A Model Young Man of Twenty-Seven Seeks a Wife Who Would Be Congenial

NLY twenty-seven, of perfect habits, and yearning for love—yet cannot find a nice girl to marry him.

What is the matter with modern conditions? Why do not the really domestic young domestic young as 'slow,' a prude! Even nice young girls seem to think sometimes that a fellow is dull and lacking if he has not lived a licentious life—not 'gone from soup to nuts' in the wild abandon.

'They simply do not realize the nastiness of a real rounder's experience. The dives, the street women, the filth.

We used to think that women generally were the abused sex and the mistunderstood and unappreciated. But accasional Sunday outing, a plain life.

"If I met a girl who rebelled, after the sterner half"

HEARTACHES? All my life. I bave even married nen boast of their inidellities and rottenness and joke over a decent home life. Sometimes I stit there silent and wonder who is the greater feel, this creature who takes all that is coming to him without consince I was fourteen, and every cent has gone toward maintaining a home for my mother.

Today I earn a good living, and most people suppose me far wealthier than I am I do not want to sail under false colors or deceive girls, but one cannot being up the subject of one's income.

Tam twenty-seven, tall and called fine-looking. My brother also is helping my

THIS seems a frank, fine chap, and I

Read Your Character By Dighy Phillips

All of us are likely occasionally to use the phrase "brain exercise," but few of us realize how close the parallel runs between exercise of the body and of the brain

The fact that this parallel is such ; a close one very often produces what seemingly are refutations of the accuracy and dependability of characterology as a science. Truly, however, it locgy as a science. Trily, however, it is so one of the best evidences that there is really a great deal in such study.

Perhaps you have observed one or more instances in which a person apparently contradicts the principles of characterology, exhibiting traits and characteristics which quite clearly he should not have, judging from the shaped in the locus furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs.

If you will take the trouble to invessigned to go with trian and Mary Furniture is so alled because furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs.

If you will take the trouble to invessigned to go with trian and Mary furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs.

If you will take the trouble to invessign these functions in which he cause furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs, and that type was a little cross with the majority of the course furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs.

If you will take the trouble to invessing the course furniture of that type of his head and other physical signs, and the course of which he classified advertising section under the classified advertising section under the classified advertising section in which he classified advertising section under the classified advertising section in which he classified advertising section under the classified advertisi maint Boudoir Cap Is Easily Made the outside sifted whiting with a damp piece of flannel or chamois.

The outside sifted whiting with a damp piece of flannel or chamois.

Chinese Women

Of so little account is woman considered in many parts of China that a father, if asked the number of his children piece of high class shown in diagram A. Have the attern picoted and gather on the curved edge. Fit the cap to your head atter some lace and stitch it under he cap. Gather also the ends of the cap. Gather also the bands under chin with a snap fastener.

FLORA.

The outside sifted whiting with a damp piece of flannel or chamois.

Chinese Women

Of so little account is woman considered in many parts of China that a father, if asked the number of his children cap. Gather lead in his reckoning.

Ladies of high class in China use the playing watchdog. She makes her young farity and a partial sunder mother or aunt has no taste for playing watchdog. She makes her young perile and happy; she gives cordial welcome, hospitality and a partial word to their friends, but she leaves them to themselves most of the time. She is an ideal hostess, not a vigilant policewoman.

The outside of the "Brahmin Caste," the chaperon was not a generally accepted institution in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States until some of our made-rich people hegan to follow European customs in this reckapitation in the Enited States Tou will want a quaint boundoir cap the this when you see how easily it is ade and think how becoming it will Mark off a circle fifteen to eightnaterial such as dotted swiss, dimity, or silk. Mark off the strips at each ide as shown in diagram A. Have the sattern picoted and gather on the carter picoted. Fit the cap to your head, lather some lace and stitch it made.

By WINNIFRED HARPER COOLEY

domestic y o n ng tiness of a real rounder's experience. The dives, the street women, the filth. After I have kept away from the easy existence of the male profligate and rotten name of this department, to indicate M a n's Life and Love, for we receive so many missives from minded modern girls, seeking n.en only to get a fine dinner or gay entertainment, more spenders and surreptitiously young men, telling their problems in sentimental coking up his bank account.

"Undoubtedly there are many simple

HARPER COOLEY realms, and beg-We used to think that women gener-mowadays it seems as if the sterner half of humanity suffers and worries and feels forlorn and destitute of encouragement and sympathy.

Very recently we told of the extremely youthful Pennsylvania man who felt that gir's did not want or appreciate a pure, decent fellow of high ideals, but actually preferred a fast, bold man.

Now we have a slightly different neels.

Sinday outing, a plain life.

"If I met a girl who rebelled, after all I have endured of struggle and loneliness. I would feel like a primitive man of the Stone Age and be tempted to assault her. I am not narrow and pedantic; I could forgive sin or early errors if one were true blue at heart.
But what gets me is why a sane, normal nice girl will pick a rounder and give him the preference over one who has not hit the high spots and led an avi-Now we have a slightly different prob-em, but a similar ventning.

not hit the high spots and led an evil life. I hear even married men boast of up the subject of one's income.

I am twenty-seven, tall and called finelooking. My brother also is helping my mother and is in the same fix I am in.
We are considered cold, because until now we have not felt that we dared to marry.

"For years we have been obliged to battle against temprations, for our natures are warm and affectionate. We could not marry, and we did not want to deceive any young girl nor descend to vulgar love affairs.

"God, how I would love a congenial woman!". " I want to keep nuyself good for the one woman I may some time meet and marry. When I see a girl who is sweer and charming a longing sweeps over me that is well-nigh irresistible. I long for wife and babis with a passionate desire. The struggle against human temptations is never ending; my heart, mind and sont are in perpetual tornent. I am waiting to find the girl to marry.

"After all these years of struggle,
when I do find her think of the satire,
the I do find her think of the satire.

"Grantot see why he has not found a girl who is a good companion and really twing right living and a high-unided mare. Evidently he now can afford to morty, but finds no choice soul. The only warning I would give him is not to be too monotonous when he settles on many modern activities to interest men and women in any town. Clubs and travel and the strict in any town. Clubs and travel and the vollegated. Why not buy a little car? Running about residence. The good for the one woman I may some time meet and marry. When I see a girl who is sweet and charming a longing sweeps over me that is well-nigh
irresistible. I long for wife and babis
with a passionate desire. The struggle against human temptations is never ending; my heart, mind and sont are defined to more and distillusionto "Mrs. J. S. M."

The Woman's Exchange

The woll to mark to many town. I long the main

THE HOME IN GOOD TASTE

By Harold Donaldson Exertein

of circumstances has forced the exercise of the subnormal functions in spite of the subnormal functions in spite of weak will.

The shape of the head and the other physical indication are only the measure of natural ability, but a poor natural fility, if well exercised and nurbal functions that are reglected and allowed to attrophy.

Tomorrow—Brain Exercise for "Low-"

Tomorrow—Brain Exe

To prolong the life of the curtain when being laundered, fold each curtain lengthwise twice, then crosswise three times. Place them in a tub, cover them with cold or lukewarm witter and let them stand for several hours or over night. Squeeze or put through the wringer. Pour over them hot suds and let stand another hour or more, then with the hands force the suds through them carefully. Rinse and starch them carefully. Rinse and starch lightly. Do not unfold the curtains until on put them on the stretchers,

The Care of Aluminum

Nothing is more unsightly than spotted and dirty aluminum kirchen-ware. If properly cared for it will keep its bright color and will always be an attractive utensil in the kitchen. It attractive utensil in the kitchen. It should not be washed with washing soda To clean and remove discolorations, use a weak solution of vinegar and water in the proportion of one tablesmoon of chaptering to a quart of water. Let the come ascouring to the amazement of preparation bell for five minutes. No. 0 steel wool may be used to polish the aluminum and there may be applied to the outside sifted whiting with a damp piece of flannel or chamois.

One of Holmes' poems describes the lightly, and then I wan alone in the hard one. "Good-night, you two," I sang back lightly, and then I wan alone in the hard one. It is that I had witnessed in the latt they real form the distinct of the guardians, when at last they real form the distinct of the guardians, when at last they real form the distinct of the outside sifted whiting with a damp piece of flannel or chamois.

Outside of the "Beakents C."

Try as I would I could

FOR THE "GETTING-STOUT" FIGURE

To the Editor of Women's Page;
Dear Madam—I have been reading the Women's Exchange and see that you help girls when they ask you about wors:

I wish to ask you if you think that I am able to obtain work addressing envelopes at home, as I am not used to it. I have been in this country not quite two years and I have had no work here, as I am married. I have been in Philadelphia culy three menths, so you see I don't know much about the city yet and don't know how and where to go to look un some work, and then, too. I do not speak English perfectly, and that makes me feel uncomfortable, so please be kind and answer my letter and tell me what you think about it. MRS. I. A.

I am sure you will be able to address.

envelopes at home. It is comparatively easy work, as it is mostly mechanical

The Wife Cheater By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

Joan Stockbridge marries Norman Wayne in spite of many warnings from her friends. She chooses him in preference to Herbert Livingston, a man who laves her devotedly, but who lacks Norman's charm, Norman is the kind of man who has never known what it was to care for one woman more then a few weeks at a time, and he and Joan have been married only a short time when he becomes interested first in Alice Wilson, a mutual friend, and then Mrs. Benedict, the wife of an artist, Joan is miscrably unhappy, and just at this time, Herbert Living. ston mores out to Hilton, where the Waynes live, and Edith, Joan's pounger sister, cames to Hilton for a visit. Joan finds Edith changed into a woman of the world at twenty, and is secretly glad that Herbert dis-likes her from the start, because Norman is obviously interested.

The Kiss

there staring at them.
"Joan doesn't approve. Norman," Edith drawled slowly. "Just look at her; she is absolutely shocked at my orwardness. I laughed then, a strange high laugh that did not sound at all natural to my enrs. "Nonsense, Edith, Norman can tell you that I am quite unshockable." But my voice trembled a little, and as Norman came toward me. I turned quickly to my door. I didn't want him to touch me, I couldn't bear it, now, after what he had done.

Please Tell Me What to Do By CYNTHIA

Letters to Cynthia's column must be written on one side of the paper only, and must be signed with the writer's name and address. The name will not be published if the writer does not wish it. Unsigned letters and letters written on both sides of the pair will not be answered. Writers who wish personal answers that can be given in the column will please look there, as personal letters are only written when absolutely necessary.

To 'Dot' Yes, take some flowers with you for

To Thomas Boyd P-

All things considered, Cynthia is afraid it would not do. It would be awkward, don't you honestly think? You remember the poem "It's all very well for Mary Ann. But it's mighty hard on Abraham." And while two in the party might and probably would have a fine time, what about the other two, especially as both would have to be "talked into it"?

Admires the Buck Private

Dear Cynthia—Fermit me a few words. Oh, is not a friendship like the 'Buck Private' and "Cynicus" a most wonderful thing: Their writings and bandying sound like the foundations of great authors. How I would love to be one of them but I cannot, dare got intrude.

Sister Betty Ann, and mother.

Mother sat in the shade with her back against cushions, sewing and gazing out to sea.

Marjorie was here, there and everywhere, crawling out of the sun, reaching out maniphily to drop a bit of sand on the sleeper were of the good-natured one of them but I cannot, dare got intrude.

The "Buck Private's" description of St. George's Church was so realistic that I could imagine myself there. I wonder if he has seen the picture of the painting of the old Dutch Church at Sleepy Hollow, in the grazeyard of which the remains of Washington Irving lie. That picture gives one a sense of peace and comfort. With a light shining through the two windows one feels that in there all the peace and comfort ror your heart could be found while outside at thousand stars twinkle, watching to see that no harm befalls it, while the bare trees stand dark grim sentincis around it. Ah, it is indeed a picture to inspire one, and give you a sense of peace in your heart.

How you must have been moved. "There she took it back again, quietly and without a word of reproach."

one, and give you a sense of peace in your heart

How you must have been moved.

"Buck Private," and so was I, so we have at least that in common. When I think that way I feel as though I had a brother who sympathizes with me. JULES.

Cynthia is sure "T. B. P." will be glad he has found another friend.

Five Obvious Questions

Dear Cynthia—I am submitting the following with the wish that you would answer same. Thank you.

1. Before a girl falls in leve should she find out first if the young man has money and social standing?

2. Why is it that most of the girls and incomplete would be the only variations.

1. Before a girl falls in love should she find out first if the young man has money and social standing?

2. Why is it that most of the girls always talk about the fellow with money and the ones who haven't any they don't give a tumble?

3. Should a girl listen to her parents when they say she should not marry a poor man even if she loves him, or should she listen to what her heart dietase?

Everything is so clean and shining.

2. Some girls care only for the things money can give and do not look to the finer things and so talk of the moneyed men and want their attention whether the men themselves are fine or not.

3. Parents' advice is usually good, but often riches are demanded, whereas if there is enough to live on and to put a little by for a rainy day, sometimes it's a much happier union than a rich

Adventures II the Purse

MAPE you have not be first in the mine you have not be first mirrors.

Adventures II the a Purse

MAPE you have her life the mine you have not be first mirrors.

The kind of hory that always must be carried, the first which state you want to the personal to the hard before it is wared, to separate the house of p and 5.

The kind of hory that always must be but in fore several days. It is a "limit" to be harmless, and whose takes the first life in a ware place of the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is supposed to the hard before it is wared, is an always to the hard before it is wared, it is a preparation whose is personal to the hard before it is wared, it is a preparation whose is personal to the hard before it is wared, it is a preparation whose is personal to the hard before it is wared, it is a preparation whose is personal to the first mirror and the most value of the hard before it is wared, the personal to the personal to the time of the personal to the first mirror.

With frince still no vague, I am surject of the period at $1.0.

With frince still no vague, I am surject the first indicated the total proper in the personal to the first mirror.

With frince still no vague, I am surject the first indicated the personal to the first mirror and the personal to the first mirror and the personal to the person speak. I wanted to treat the matter lightly, but I couldn't. A tumultuous anger was raging through me, mager directed toward, Edith, and I did the very worst thing I could do, just stood there starting at them.

"Joan doesn't approve. Norman,"

The Peace That Comes From Sitting

THE row of tents, some striped, some sunburned white and some tan, presented a quiet and peaceful appearance from the Boardwalk side.

But from the beach they showed in a dreadful mess way out about shoulder deep.

That's restful, too, because it's entirely their own affair. You don't have to exert yourself to go out and untangle them, or worry about how they're going to smooth themselves out.

teeming activity.

Buildings were rapidly going up in with your eyes fixed straight ahead, and the sand, tunnels were being whisked let the ocean roar and threaten and into shape by flying shovels, paper dolls wants to. wants to.

You know it doesn't mean anything; you've been out there among those wild. looking cakes and pies were being baked in the seashore sun, turned out of tin pans and shells by hands that were clumsy because of their small chub-sand drinking in that salt breeze and letting your gaze and your mind roam Marjorie was there, too, with little sister Betty Ann, and mother.

Mother sat in the shade with her back against cushions, sewing and

The "Food Drink" for All Ages. Quick Lunch at Home, Office and Fountains. Ask for HORLICK'S. Avoid Imitations & Substitutes

Everything is so clean and shining. tates?

4. Why is a red-headed fellow turned down though he has money and other good, qualifications?

5. Should she marry him if her parents object?

LIVE WIRE.

1. Usually finding out about money and social position has little to do with failing in love. It's well to find out it a man can support you before becoming engaged.

Everything is so clean and shining. The never-failing roar of the ocean is so soothing, the great distance out to that thin line of gray which is the smoke of a liner is so vast, so restful. The waves roll in as fiercely as if they were going to wreck everything in sight, but they change their minds as they near the beach and come rollicking in as playfully as a puppy. in as playfully as a puppy.

Sometimes they tangle themselves up

Can You Tell? By R. J. and A. W. Bodmer

Why Birds Fly South in Winter? The compelling reason for the migra-The Kiss

I am sure you will be able to address on the convergence of the convergence of > comes the time for breeding. They might just as well nest and hatch in the South, but it is crowded with birds and there might not be enough food you will note when you read further you are not already exasperated. Also displays his affection in the lear with one another constantly lifety six months straight—I never gent with another man and he with the series of the second of the strongest and hardiest go South, while some of the most frail remain in the North throughther girl. And he has never told And he has never told out the winter and seem to thrive the leves see.

>
> The leves see.
>
> The alleve circumstances, I if the would be wrong to indulge at But here is something that the case—for me at least. I'll side. But before I do. I ke to add, as a point of inche that this man has always no with the utmost respect and are not passionate outbursts.
>
> Out the winter and seem to tarrive, out the winter and seem to thrive, and seem to the subject of bird migration in order to account for the return to the same spot, year after year, of the same birds, the total this is accomplished through the ability of birds to recognize familiar landmarks, but in view of the fact that birds migrate at night as much as in the derivative of the subject of bird migration in order to account for the value spot, year after year, of the same brids.
>
> Many observers have claimed that this is accomplished through the ability of birds to recognize familiar landmarks, but in view of the fact that birds migration in order to account for the return to the same spot, year after year, of the same birds.

Milk For Infants

ASK for Horlick's

Malted Milk

on a Tranquil Beach at the Seashore

Rest Comes Sailing in to You on the Waves That Break So Hard and Finish So Harmlessly and Make Such a

Vast Distance

| Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | Vast Distance | V

At all our Stores

TLIES are dangerous. You don't want them crawling all over the sugar your children eat. But you know that exposed sugar does attract fies.

Protect the health of your family by buying sugar that is never exposed—Franklin Cane Sugars in packages. This clean, cane sugar is protected in your home just as it was in your grocer's store, by sturdy cartons and strong cotton bags.

The Franklin Sugar Refining Company

"A Franklin Cane Sugar for every use" Granulated, Dainty Lumps, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown; Golden Syrup; Cinnamon and Sugar: Sugar-Honey

No heat with this summer meal

A DISH of crisp, delicious Grape-Nuts, with cream or milk (some berries or fresh fruit, too, if you like) is cooling to serve, cooling to eat and cooling to digest-with a charm of flavor and goodness that rouses appetite enthusiasm. No preparation, no cooking-no heating of the body afterward, as heavy, starchy meals do-but well-rounded nourishment for every bodily need.

There's a noticeable feeling of lightness and comfort after such a meal.

Try this way out of the heat, bother and uncertainty that usually goes with the midsummer food problem.

Order Grape-Nuts from your grocer today. "There's a Reason"

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc.

Battle Creek, Michigan

