

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Doings at Various Summer Places—She Tells of a Bridge Party at Cape May. Some Good-Looking Clothes

NORTHEAST. Narragansett and Cape May where most Philadelphians seem to congregate, are equally popular for informal and formal parties. Tonight there will be a party at the Hotel de France at Narragansett in connection with the polo which has been going on all week at the Point Judith Country Club. A great many Philadelphians go to Narragansett.

Where I've heard of you expect to see one of Helen Hope Montgomery's one of the most attractive of the autumn debs, and Emma Noreis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Norris' daughter, and Miss Hope Montgomery is going there after she has visited Dorothy and Katherine Rodgers, Mrs. William Donner's daughters, at Water Hill, I believe, and Emma expects to stay with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Reeves Wainwright, the ex-governor.

At Cape May and Northeast informal parties are most popular, beach parties, small dinners and such. Yesterday at Cape May Mrs. John Brownback, Jr., she was Betty Kennedy and is very attractive—has a child, Mary Virginia. The Brownbacks are spending the summer at their cottage at 205 Windsor street. They live on Polo road, in Bryn Mawr.

However, I've just heard of a rather large affair which is to take place in Cape May on August 9. It is to be a bridge party at Congress Hall, and the bridge party is of interest in the Philadelphia circles. The hostesses are Mrs. Langdon Lea, Mrs. D. Knickerbocker Ford, Mrs. J. Hutchinson Scott, Jr., Mrs. Robert M. Williams, Mrs. Cahal, Mrs. Mrs. Charles C. Norris, Mrs. Mrs. Paul Stewart Howe, Mrs. Mrs. McClure Fahnestock and Mrs. J. Graham French.

The party is for the benefit of the Church of the Advent, at Cape May. It is a dear little church, smaller but very much like Old St. Peter's, at Fourth and Pine streets. It is the first year since the death of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Howe, who is the pastor, that the church has had a social. The Cape May people go there, and if I am not mistaken it was in 1917, when they were married seven years ago. It is quaint and the work inside is all white. I hear that later in August there is to be a banquet also in aid of the church.

At Cape May reminds me of what I saw Kitty Knight the other day. She and her mother, Mrs. Bradford Knight, and her sister, Mrs. W. E. Knight, were in the city. Mrs. Knight stayed on the boat with Mrs. Freddy Lee, Jr., who was Eric Smith.

Now, however, the Knights are in Chestnut Hill. Mrs. William Stevens, of 1217 Locust, who is the hostess, has taken for August. The house is on St. Martins lane, and is unusually quiet looking, with its long narrow front porch. When I saw Kitty a few days ago she was wearing a stunning dress of heavy tan crepe de chine, very long and very much draped, a large tail to match, and tan stockings and black patent leather slippers.

DR. AND MRS. EDWIN GRATHAM and their daughter Gertrude, who came out last winter, are in Milwaukee, Wis., visiting Dr. and Mrs. Gertrude's other daughter, Lorena, who married Edward Baron of that city. Mrs. Gratham herself came from Milwaukee, so she must be having an especially enjoyable time. They expect to stay in Milwaukee until the end of the year. I saw Gertrude, or "Gay," as most people call her, a few days before she left, looking very well in one of those white "chiffon" dresses for which she is famous, and skirt, a small red straw hat, trimmed with red cherries, and a red silk muffler. The red and white effect was quite striking and most stylish.

EVERY day I hear of more girls going to Milo, Moos in Paris to school. There are only twelve or so in the whole school, and unless it is to be enlarged, it would seem as if the Philadelphia contingent of Philadelphia girls next winter. The latest girl who is to go is Mary Lond. Properly speaking, she is not quite a Philadelphia girl, as her father was from Boston. She is a relative of Mrs. Arthur Lea, who is also her guardian, as both her parents are dead. Mary's mother was from this city, however; she was Miss Louise Lond.

Mrs. Lea and Mary and Mrs. Lea's sister, Miss Mary Perry Brown, of Washington, will sail tomorrow for Europe on the Boreo. They will spend some time in London, and will leave for Cape May next week to visit her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, who are occupying their cottage for the summer at Cape May.

Mrs. Harrison Koons Carter, Jr., of 317 Pine street, will be in the city today at her cottage at Cape May. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary Perry Brown, of Washington, who will sail tomorrow for Europe on the Boreo. They will spend some time in London, and will leave for Cape May next week to visit her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, who are occupying their cottage for the summer at Cape May.

Mrs. George J. Wadener, of this city and his wife, Mrs. Wadener, are in Saratoga, N. Y., to attend the races at Saratoga, N. Y.

Mrs. Doherty-Altemus, Miss Mary Elizabeth Altemus and Mr. James D. Altemus, of Wernersville, Pa., where they have several weeks, will be in the city for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Philip M. Plant, son of Mrs. William Hayward, of New York, left for New York this city, accompanied by Mr. Har-

George Hayley, are spending the week at Atlantic City. Mrs. Robert W. Welch is recovering from a recent illness. Mrs. Letitia W. Twining is spending some time at Buck Hill Falls, Pa. Mrs. Alice Higdon is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elwell Lake, at Long Branch.

Norristown The marriage of Miss Frances B. Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Crawford, of Audubon, Pa., and Mr. Charles Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fox, also of Audubon, took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride. The Rev. R. L. Williams, pastor of the Lower Providence Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Fox, sister of the bridegroom as maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Allen Henderson, cousin of the bride. A reception followed the ceremony.

Delaware County Dr. and Mrs. George L. Armitage and Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Armitage, of Chester, left this week for Lewes, Del., where they have taken a cottage on the beach for the summer.

Yardley Mr. Algernon S. Cadwallader and Mr. J. Augustus Cadwallader are spending the month of August at Cape May, where they have taken a cottage. Mrs. Ralph Baylen and her son, Mr.
