PITCHES SECOND NO-HIT CONTEST

Bill Robinson, of St. Barnabas, Performs Unusual Feat Against Klauder-Weldon

N. PHILS SWAMP ARMORE

Eddie Lusk, manager of the St. Barnabas, has apparently picked up a find in Bill Gallagher, a new hurler.

Seven days ago this pitcher turned in a no-hit victory for the boys who hold forth at Sixty-fifth street and Elmwood avenue.

Yesterday he turned in his second no-hit, no-run game, making two in eight days.

On Saturday the Saints were beaten by Klauder-Weldon, and Gallagher's performance was staged at Jenkintown, and makes it all the more important, as it removes any possibility of argument, it being staged on alien soil.

The score was 1 to 0, and the Saints made their only run of the contest in the second inning on a squeeze play. During the fray Gallagher fanned seven, but his record was marred on account of sending four men to first base with a walk.

They were the only Jenkintown runners to reach the initial sack. Nickle, the star of the Klauder-Weldon game, was on the hill, and he pitched an article of ball that would win any game and also fanned five.

One of the best plays was a catch by Schaeffer in right field, when he picked off a drive from the bat of Sheehan in the seventh inning and saved the day.

Revenge for North Phils. Ardmore trimmed the North Phils on Saturday at Fourth and Winkolock streets, and before departing notified the losers that they were due for another kicking when they played Sunday.

There was an awful kicking handed out as predicted, but Ardmore was not doing the kicking, but was taking it instead.

After battling three hours and one-half the upturners found that the score read, North Phils, 28; Ardmore, 0. It looks like one for the book as the season's record.

During the fuss many home runs were recorded. Russ White got six hits, and his four-ty kick came with the bases populated.

Al Spohrer had two four-baggers, one with the bases loaded, and Sandrow and Manager also hit for the benefit. Robinson pitched for the North Phils and only allowed five hits.

Raywood made it two victories in as many days by defeating Media A. A. at Third and Jackson streets, 5 to 4. The feature of the game was the work of McSorley in right field, who had a perfect day at bat with three hits and one walk.

Shannahan dropped another hair-line decision on the boys, at Stenton Park, 3 to 2. Manning was on the hill, and his home run scored two runs in the ninth and the winning tally came in the ninth and his by Laughlin and Connors.

Hildesburg continued his winning streak at Hilldale and Walnut streets, 4 to 3, left Stacey fanned nine of the Saints. Hildesburg put the game on ice in a clash with a couple of counten.

One of the latest crowds that has ever witnessed a game in Brooklawn saw the Frankford with four hits hit the winners at bat.

Phil Cockerell, of Hilldale, performed an odd man stunt by twice striking East New York, 5-3 and 4-1. The Darbyites compiled 24 hits to 14 for the Gathmanites in the two duels.

J. & J. Dobson dropped a couple more close ones. The East Falls lads were twice beaten at Atlantic City by the Bacharachs, 6 to 2. They made 12 hits to 13 for the shore nine, but were unable to bunch their singles at the opportune moment.

Once again did Philadelphia Terminal Club turn out to be a hot club. This time the score was 10 to 4. Portkown hit the Franksiders with seven home runs for a total of sixteen hits.

Chester won its first game in the series with Viscon 5 to 1. Norman Pitt buried the Franksiders in the second inning when the former Mackman, had one of his good days and the best Viscon could do was five puny hits.

Kennington A. C. continued to take the measure of the big ones. John Daley's Fish-towners entertained at Atlantic City, and were defeated by the Franksiders, 3 to 1. Pletcher handled McMoran a 6-to-1 setback. Pletcher himself started for Kennington.

The Ivanhoe team of New York, played in the Katonah Club, won another game, 6 to 0. Frankford journeyed to New York. The Franksiders were beaten 3 to 0. Pletcher Swartz setting them down with two hits.

Frank Schaller, one of the best of the local hurlers, pitched a gem against American Brides at Trenton, but lost the decision 4 to 0. All the runs of the winners came in the second inning when a couple of passes were bunched with three hits and an error.

"Lefty" Lloyd, the veteran Trenton hurler, now on the Nativty payroll, can hold his own with any of the youngsters. On Saturday he pitched a gem against the visitors for the upturners when he turned back the Ivanhoes, of Boston, 3 to 4.

The Dubson weavers have hit their stride and are playing the best ball of the season. They seem to be working in unison nowadays.

Fleisher apparently has the number of the Strasbridge team. The yarners turned back the shore boys on Saturday, although they were outbats. The score was 8 to 0. "Lefty" Nolan's boys recently trimmed Al Trutt's team.

It looks as if Brooklawn and Portkown will battle for supreme honors in the final for second half Montgomery County League honors. They are scheduled for their first place with four victories and one defeat.

Ben Emery's Pitman crowd secured revenge on Harney Schaeffer's Girard Field Club team for the defeat handed the Cottagers in the opening game of the season. Nixon Burns swung ball and allowed Girard only three hits. The final count was 8 to 4.

After losing twelve straight, Shannahan fans were pleased to see their favorites win in with a couple of victories last week at Hilldale tomorrow night.

Ray Kepner's suspension was lifted on Saturday, and Billy Whitman used him against the Harney team of Trenton. The Bridesburg star held the batters to four hits and the upturners walked away with a 12-to-0 triumph.

Another team that is turning in victory after victory is Notasema. Dan Meltzer's boys took the measure of Hildesburg A. C. with Yoie, their star hurler, on the hill.

At Hildesburg is wearing a broad, expansive smile. Three straight victories and a hard luck at the getaway it was this same eleven have been returned as victors, hence the reason for rejoicing.

The Naugatuck Silk Mill girls came here with great reputations, but went away on the short end of a 21 to 7 count with the Fleisher stars. The visitors had intended making a challenge for the State championship if they won, so Miss Mildred Bridgeman was issuing a deft for the State championship.

Bartram Park was the winner in the biggest game of the week, when the West Philadelphia Independents defeated the Cottagers, 5 to 1. The final count was 5 to 1. A six-trimming, Jess Dando's triple, 12 to 6, in six-trimings.

Bill Lombardi's Goodfellows played the only Saturday twilight game and turned back the Naugatuck team, 5 to 1. The final count was 5 to 1. A six-trimming, Jess Dando's triple, 12 to 6, in six-trimings.

John O'Malley's Goodfellows played the only Saturday twilight game, buried one of his best stars for the winners.

NORTH PHILS TO OPPOSE FLEISHER

Stonehurst and Wilmington Clash in Big Game in West Philadelphia

ROYAL STARS AT STENTON

One of the lightest schedules of the season greets twilight baseball fans to-night. The quantity is slim, but quality sticks out all over the layout, and several important contests are carded.

The Fleisher Yarners and North Phils are at it again. These teams have met on numerous occasions, and the downtowners at present hold a slight advantage. But the upturners have been playing wonderful ball all month and during that time have been piling up victories at a .705 clip. They expect to add another to the win column at the expense of Fleisher.

Out at Fifty-eighth and Walnut streets, Eddie Ryan and his Stonehurst team will oppose St. Thomas, of Wilmington. Stonehurst is now a member of the Philadelphia Baseball Association and the fans across the river will be assured of seeing all the leading teams in action there.

Chaplie Johnson and his Philadelphia Royal Stars reached town this morning and opened their local engagement with the Stenton Field Club. The colored boys have been away for more than a month on an extended trip, which covered the entire New England country, and they made a complete clean-up. They will finish the season here. While away Chaplie has uncovered several stars that add considerable strength to the team.

Lansdale, champions of the Montgomery County League, will pay their first visit of the season to Shetzline Park and meet the South Phils, with other Phils extending their stay on the hill. Herb Steen will pitch for the downtowners.

At Forty-eighth and Walnut streets Hilldale meets Philadelphia Terminal, and the contest marks the first meeting of these teams this season. Shannahan is the attraction at Kensington, at Frankford avenue and Berks street, and Manager Dan Lewis expects to take the West Philadelphia fans into camp.

SPHAS HAVE WON 14 OF 18 STARTS

Downtown Nine Will Play Bridesburg at Thirteenth and Johnson Tonight

When it comes to playing the city baseball championship series, which will be started by the Philadelphia Baseball Association, due consideration will have to be extended the South and Philly Hebrew Association baseball team, which plays its home game at Haller Park, Thirteenth and Johnson streets.

The Sphas hold the record of being in more demand by New York clubs than any team in the Quaker City, and almost every Sunday they are the participants in one or two games in Gotham.

The Sphas have been on the crest of a winning streak for the last three weeks, and up until Saturday had won fourteen of the last eighteen contests. Tonight they take on one of the most serious contenders for city honors.

The opposing team will be Billy Whitman's Bridesburg Club, and the game will be played on the home diamond, at Thirteenth and Johnson streets. During the stretch of eighteen games the teams to score wins over Sphas were North Phils, Dobson, American Chain and St. Phils.

Most of the city topnotchers, and included in the list were three wins over Shannahan and two at the expense of Hilldale. The Sphas have come together on two previous occasions and the honors are even. The first meeting resulted in a 5-0 triumph for the upturners, while the Sphas reversed the decision and won the second meeting, 0 to 7. The scores of the last eighteen games in which the Sphas have played follow:

- Sphas 5, Shannahan 1, July 10
Sphas 5, Shannahan 0, July 11
Sphas 5, Hilldale 1, July 12
Sphas 5, Stenton 1, July 13

On Labor Day Sarazen is to meet Walter Hagen, holder of the British open championship, in a thirty-six-hole match at the Westchester Country Club at Rye, N. Y.

GAME CALLED; BALL SHY

Fourteen Spheres Insufficient for 6-14 and Sliders' Match

Somebody forgot to bring down a carload of baseballs for the big battle between the 6-14 Club and Battling Abe's Sliders' game at Blackwood, N. J., yesterday, and the match was called after four and a half innings. The Sliders were leading at the time, 9 to 8, fourteen balls had been lost and no more spheres were obtainable.

Although his team was one run behind, Doc Crisp today is shouting from the roof-tops that the 6-14 would have won had the nine innings been played. Battling Abe is confident his aggregation would have stayed out in front, so it has been decided that another game will be played later.

Sam Weinstein pitched good, hard and indifferent ball. All told he had eight strike-outs, but the third inning was a nightmare for him when the Sliders knocked out five runs, 6-14 having already scored the same number in the preceding round.

The umpires had a tough time of it, rendering their decisions, but they got by without being bombarded with pop battles, when the respective managers, Crisp and Abe, abided by their own rulings, paying no attention whatever to the arbiters.
