ISAAC STARR, JR., & CO. United States Government Securities bought and sold at prevailing market prices.

While there was a lack of definite news concerning either the rail or coal strike, the market community was disposed to treat the less favorable developments overnight lightly.

The feeling concerning the rail situation was less hopeful as it was frankly admitted the deadlock was extremely stubborn.

Liquidation of low-priced industrials, combined with an increase in call money to 3 1/2 per cent, halved the advance in the bond market.

Prices for foreign securities in the bond market were reactionary, reflecting the pessimistic feeling here regarding the outcome of the meeting of allied premiers in London.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE. New York, Aug. 10.—The market for foreign exchange continued nominal during the day, but at the close quotations showed rallies from the early low figures.
