Camp Duffy. Mount Greina, Pa., July 31 .- Major General William G. Price, Jr., commander of the Twentyeighth Division, National Guard of Pennsylvania, will arrive here this afternoon, it was announced this morning by Lieutenant Colonel Fred Taylor Pusey, Deputy Attorney General and a member of the division's staff.

Colonel Pusey arrived here yesterday from New York City, where he met General Price, who has been absent from the country for several months on an inspection trip of the battlefields of France. The purpose of the trip was to select available sites for monuments which it is proposed to exect in memory of the men of the Twenty-eighth Division.

Preparations are in full swing here to lender to the general a welcome-home relebration. The leature of the day's events will be a review of the entire Fifty-sixth infantry Brigade with the 103d Cavalry of the Fifty-second 103d Cavalry of the Fifty-second Cavalry Brigade, also participating if it is found possible to bring them from their camp at Colebrook. It was also said here that General Price will not assume command of the division until August 5. He is expected to return to his home in Chester after a day or so here. Brigadier General E. C. Shannon, commander of the Fifty sixth Infantry Brigade, and com-mander of the Twenty-eighth Division mander of the Twenty-eighth Division during the absence of General Price, is expected to retain command of the divi-sion for another week.

Twenty thousand visitors were here resterday, many of them Philadel-phians, including several hundred veterans of the World War who came to the reunion of the old 111th Infantry Regiment, which ended last night.
