

Series for the Championship of Philadelphia Baseball Association Will Start on August 28

CHOOSE TEAMS TO DECIDE CITY TITLE

Even Clubs in Three Sections Start Series Beginning August 28

TO REQUIRE THREE WEEKS

By WILLIAM S. DALLAS The stage is all set for the inauguration of the biggest baseball series ever functioned in this section...

At a meeting held last night the Board of Governors discussed the matter until an early hour this morning and finally named the teams in the various sections which will compete for the honor...

It is expected that the series between the white city clubs will require three weeks. That is as far as the Board of Governors has gone. The matter of deciding the winner of the out-of-town and colored sections is to come up later...

PLAISTED WORRIES AS RILEY ARRIVES

'Boy' Sculler, 78, Here to Row Against Former Rivals Saturday

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Fred Plaisted, the seventy-two-year-old youngster, is beginning to get worried over the outcome of his match race with Jim Ten Eyck, a youth of sixty-nine...

Plaisted isn't worrying about Ten Eyck winning that race, however. Fact is, another sculler has entered the race and has all the confidence in the world.

This boy—Jim Riley, aged seventy-eight—arrived in Philadelphia from his home in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., yesterday. Standing more than six feet in his socks, Riley carries his 162 pounds with an ease and grace that astounded all doubts about him being in perfect condition.

Upon arriving in this city Mr. Riley made arrangements to stay at the Philadelphia Barge Club, where he will remain until after the regatta. His boat, a cedar shell made by Ward, of Edgewater, N. J., has not reached this city yet, but this didn't keep Riley off the water.

SPECIAL CONTESTS FOR UPTOWN NINES

Sphas Oppose Puritan and North Phillies Play Royal Stars—Fleisher at Stenton

BRIDESBURG VS. SHANAHAN

Special twilight games are on the schedule for several times this evening. Nativty and North Phillies, clubs that are always away on Wednesday, have booked contests on the home diamond.

At Second and Clearfield streets the South Philly Hebrews will take on the Puritan team. The uptown churchmen have been cutting a wide swath in independent circles and have been angling for a game with the Sphas for a long time.

The North Phillies have booked Chappie Johnson's Royal Stars as an extra attraction for the Nicetown fans. The Phils have sure been hitting up a winning pace the last month and are back in the old position they occupied this time a year ago.

Forty-eighth and Brown streets. The uptowners came back last night and handed the Sphas a kicking and are out to do the same thing to Jim Bonner's crowd.

Stenton Field Club opposes Fleisher in an inter-sectional clash. The yarners will meet the Mount Airy leads on several previous occasions and the games were of the sensational order.

The big contest downtown is at Shetzline Park, where the South Phillies take on the American Chain. Manager Rudolph has a crippled club, with Cotter and Lal on the side lines, but hopes to be able to take the number one of the Acres with his revised line-up.

Marshall E. Smith is at home with Bertram Park, at Tenth and Buth streets, and at Sixty-second and Walnut streets. Strawbridge & Clothier takes on Riverside. This will give the West Philly fans a chance to look over one of the fastest semi-professional teams in New Jersey.

The Forty-eighth Ward team will play the Lighthouse nine at Front street and Erie avenue tonight at 6:15 o'clock. Both clubs have made good records in baseball circles this season, having faced and defeated some of the strongest baseball clubs of the city.
