SING HO FOR THE MERRY GREENWOOD!

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTERBOX

By HENRY M. NEELY. X.—The sweetest and quietest way to address Charlotte Greenwood is care of Oliver Moroson, Moroson Theatre, New York City. Miss Greenwood's company is now proceeding westward, and it would be hard to say just how to address a letter directly to her. "Temptation of Jane," with George Louie Tucker, Jane Gail and Irene Wallace (Imperial). "Clara K. Young in 'David Garrick'" (Vitaphone). "The Storm of Corsten" with Lily Lodge, Florence Hackett and Jack Standing (Lubin). Marguerite Courtot in "The Barefoot Boy" (Kalem). Viola Dana in "The Cossack Whip" (Edison). Where Shall I Send My Child to School? That question can be answered quickly and satisfactorily by consulting the Educational Bureau on ground floor of Public Ledger Building. Here you may obtain complete and authoritative information of the various institutions which will enable you to make a wise choice. This service is free and available to every one—everywhere.

gensorship—if, indeed, there is any need—will be done away with. As long as we are discussing the denizens of the altitudes we might point out that they are all here, and are advancing to the front in close formation. Those who have been East have come back to the West, and those who remained here, continue to do so. There are going to be a lot of dinners and a lot of speeches, and somewhere, someone—one might hear something besides moid platitudes.

DANISH BOND. ONE OF THE LINE OF PAPERS WATER-MARKED DANISH. DANISH BOND is distinctly a superior writing paper. Hand-sorted new rags, pure artesian water, rigidly adhered-to standards, and seasoned skill, make it so. Danish Bond has snap and crackle, the "feel" and texture, that lift your letters out of "the waste basket class."
