

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Hints of Two Engagements to Be Announced Soon—She Hears Several Debuts Have Been Postponed Until Next Season

TWO of our best dancing men, I'd be willing to wager, are about to forsake the single life and engage themselves to very attractive girls. No, they make me any the less sure. When you see a certain gentleman's car in front of a certain lady's house every evening of the week, and in the day time, too, and when she moves out of town for the summer and you see said car sitting in the road in front of the summer home as well as your dog and your young man has a regular job as stenographer there, for instance, or of landscape gardener or something like that. You just know they're engaged. And when they are good and ready they'll announce it.

It's the first summer for a couple of years, at least, that the lady in question has spent in this part of the country. Finally it's been Westward, ho! But this year she and her family are home, or, rather, near home, and the other swing is around home, too.

The other dancing man is musical. And why not, may I ask? Music hath charms for the very sweet and gentle girl, whose name is not given, to whom romance has been promised. And I think rumor is about right. They will both be nice engagements, that will please everybody, because the girls are wonderful and the men excellent well liked. Now what more could you ask, on a hot August day?

AS USUAL, after hearing of many girls who will come out next year, we begin now to hear of those who have changed their names and will walk accompanied for Europe the end of June next. For instance, Dorothy Hodge is not coming out until the year after this. You know the Hodge, Dorothy and Muriel, are in Europe with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hodge, and they have decided to stay there until December, when they will come back to this country and Muriel will finish her studies in New York. Dorothy will keep up her music through the year and wait for those social till Muriel is ready, too. Both the Hodge girls are talented musically. One plays the piano and the other the harp. I think they were among the first members of the Junior Music Club, which started on Main Line some four or five years ago.

THE circus at Narragansett Pier on Saturday night must have been quite a wild affair, and much fun. It was one of the ways of entertaining the polo players who are at the Pier, and was gotten up by a party of men who are being Philadelphia. The circus was held at the Scarborough Beach Bathing Club, where a huge circus tent was raised about a ring, in which various amateurs and professionals did all sorts of unique and amusing stunts. The audience was dressed in circus costume also. There were clowns, ring riders, horoback riders, charioteers and many queer animals. Altogether, it was great fun, I am told, in a letter received yesterday. The Philadelphia circus is expected to return to this city about the first of September.

Little Benny's Note Book

I had 2 cents and Puds Simkins had 3, and we was going past Mommy Simmines store and there was a box of candy peach stones in the window saying on them, Wile they last, 5 for a cent.

Being a bargain, and I wait 10 for my 2 cents and Puds had 15 for his 3, and after suppr I thawt of something, saying, Hay ma, hay pop, wile yous, just becuse you get a morbid satisfaction from cracking peach stones with them, he said.

Aw G, pop, I bet I could crack 30 just as easy, I said. Do you think you could crack 30 peach stones with your teeth, pop? I said.

I think I could give you 30 cracks with my slipper with pleasure, pop, said. Starting to look mad and m thinking, G, gosh, and I sed, But they was only candy peach stones, wat did you think, pop?
