AT TRIAL ON RAID CHARGES

Mental Strain of Girl's Testimony
Is Too Much for Him
Los Angeles, Aug. 41.—(By A. P.)
—The trial of thirty-seven reputed members of the Ku Klux Klan, alleged to have participated in a raid at Inglewood last April, balted abruptly yesterday when Nathan A. Baker, former Klengle for Los Angeles County, and one of the defendants, collapsed in his chair and was carried in a stretcher from the courthouse.

Baker was the admitted leader of the raiders. His explanation of the affair, made public before the trial, was that he was meting as an officer of the law in an attempt to secure evidence of the rollation of the probabition laws.
