Nancy Wynne Talks of Smart-Looking and Popular Matrons-She Speaks of the Death of Mrs. Henry Peter Borie, of This City, in Maine

HEAR the Heckscher Wetherills are Willing, of Chestnut Hill, at their cot-

geous hair. Have you ever noticed how it waves? Just as if it were done with an iron, as even and soft and smooth, and believe me, an iron never touched tt. Her hair waves as naturally as the billows of the ocean, and it's the loveliest thing you ever saw, drying in the sun after a bath. No, it's no "permanent" arrangement either. Since I nent" arrangement either. Since I used to know her as a little girl and play with her in Rittenhouse Square play with her in Rittenhouse Square the wave has been the same. And, I billows of the ocean, and it's the lovethe wave has been the same. And, I think, it's a real blessing to have such ans naturally wavy locks. And when such hair and coloring as Edwina has are combined with a beautiful figure, now I ask you, what more could one want?

WHILE the John R. Drexels are ago abroad the junior Johns are having a gay time of it in Newport, where they have the Drexel villa. Mrs. Jack bare the Drexel was Bessie Thompson, of this city, you remember, and came out here is some six or seven years ago. In fact, she was a co-deb with Cordelia Biddle Duke, Margot Scull Biddle, Ruth Coxe Stokes, Charlotte Brown Frazier, Jean Mrs. Paul Andrews, of New York, who have leased the villa of Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Andrews, of New York and Newport, for the season.
