wint Commission to Prepare Priority Lists Headed by Railroads

Being Supreme in Anthracite, State in Soft Coal

The rationing of coal, with railroads iven first preference, is planned by the ennsylvania Fuel Commission which inds, that the State has only a twenty days' supply of soft coal.

"The situation is acute," said W. D. B. Ainey, head of the Public Serve Commission and chairman of the www Fuel Commission. He returned tolay from a conference with Secretary ministrator Spencer.

Control of anthracite production and distribution will be administered jointly by Federal and State officials, as a result of the conference, according to in-fermation from Washington. Anthraits will be treated as a national proben. it is said.

The Pennsylvania Fuel Commission uminous, or soft coal, but the Fuel and Kensington avenue, mission which Mr. Ainey heads will be supreme in intra-State problems, including prices at the mines.

Comprehensive plans for the allotment of coal will be presented tomorrow at a full meeting of the Fuel Commission in the Chamber of Commerce, Mr.
Africa announced. He was accompanied to Washington yesterday by James S.
Benn, a member of the Public Service Commission and the Fuel Commission.
"Will the fuel situation be serious this winter?" Mr. Ainey was asked.
"If all the mines should start tomorrow on full time, there would still be a vacuum that could never be filled
