AMBLER BACK TO OPPOSE NATIVITY

Philadelphia Terminal Will Bat the Dobson Team at East Falls

MOUNT HOLLY AT STENTON

It will look like old times tonight at Nativity's field, Belgrade and Ontario streets, when Ambler meets the churchmen. The visitors, while touring under the name of Ambler, are none other than the Spring City-Royersford team.

Nativity and the twin city nine have met on four occasions and the record stands fifty-fifty. The visitors polished Phil Haggerty's clan off in clever style a trifle more than a week ago, and the Richmond club is after revenge.

In the Ambler line-up are Charlie and Tom Barker, Georgie Meister and Bill Grevell, all former members of Nativity. Harranft, who has the churchmen's number, will hurl against "Sox" Seibold.

Another game in the uptown section is at Tenth and Butler streets, between Marshall E. Smith and Norwood. This team also triumphed over the Smith boys on a recent Saturday, and they are out for the well-known revenge.

Terminal at Dobson

Philadelphia Terminal, one of the favorites to get well into the finals for the championship of the city, will mingle with the Dobson nine at Thirty-fifth street and Queen lane. The weavers have the players, but somehow or other they are not able to win in the consistent manner in which they should. Many reasons are advanced, but they should certainly be making a better showing. Grandstaff, Jones or Thummel will pitch against Bob David.

The Stenton Field Club, after last night's defeat at Germantown, takes on another tough customer on the home field at Phil-Ellena and Musgrave streets. The visiting attraction is none other than Mount Holly, which played a great extra-inning ten game here last Friday at Shetzline Park.

The Jerseymen will use "Ray" Steinacker, who is now in the best shape of his career and who is said to be sought again by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Hetzel or Wilson will twirl for Stenton.

The big clash in West Philly is at Forty-eighth and Brown streets, where the fast-moving team known as Shanahan mingles with Tate's All Stars of Cleveland. The churchmen have hit their real stride just at a time when it is most desired. Their winning streak has now reached five and they expect to make it seven tonight.

Bridesburg at South Phils

The South Phils are out to humble Bridesburg at Shetzline Park, Broad and Bigler streets. Bridesburg has the better of the series between the teams three to one, and one of the largest crowds of the season should see the rivals battle, especially as Jeff Tesreau will hurl for the downtowners against Ray Kepner.

The Fletcher Yarners are also in action with Chappie Johnson's Philadelphia Royal Stars at Twenty-sixth and Reed streets. Manager Nolan has the Yarners back in good condition with the addition of several new players and the rounding into form of the cripples. Bill Grieshaber will likely face the colored boys.

St. Barnabas will play Druding A. A. at Second and Clearfield streets, Moorestown Giants are at Kensington A. A., Bachrach Giants oppose Bellfield and Puritan and Phoenix Professionals meet at Twenty-fifth and Diamond streets. Phoenix is the latest addition to the independent ranks and has a snappy aggregation of tossers.

FIRST GAME AT HOME

Penna. R. R. Travelers Will Meet Goodfellows Nine Tonight

The Pennsylvania R. R. Travelers, who now have a home field in Tioga, will inaugurate the season there tonight in a game with the Goodfellows, of West Philadelphia, at Stenton Field, Twenty-fourth street and Allegheny avenue.

Bill Lombardo will use Sweeney on the hill, while the railroaders will depend on Franks or Veso. The P. R. R. boys will play on Stenton Field for the remainder of the season and will book all the first-class clubs.

Exchange dates are sought with the leading teams. Address W. D. Mitchell, 2317 North Twenty-seventh street, or phone Diamond 3194.

HE BEAT STENTON

JOE WILKIE

A newcomer, tossed for Germantown in a twilight match at Magnolia street and Chelten avenue last evening. Wilkie hails from the coal region

GERMANTOWN WINS FIRST OF SERIES

Dave Bennis' Team Triumphs Over Stenton Field Club by Score of 8 to 2

ANOTHER FOR BRIDESBURG

Dave Bennis' Germantown baseball team scored first blood in the series with Stenton for the championship of Germantown and Mount Airy.

The initial encounter was staged at Chelten avenue and Magnolia street, and Germantown romped away with the decision by the score of 8 to 2.

Wilkie was the winning hurler, and "Liz" Powell, who also manages beside pitching for Stenton, was the loser. It was one of the few games this season where more than a dozen hits have been made off "Liz's" deliverys.

The home boys had their batting togs on and punished the offerings of Powell for sixteen healthy swats and hit him safely in every inning.

All the players on the home team had one or more hits with the exception of Kohler, who failed to connect safely. The feature of the game was the hitting and fielding of Bill Wood, of Contesville. He had three hits and accepted five hard chances in the field without an error.

Hamilton and Mueller, for Stenton, played brilliant ball in the field, while H. Wood and Rockford were the stars at bat.

Bridesburg again took the number of the South Phils and Bill Whitman's boys have it on their rivals three to one and one game tied. Lefty Foley has the downtowners at his mercy at Richmond and Orthodox streets and all they could make in nine sessions was six hits. Phil Keithler was passed from the hill to the third, when Whitman made his appearance. Herb Lewis, who succeeded him, kept the uprisers in check. Stock was in rare form and fanned twelve of the Spare Ribs' supporters, were in the game and covered first base for the respective teams.

The South Philly Hebrews and Fletcher Yarners renewed rivalries at Thirteenth and Dickinson streets and after eight strenuous sessions neither team won, the score was 6 to 6. Although the Yarners had scored in their half of the ninth and the Sphas had a run across with two out and a man on third when the umpire decided it was too dark to continue and called the game, the score remained as it was at the end of the eighth. It marked the second successive shutout hurled by Lefty Vann.

Lit Brothers continued their winning streak at Forty-fourth street and Elmwood avenue by taking the measure of the crack Ardmore team. Manager Mildenberg had a new pitcher named Otto in the game and Otto made a decided hit with his manager and also the fans who turned out in large numbers. He held the Main Line all agers to four hits and no runs, while the store boys pounded young Mitchell for a dozen safeties and a half dozen runs.

The Philadelphia Royal Stars decisively defeated Tate's Forward Stars, 14 to 0, at Forty-eighth and Walnut streets. Ping Gardner was on the hill for the Royals and held the visitors safe at all times, while Dykes led the Cleveland batters at the plate.

St. Barnabas added the Westinghouse lumberjacks to the list of victims at Sixty-fifth street and Elmwood avenue when Ed Lusk's boys turned in a 4 to 2 triumph over the Easington invaders. Scott Sheridan pitched for the Saints and allowed but four hits, while Mills was fed a few wallops, but also pitched good ball. The feature was the hitting of Foster, who led at bat with a double and triple.

Jack McCarthy's Philadelphia Terminal boys handed the Southern Division representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad a nifty lacing, kicking at Forty-fourth street and Parkside avenue to the tune of 10 to 2. Their lineup, a bunch of stars from the Eastern State League, but they looked and acted like professional champions and administered a punch that was severe. Rose, Fairburn, with three hits, and Six Clouser shared the batting honors, while Eddie Barlass' pitching was a treat.

Stead & Miller defeated John T. Lewis, 6 to 5, in an Industrial League contest. The feature of the game was a home-run drive by Curry, of the winning club.

NO-HIT PITCHER ON STORE TEAM

Strawbridge & Clothier Juniors Have Won 25 of 28 Games Played

SAM LASTER STAR HURLER

Winning twenty-five games out of twenty-eight played this year is the record of the Strawbridge & Clothier Junior Baseball Club.

Under the coaching of C. William Jeffers, a former Central High School athlete, and the management of T. M. Levis, the boys have developed into a splendid team. Among the teams defeated by the Juniors are Trinity, Sylvania, Redemption, Oppenheim & Collins, Brooklawn, Camden Sportsmen's Club, Arlington, Rubican Boys' Club, National Boys' Club, Holmes (Pa.) Junior High School, etc.

The Holmes High School nine was shut out without a hit or run through the superb pitching of Sam Laster, a West Philadelphia High School lad. Laster has won eight games to date. Keene, Thorpe, Wear, Bourke, Childs and McIntyre are also on the twirling staff of the store team. Keene is a brother of Victor Keene, who is now a member of Wichita Falls Texas League Club, and is a product of Northeast High. Thorpe is a big kid from West Philadelphia high, standing six feet two inches in height, though only seventeen years old. He has been signed to pitch for the Mount Holly (N. J.) team next year.

The infield comprises E. McGarrigan, third base; D. McGarrigan, shortstop; C. Stumm, second base and captain, and Lyons, first base. William Dawson, Morrow, Lyons and Gerst are catchers. Carlin, Kane and Lare are in the outfield, alternating with the big string of pitching talent. J. Watts, Wrigley and Morstler are substitutes. Morstler was playing first base in good style until an injury in a recent game put him on the bench. Pasquerella, a brother of the South Phillies star, also plays first base for S. & C.

Stumm, with an average of .525, is the leading hitter of the S. & C. team, while McIntyre is leading in stolen bases with twenty-two sacks to his credit.

McCALL DOWNS WARDERS

Legion Lads Will Play Return Game With Kaywood Tonight

The McCall Post players recovered their lost batting eyes last night and defeated the Forty-eighth Ward at Twenty-fifth street and Snyder avenue, 3 to 2. Cavanaugh pitched for McCall.

Tonight McCall stacks up against Kaywood at Forty-ninth and Spruce streets. These teams met on Monday and Kaywood won and held the legioners to two hits.

McCall is out to retrieve the defeat and is confident of winning.

The Charm of Disillusionment

Every man, who has been married ten years or more, will appreciate the mental condition of Clauson. So accustomed to every mannerism of his wife, "Jep," so familiar with every intonation of her voice, so accustomed to her caresses that he even had to ask "did I remember to kiss you when I came in?" he was quite certain that Miss Rickson, his stenographer, would be an enlivening contrast.

One evening when "Jep" and he had an animated ten-minute argument on a topic about which she was reading aloud, it seemed like a blissful interlude in a life stagnant with domestic custom.

But, when he called on Miss Rickson at her boarding house, he found that "woman in business" and "woman at home" are not necessarily the same.

And, really, just like a man, it wasn't his wife that was causing his discontent. There was something else, as you will find by reading
