EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER- PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1922

A wonderfully comfortable suit with the new high thin

Style tells the story of this beautiful Suit. Davenport,

Wing Chair and Arm Chair all equipped with loose cushions, seats and backs. Seams covered with the fashionable $656 moss edging. The Suit in the Sale at.....

Clearance of Women's

Capes and Coats

Half Price and Less

arms and the distinctive moss edging. Consists of full size davenport, one low-back and one high-back arm chair. All with loose cushion seats. This suit is in the sale

Examples of

the New

Furniture

COLD ASPARAGUS À LA VINAIGRETTE Inviting-appetizingrefreshing. A real treat when seasoned with the genuine SAUCE THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE

lurses & physicians recommend esinol For years they have relied upon it in ient of skin and scalp troubles, use they know that Resinol Ointnt so quickly stops itching and gen-lly clears away the disorder. From slight rash to severe cases of a hundreds of letters bear witness o its healing power. It's easy to btain-easy to use. Why don't you

it? At all druggists

in America!

STORES CO.

NO LONGER IN LOVE Admits She Is Disillusioned After Desertion by Her "Wonder Man"

H. EUGENE HEINE WEDS

SAN FRANCISCO GIRL

WAS LURED BY LUXURY By Associated Press

New York, Aug. 9.-Details of the unconventional romance that finally landed nineteen-year-old Mrs. Edith Stevens in jail as an alleged bootlegger queen were drawn from her lips when she was recalled to the stand for cross-examination in Federal Court in Brooklyn today at her trial for violation of the Volstead act. She went calmly again over her story of her first meeting with Anthony Cas-sese, alleged bootlegger king. They met, she said, in a cemetery, where he nearly ran her down with his automobile. She told of her first clandestine dinner with him in a Fifth avenue hotel, her final decision to abandon her poor young husband for the wealth Cassese promised to shower on her and finally of the cruise to the Bahamas of his yacht named in her honor-which resulted her arrest.

Thought Cargo Was Tobacco She admitted she had sat once on the deck and checked off the burlap bags which were loaded into the hold. But all the time, she insisted, she thought the cargo was tobacco. all the had "I was very much in love with Cas-his husiness. He told me he was in the tobacco business, and I believed MR. AND MRS. H. E. HEINE

"Are you still in love with him?" demanded Assistant United States At-H. Eugene Helne, Assistant City So-

"Are you still in love with him?" demanded Assistant United States At-torney Blue.
H. Eugene Helne, Assistant City So-licitor and lecturer in law in the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania Law School, was married today in San Francisco to the service during the war.
Cassose disappeared after he and Mrs. Stevens had been indicted, leaving her, she declared, penniless.
Wallace E. J. Collins, Mrs. Stevens' lawyer, intended to keep her from the stand 'yesterday because of her ill health, but the prosecution objected.
She appeared not only willing but anxious to testify in her own behalf, and begged Mr. Collins to grant the wish of the Prosecutor. Her lawyer then instructed her to tell briefly the story of her life, in her own words, but at each intimate expression As-istant United States Attorney Blue but at each intimate expression As-sistant United States Attorney Blue coast and the Canadian Rockles. upon their return will live in Phila-delphia. Mr. Heine is a member of the Union jumped up with an objection. This was her story, so far as she was per-mitted to tell it, up to the time of League and Overbrook Golf Club and on active worker in the Pennsylvania

Bar Association.

Just say

Corns Go

adjournment : Wedded Life "Monotonous"

"When I was a very little girl my father was wealthy and we always had everything that was lovely and beautiful, (Objection). Well, anyway, then my father disappeared, and soon I had to go to work. It was awfully monotonous. And then Mil-

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER.

$340

Three Things to Remember About The Semi-Annual Furniture Sale Variety — Beauty — Economy

Never have we had such a large, beautiful and varied collection of Good Furniture for any Sale. All of it is new, all of it at reduced prices, much is at savings of one-third to one-half.

Our 9-story warehouse is packed to the roof with hundreds of Suits and Pieces which are being constantly brought to the selling floor to fill up the empty spaces occasioned by Furniture going out to Philadelphia homes.

The Furniture is conveniently arranged for easy inspection. Hundreds of suits and single pieces in compact concentrated array make Furniture selection a genuine pleasure.

Particular Attention is Called to the Graceful, Distinctive New Living-Room Suits

We had many of the Living-Room Suits designed and made specially for us-they are our own exclusive styles.

Notice the two illustrations at the left-how successfully the new designs have gotten away from the bulky, heavy-stuffed Furniture of recent days. The new Furniture is more distinctive, graceful and artistic, more fitting for the modern city home or apartment.

Plan to come here to-morrow and take advantage of the values afforded.

Strawbridge & Clothier-Furniture, Third Floor, Metai Beds and Bedding, Floor 2%, Market Street, East

a hurried clearance

Autumn's New Dresses Are Charming

The materials alone are a treat-wonderful new crepes, by such fascinating names as Autriel, Granada, Denisette, Harsonna, crushed moleskin, Harsonna, crushed molesan, and of course, crepe Roma, satin crepe and Canton crepe. And in Street Dresses, which are decidedly coat-like, very fine grades of Poiret twill and twill-cord are shown. This new line, in black and colors, from $39.75 to $115.00, is most satisfving.

Model Sketched, $39.75

Inexpensive New Crepe de Chine Dresses

New Autumn models, in plaited - panel and draped styles. Navy blue, brown and black-$15.00 to $22.50.

High-Grade Cotton Dresses Half Price

$12.50 Ratine, gingham, dotted Swiss and linen.

Strawbridge & Clothier-Second Floor, Market Street

Save About One-half

Exceptionally low prices on three groups of fine Oxfords for

On Men's Oxfords

This is the Hand Bag_with the "safe" pocket-a pocket hidden away hardly noticeable

Peacock Ginger Ale is fit for little children to drink.

It is our proudest boast that it is fit for little children to drink.

And it is BETTER for little children to drink than most water is.

isbrod

Hess

Better for you, too. Especially in such weather as this!

iingerAle AND SARSAPARILLA ROOT BEER, VANILLA SODA E-OTHER