

GLENN E. PLUMB, AUTHOR OF FAMOUS RAIL PLAN, DIES
 Originator of State Ownership Scheme Victim of Heart Disease
 Washington, Aug. 2. — Glenn E. Plumb, counsel for the sixteen larger railroad organizations and author of the "Plumb plan" of railroad operation and ownership, died last night at his home in Washington, D. C., after a long illness. Mr. Plumb's failing health induced him to cease work with railroad labor organizations early this spring. He was born in Iowa in 1866 and spent much of his active career as an attorney in Chicago in street railway operation. In 1910 he attained national note by advancing his plan for operation of railroads, then under Government control, through Government ownership, with management vested in Boards of Directors equally representing the public, the executive staffs of railroads and railroad employees. Railroad labor unions endorsed the proposal and organized the Plumb Plan League, said at one time to have 1,000,000 members, to advocate its adoption by Congress.

 Representative Lemuel P. Padgett, of Tennessee, died early today at his home here.
 Lemuel Phillips Padgett, representative from the Seventh Congressional District of Tennessee since 1901, was born in Columbia, Tenn., November 28, 1855, and was educated in the public schools and Erskine College, from which institution he was graduated in 1876 with the degree of A. B. Subsequently he studied law and was licensed to practice in January, 1877.

 The funeral of S. Conrad Ott, late president of the Camden County Bar Association and referee in bankruptcy, who died Saturday in Merchantville, was held today from his home, 55 West Maple avenue.
 Funeral services were conducted last night by the Rev. Frederick Blazer, pastor of the Linden Baptist Church, of which Mr. Ott was a generous benefactor.

CADILLAC

There is no subtle nor secret explanation for women's preference for the Cadillac. They require that the motor car of their choice shall be so sound mechanically that they need never give it a moment's thought, save of admiration for its consistent, flawless performance. In addition, they require that it be safe, simple, and easy to drive. Exquisite beauty, elegance of appointment and embellishment, restful travel, they expect as a matter of course. But, first, foremost, and fundamentally their demand is for complete trustworthiness; for the sureness that alone spells satisfaction, the constancy of performance that promotes peace of mind.

DOES your office towel encourage clean hands?

Not if it is used by more than one person, or used more than once by the same person. Not if it hangs for days on a rack with other towels or knocks about a musty desk-drawer soiled and moist until used next time.

ScotTissue Towels are different—absolutely clean and safe—their fibres are thirsty and uniformly efficient. They make it easy to have "clean hands in business."

ScotTissue Towels provide the pleasure of a perfectly fresh towel for each person every time—a towel touched by no other hands but yours—of soft texture, pure white—a towel that dries the skin in a jiffy and leaves a feeling of cool, refreshing cleanliness. They're easily bought from your druggist, stationer or department store. Order a carton today.
