EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1922

NEW BOOKS INTENDED TO PLEASE ALL SORTS OF FOLK

KATHERINE MANSFIELD'S FINE LITERARY SKETCHES

The stories of Kathorine Mansfield bear the same relation to literature that the sketches of a great artist bear to the sketches of a great artist bear to his completed picture. The artist draws a figure or a face, or a tree, or a building, or a hill as a study in preparation for a painting. His line preparation for a painting. His line is true, his perception of character is is true, his perception of character is phases of life, sketches slight, it is accurate and his tone values are correct. There are men who collect these pre-liminary sketches and value them highly. Katherine Mansfield's short stories are delightful studies of episodes or in-

BOSTON

DAUGHTER

by Isabel C. Clarke

by Frazier Hunt

OF JESSE

PICTURED

of the British Empire and more

THE CORNHILL PUBLISHING COMPANY, BOSTON

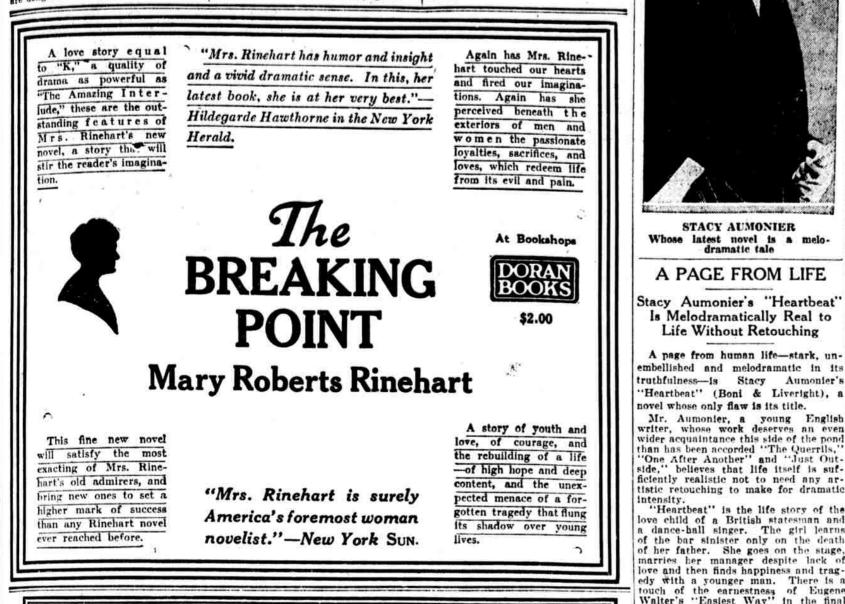

EVERYDAY USES

OF ENGLISH

THOMAS Y. CROWELL COMPANY NEW YORK

tory, warm, human, sympache cidents revealing an insight into human Locke Likes Septimus motives. The story which gives the In answering the question, "Which is FINE LITERARY SKETCHES title to "The Garden Party" (Alfrei A. Knopf), her second volume, deals The stories of Katherine Mansfield with the effect of the death of a laborer your favorite among all the characters in your books?" put to him recently by

SINCE the companionship of a good book necessarily is measured by the life of its binding, every book lover has a well defined reason for appreciating well-bound editions. For the guidance of purchasers, therefore, we are listing below some of the current books of importance that are bound in INTERLAKEN -the book cloth that combines tasteful color tones with the utmost in wearing gualities.

The RADIO DETECTIVES	1943	THE WORLD BOOK
by A. Hyatt Verrill	by Mr. X	Organized knowledge in story and picts
Two young amateurs while experimenting	A satire, a comedy, with a backbone of truth.	A reference work for school and home in

A TRAGEDY IN BLACK

'Birthright," by T. S. Stribling, Takes Up Problem of Educated Negro answers.

For his central character Mr. Stribwhites make up most of the striking parts of the book.

parts of the book. The young Harvard man soon finds himself enmeshed in problems far be-yond his strength. The natural lassi-tude of the Negro race, the spirit of petty thievery and worse, the persistent refusal of the whites to give aid, all these combine to grind his dream plans into dust. So finally unable to make into dust. So, finally unable to make his fellows know the message he has for them or to impress upon the southern

Stacy Aumonier's "Heartbeat" Is Melodramatically Real to Life Without Retouching

STACY AUMONIER

Whose latest novel is a melo-dramatic tale

A PAGE FROM LIFE

A page from human life-stark, untruthfulness—is Stacy Aumonier's itself is stressed in deeply touching inset.

Mr. Aumonier, a young English writer, whose work deserves an even MEDIEVAL ROMANCE

> "Silver Cross" Tells of Monastic Feud in Early Tudor Times

scene that finds the girl darning socks for the man whose mistress she is. Prudes probably will demur at the ending that fails to bring out the glamour of wedding bells and reformation, but Mr. Aumonier sketches his steps in the girl's life so humanly and logically that the reader will put the book down with things are as they are." There is not a bit of mawkish sentimentality in the book except the title. Nor is there an effort to shock. Every scene and every character create naturalness. Regardless of the lesson's conclusion, "Heartbeat" is worthy of attention.

POETRY CONSIDERED

FROM A NEW ANGLE vast volume of works written regarding the art, meaning and technique of po-etry from at least the days of Hornce's 'Ars Poetica'' to Amy Lowell's latest allowed to seek their material and etc. volume on imagism and other verse modernities, the subject had been pretty thoroughly threshed out by the flails of spiritual peace together. blot. criticism. But F. C. Prescott, pro-fessor of English at Cornell Universit. could be asked of any author. has found a new angle of the critical lens through which to view poetry, "The Poetic Mind" (Macmillan Cam-HAIR-RAISING HAZARDS MARK "PATHLESS TRAIL" pany) uses the resources of Freudian research in this original and stimulating analysis of the inspiration and methodology of poetry, Dr. Prescott considers both spirit and substance from stand-The dark forests of Peru. little-known-about part of South Amerpoints that have become available, ica, furnishes a wonderfully weird enthough whether tenable or not there vironment for the pulse-stirring and will be some discussion, with the adbreath-taking hazards and adventures vances of modern psychology. ontained in Arthur O. Friel's "The It is pointed out that the book clear. Pathless Trail" (Harper & Bros.). Mr. Friel is a new novelist, but has thing. defines poetry as a product of assoclational thinking as opposed to rational thinking. the prominent adventure-yarn maga-zines to his credit. A roving and ad-Poetry, in one view, like genius, is to madness near allied." This view venturous spirit by inheritance, inclinhas been denated and disputed as well ation and opportunity, he exchanged as maintained, and it is still a moot after graduating from Yale and teach- Dot as maintained, and it is still a moot atter graduating from the and total atter whether the poet is genuinely a sound, same person or a mental kins-man of the dreamer and the madman. Dreamer job for pioneering in strange Schildkraut, Lionel Barrymore. (Like places and fictioneering about what he the P. R. R., they are 'subject to of course, the old view is that poetry is saw and heard. At present he is again change without notice.') the result of inspiration, like unto the in the almost unknown Javary juna mystic revelations of religion. Profesin the almost unknown Javary jungle sor Prescott endeavors, with much novel material, and out of wide and iean who fled civilization because of wise reading, corefully compacted into his argument, to define in positive terms the relation of literary content who seek him out to make of relations beliefs of the stars, but terms the relation of literary com-position to dreams, revertes and sub-conscious states. He does not mind countering on orthodoxy, but as he in-dicates many of the principle's on which he founds his thesis and defends it are to overcome? he founds his thesis and defends it are to overcome? old. He has "tried to return to and SERGEANT YORK'S HEROISM gnon' has a great sense of humor or she develop classical views of poetry which are now somewhat out of vogue. In the main, old principles at most receive new interpretations and relations." Many of his chapters are devoted to various phases of imagination in poetry. He also discusses symbols and figures, the inpulse and control of poetry, poetle madness and catharsis, desires and emotions in poetry and the universality and ises of poetry. COMPLETE RADIO BOOK FOR THOSE JUST BEGINNING who captured an entire battalion of German machine gunners single-handed The beginner in radio who has been groping about for a book which would tell him, in understandable language some of the secrets of this new science will find much less to puzzle him arei nuch more to inform him in "The Com-plete Radio Book." by Raymond Fran-tis Yates and Louis Gerard Pacent nuch more to inform him the Tae Com-plete Radio Book." by Raymond Fran-cis Yates and Louis Gerard Pacent (The Century Company), than in most of the volumes so far placed upon the his mountain home life, his antecdents, p market. Mr. Vates, to whom most of his playmates, his life and outlook be-the text is probably due, writes in an fore and after the war. easy, chatty style and Mr. Pacent, an old-timer in the anateur and technical the roci reason for the book, as the you coaxable? Also, may I request that the roci reason for the book, as the you print one of M. Frazer for me as should find very little difficulty in fol-lowing the hook-up given. There are many interesting parts of the volume aside from the technical Archibald Marshall's Plans Archibald Marshall has changed hi Archibald Marshall has changed his first experiments in radio conducted by Mr. Mahlon Loomis, who made his first public demonstration in Virginia in 1866. public demonstration in Virginia in 1860, long before Marconi had seen the light of day. The second section of the book is taken up with interesting chapters showing the modern development and many uses of radio, a group of biogra-phies of the men who have developed the science and a collection of questions and answers such as would occur to any average beginner.

T. S. Stribling has endeavored to utline, if not soive, a vexatious problem-that of the relation of the educated Negro to his less fortunate brethren. "Birthright" (Century Company) makes little or no attempt to present a maudlin plea for the dark-skinned striver for better things. It sets forth his faults, his frailties, the handicaps he must attempt to surmount. And although the climax would seem to be a futile gesture of "What's the use?" the story paves a way for the thinking reader to supply many possible potential ling has taken a young Negro, a Har-vard groduate, who goes back to his Mississippi River town intent on carrying a practical message of cheer to others of his race. The vivid, incisive pictures of his return to "Niggertown," of his reception in spirit of awe by for-mer chums and companions and of tol-erant, sneering dubiousness by the white make up most of the striking whites the need of such a message—one whites the need of such a message—one of work and advance for the betterment of both—he gives up in disgust and seeks other and possibly more productive fields for him personally. The character drawing of the various Negro types is done with a fertility that is marked. The good-natured tolerance of conditions by a more too have side," believes that life itself is suf-ficiently realistic not to need any ar-tistic returning to make for dramatic intensity. "Heartbeat" is the life story of the love child of a British statesman and a dance-hall singer. The girl learns of the bar sinister only on the death of her father. She goes on the stage, marries her manager despite lack of love and then finds happiness and trag-touch of the earnestness of the interesting novel, "Silver Cross" walter s: "Easies Wast" in the finds the girl darning socks. "The finds the girl darning socks." "A. J. L.—The actor who appears as for the some feature film, is John the comedy series of that hines. "Liliom Gish" writes: "You hare often heard that wise old saying, 'Likes the engrossing, swanking romance of tore and then finds the girl darning socks. "The fands the girl darning socks." "The fands the girl darning socks."

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTERBOX

By HENRY M. NEELY

is ease of style, deserves to be given a place away from the ordinary run of present-day stories. "Silver Cross." is an English mon-astery in the time of Henry VII, a day when abbot and prior ruled with as strong a material grasp as did the stronges feudal lord. Discovery of the bones of a long-dead saint and subce-quent miracles have brought fame and prosperity to a rival monastery and about the foul the story swings. To offset the glory of the other thes they say can art. 'et well underlans by suggestion. When the this monks by suggestion. When the cause for present of the stores, and that, a number of the stores farther and "arranges visions" for him-using a "light of love" of the dvancement to a beginning with awaderlags of course he meets the vanderlags of course he meet

FOR THE FILM FAN'S SCRAPBOOK

The Daily Movie Magazine

LILA LEE

We will be glad to publish the pictures of such screen players as are suggested by the fans certainly am going to be one of her most sincere rooters if she keeps up her good work. There seems to be such a womanly charm about her that she did womanly charm about her that she did not possess before. Perhaps it is just poise acquired by her continuous work before the camera, but I think it is just her wonderful personality shining through all the characters that she plays. "I wonder if you care anything about

'Lefty,' beg pardon. Maurice B. Flynn? 'Lefty,' beg pardon. Maurice B. Flynn? It seems to me he has the making of a dandy leading man. No, he will never A. J. L.—The actor who appears as plain—you didn't exactly criticize him Jack Holt. He surely has a fascine ting pictures. As to the rest-phew !)

Sunny Jin-No. that was Thomas Meighan, not Wallace Reid, in "The Bachelor Daddy." The parts of the so-ciety girl and her brother were a bit overdrawn. Such roles generally are on the screen. Only yesterday I made a plea for screen comedy myself, though I'll admit I've seen better than "I Matrimony a Failure?" No, you won't ever see my picture over the Letter Box. I'd hate to have to sit through the film in which Kitte Green Wester

Box. I d hate to have to sit through the film in which Kitty Clover, Wraym, Constance Marie O'Hara, Kensington, Liliom, Tessie Mallet and I had parts If the other people I mention have as little acting ability as I have, it would

"Old Timer" writes: "By all means allow me to share that laugh you got out of 'Tessie Mallet's' letter. Wass't

"I could never turn out stuff like that, but I certainly can appreciate it ticularly the one pertaining to Gloria, weren't they neat?

weren't they neat? "I hope Tessie drops in again and brings her little 'Mallet' with her, I like the way she uses it. "After all our hoping and longing, wasn't it wonderful to see Norms Talmadge in 'Smilin' Through'? It was such a relief after all the 'sexy' things that have been dished out lately. Nice and sweet, clean as an old garden after the rain, and the cast was more than the rain, and the cast was more than capable, particularly Wyndham Stand-ing. I never cared for him before, but thought him an ideal John Carterett.

"Just recently I was downtown and the day being like Hades. I dropped in a theatre to see D. Dalton's new picture. 'The Woman Who Walked Alone.'

The description of the stars, par-

be the "world's worst" picture.

it absolutely the best ever?

when it's offered.

painting the denatured world of 1943 under the "Blues," Regulators, Reformers and Pharisees with radio under water come upon an amaz-ing mystery. Thrilling and up to the minute W. F. QUARRIE & COMPANY CHICAGO D. APPLETON & COMPANY NEW YORK DORRANCE & COMPANY PHILADELPHIA GRIMM'S FAIRY TALES SEX AND SOCIETY FRANK OF by William I. Thomas by The Brothers Grimm FREEDOM HILL hapters on Organic Differences in the race. Sex and Primitive Social Control, Sex id Social Feeling, Sex and Primitive Indus-y, Sex and Primitive Morality, The Psy-ology of Modesty and Clothing UCHAP C. C. The Windermere edition of these world fa-mous Tales makes a splendid volume for any young person's library. Price $2.00 by Samuel A. Derieux The best dog story of the year RAND MENALLY & COMPANY CHICAGO DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK RICHARD G. BADGER COMPANY BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE THE SEA IS GREAT-LADY TRENT'S The Children's Encyclopedia. Contains 10,000 educational pictures, 350 color plates. Answers every direction a child can ask OUR BOATS ARESMALL by Henry Van Dyke GROLIER SOCIETY, NEW YORK Among the attractive gift-books of this sea-son's output we believe it will be difficult to equal this exquisite little volume of verse by the famous author. 5.50 Confronted with a situation that seems hopeless, the author evolves a solution that is simple as it is masterly. Net $2.00 AROUND THE WORLD BENZIGER BROTHERS, NEW YORK by Leander A. Bigger I FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY NEW YORK A story of three years of travel abroad by a man capable of seeing all that is to be seen appreciating conditions as he finds them and describing them as they are. 8 Volumes THE RISING TEMPER OF THE EAST WHEN YOU WRITE FERD. P. KAISER PUBLISHING COMPANY, CHICAGO Fratier Hunt is a star reporter with the world as his assignment. He writes a glowing fory, warm, human, sympathetic, pictur-A LETTER AN OLD-FASHIONED by Thomas Arkle Clark This book offers distinct help in writing a good letter couched in effective language, put into correct form upon appropriate sta-tionery. List price $1.12 GIRL THE BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY NEW YORK by Louisa M. Alcott The city life of a winning and sensible little MY BOOKHOUSE BENJ. H. SANBORN & COMPANY BOSTON by Olive Beaupre Miller LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY A unique collection of the world's best liter-ature for children, bubbling with childhood, beau-ffuily illustrated; irresistible to the child; a foundation in culture and character BOSTON GENERAL A HISTORY OF THE THE BOOK HOUSE FOR CHILDREN CHICAGO BACTERIOLOGY UNITED STATES SINCE THE CIVIL WAR by Edwin O. Jordan M.D. DAVID THE SON In addition to the bacteria of human disease, there are chapters on bacteria in arts and in-dustry, dairying, soil, air, water, plants, etc. Net $3.00 1867-1872 Volume II by Ellis Paxon Oberholtzer by Marjorie Strachey W. B. SAUNDERS COMPANY he colorful, energetic story of the shepherd-tusic an king of Biblical times told in a brisk "Bids fair to become one of the few monu-mental works of American history to which PHILADELPHIA A notable piece of fiction, $1.75 -Boston Transcript THE CENTURY COMPANY NEW YORK SOLILOQUIES IN THE MACMILLAN COMPANY ENGLAND NEW YORK THE JUNIOR CLASSICS by George Santayana The world's best literature for children, se-letted and arranged with a reading guide by Dr. Eliot or Harvard, and President Neilson of Smith College. Finely illustrated THE SANDMAN: Intimate reflection on every variety of theme. Their inclusive scope is as remarkabe as their searching sublety and their charming revela-tions of temperamental predilections His Fairy Stories by Helen I. Castella P. F. COLLIER & SON COMPANY NEW YORK Mothers and fathers and kind elder sisters who take the little ones to bed and tack their brain for stories will find this book a CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS NEW YORK THE GARDENETTE THE PAGE COMPANY, BOSTON KNOWLEDGE OR CITY BACKYARD These fascinating books of visual instruction cover the whole range of knowledge repre-tented in a child's school work CONSOLIDATED GARDENING BY THE STATEMENTS FOR COMPTON-JOHNSON COMPANY CHICAGO SANDWICH SYSTEM HOLDING COMPANY by Benjamin F. Albaugh AND SUBSIDIARIES "This book will rouse the ambition of the city agriculturalist. It is much more effective and practical than "Back-to-the-farm Sermons.""-New York Sun. Net $1.00 THE HOPE OF by H. A. Finney THE FUTURE by Edward E. Eagle STEWART KIDD & COMPANY A book in which an American endeavors to interpret for Americans the life, customs and the spirit of the British Empire and more CINCINNATI

Explains underlying principles, illustrates procedure of preparing consolidated working papers, and contains tumerous problems based upon the principal points involved PRENTICE-HALL, INC., NEW YORK PSYCHANALYSIS IN THREE CENTURIES THE CLASSROOM by George H. Green by Maurice H. Weseen Will be found valuable in the office as well as in the class toom. Special net $2.00 While recognizing the importance of sex, the author has not given the subject a Freudian ignificance. He is more concerned with the development of normal pupils than the treatment of pathological cases

A series of connected life stories tracing through successive generations, changes and developments from early Puritan days to the present time. Net $2.50 UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS. NEW YORK CHICAGO

THROUGH

by Jesse L. Rosenberger

You may order any of the above editions from your book dealer with perfect confidence that their bind-ings not only will wear satisfactorily but will add to the appearance of your library table or book shelves.

INTERLAKEN MILLS, Providence, Rhode Island

barely escapes with his life. In his moving pictures as an art, etc. When wanderings of course he meets the this thing first started you had some pseudo "vision," also fleeing to safety. A spiritual romance results and they thing to do with the stars, actorines, thing to do with the stars, actorines, Of course, I mink it would be Aritual peace together. "Silver Cross" is unusual. It is well M. It is engrossing. Little more uid be asked of any author. [AIR-RAISING HAZARDS] (AIR-RAISING HAZARDS] sentences of their concoction (sounds like home-brew) in your column. I think there are many fans who would agree with me, also many who would disagree. "I read Tessle Mallet's letter in your column, and would like Tess to know that I envy Amoa his friendship with her. She is there with the fun-but we don't agree very much on one

"One more thing: I don't like Alree Terry. She makes no impres-sion on me whatever (except of dislike

"Favorites-(Female) Lillian Gish, Male-Richard Barthelmess, Joseph

(All right-and then what?)

Mrs. F. C. Davis-I have made it a

Latrovaska writes: "Of course 'Mi-

AND WORK FOR HIS PEOPLE honestly, M. Henri, she is boring me to death and goodness knows how man

When time has crased many of the others. A little of that sort of thing than probable that one of those to pe-main will be that of Sorgeon Alvin York, called by Marshal Foch the great-might well be used for such interesting est single hero of the war. The epic letters as are written by "Oid Timer" achievement of the young mountaineer and numerous others whose names I do af not remember. ded '1, too, am surprised that no one speaks of Robert W. Frazer. I like

Monsieur, 1 do believe you have ORIENT Woodland Av. at 62d BL. be- cept our beloved Alice Terry. Do hurry

Added-LEE VINCENT Appears in Person REGENT Market St. Below 11th 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. will permit. Frazer has a part in "My Friend the Devil," which will be here

She seems to be quite a fapromise. She seems to be vorite of Connie Palmer's.) RIALTO GERMANTOWN AVENUE

don't get so het up! Allow me to ex-

PHOTOPLAYS

ETHEL CLAYTON

in "FOR THE DEFENSE"

"LOVE NEVER DIES"

"ALL FOR A WOMAN"

DOROTHY DALTON

ANITA STEWART

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

"SUSPICIOUS WIVES"

"ACE OF HEARTS"

THOMAS MEIGHAN

TOM MOORE

THOMAS MEIGHAN

"THE BACHELOB DADDY"

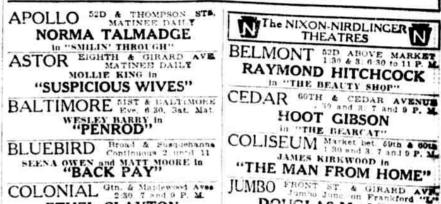

"SOWING THE WIND"

Hers is an ethical beauty. I wish that she and Chaplin would make a great many more pletures than they do. Really, you can't imagine how raging I was when you said you didn't care for L. Gish, but now I'm relieved after expressing my opinion, even though this might not be printed. "My sister thinks your answers are all quite clever. I don't think they are clever, but I can tell from reading them that you must have a wonderful personality and I should like nothing better than to meet you. Pardon the length of this letter, but I had to say it all."

(Again I say I positively believe I'm in, but what with steen picture Chaplin is an artist-playing trashy openings a week that's doubtful.)

PHOTOPLAYS.

The following theatres obtain their pictures through the STANLEY Company of America, which is a guarantee of early showing of the finest productions. Ask for the theatre in your locality obtaining pictures through the Stanley Company of America.

DOUGLAS MacLEAN LEADER AIST & LANCASTER AVE FAIRMOUNT MATINEE DAILY

THOMAS MEIGHAN THE BACHELOR DADDY"

LOCUST STREET GREAT NORTHERN Broad St. at Erte DOROTHY DALTON to 11

NIXON'S AMBASSADOR IMPERIAL COTH & WALNUT STS. nees | 35 and $ 26. Evenings 7 and 8 Irene Castle in "French Heels" THE WOMAN WHO WALKED ALONE?

NIXON 12D AND MARKET STS. LIBERTY BROAD & COLUMBIA AV DORIS MAY In "BOY CRAZY"

69TH ST. Theatre, Opp. "L" Termina" JAMES KIRKWOOD In "THE MAN FROM HOME" STRAND Germantown Av. at Venance ETHEL CLAYTON

In "FOR THE DEFENSE"

ARDMORE LANCASTER PIER ARDMORE PA "QUEEN O' THE TURF"

GRANT 4022 GIRARD AVE DOUBLE FEATURE DAY Eve. TAS William Duncan & Madge Kennedy

AT OTHER THATRES MEMBERS OF M.P. 1.O.A.

SHERWOOD MAT 2 EVE 6.30 GERMANTOWN MATINEE DAILE ELLIOTT DEXTER IN "MR. BARNES OF NEW YORK" 333 MARKET STREET THEATRE BARK BIDGE AVE & DAUPHIN B Mat 215. EVE. 646 6

Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaves

In "PEACOCK ALLEY" PALM FRANKFORD AVE. 4 NORRIS STREET

soon as you can get one?

this fall. I haven't a "smash" on Claire Windsor, but think she shows