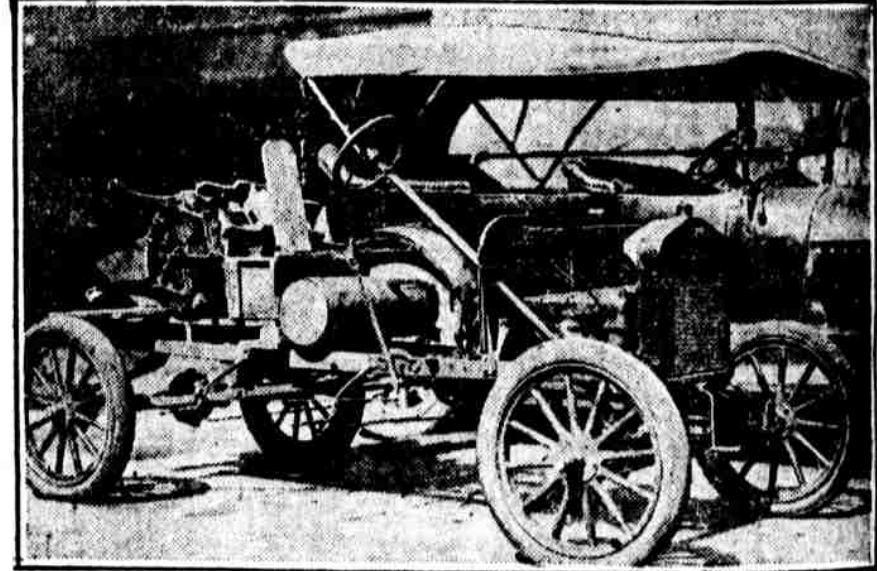

LADY MAXWELL, of Buckinghamshire, England, has arrived in San Francisco, on the last lap of her third tour of the world

GETTING READY FOR A LARGER HOSPITAL. To make way for the new section of the Jefferson Hospital, workmen have started razing the nurses' home, at 1020 Sansom street

HARRY W. BELL, City Engineer of Cape May, N. J., busy at his desk

IN CUSTODY. You've noticed many automobiles in City Hall courtyard from time to time. They have been forced into the hands of the law

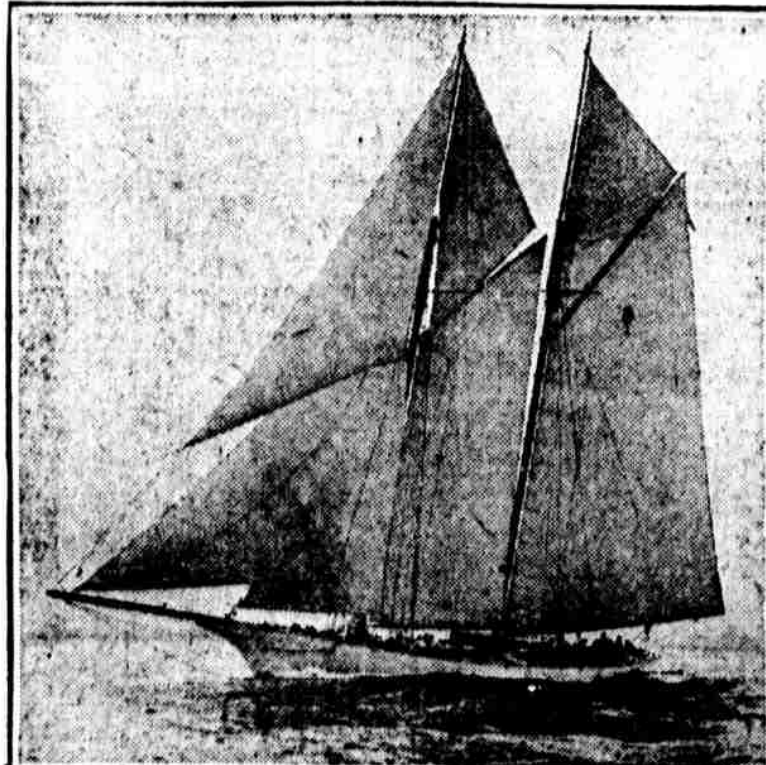

HAD BIG TIME AT THEIR CIRCUS. Yesterday was a big day at the University of Pennsylvania playgrounds. Bob Douglas was winner with his "horse" Fred Tucker. A Tender-Leonard go was staged by Joe McDowell and Joseph House. The grounds are at Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets and are operated by the Playgrounds Association of Philadelphia

THREE SISTERS OF CAPE MAY. Sylvia, Anallia and Ophelia La Monaca were on the beach when the photographer caught them. They are daughters of a well-known musician

THE SCHOONER VESPA. It will be used for cruise from New York to Bar Harbor by a group of Pennsylvania boys. The cruise will be in charge of B. Holt Willard, of Swarthmore

FEEDS THE CHICKENS AN' EVERYTHING. We introduce William Henry Repp, Jr., sojourning at the Delaware Water Gap. Get the cob-to-chicken system

FEEDS THE CHICKENS AN' EVERYTHING. We introduce William Henry Repp, Jr., sojourning at the Delaware Water Gap. Get the cob-to-chicken system