

Mrs. Wilson Varies Peach Desserts

This Is the Season for This Tempting Fruit, but It Should Not Be Served in the Same Manner Every Time

By MRS. M. A. WILSON Copyright, 1922, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All Rights Reserved.

THE peach season lasts but a few weeks, and yet this delicious fruit that came to us from the Persian garden has many real possibilities.

Convenient and Attractive Pocket Snacks. You will find that pocket snacks not only add to the attractiveness of your fork, but just as important, they are very convenient for carrying a handkerchief or powder puff.

Peach Suet Dumplings. Chop sufficient suet fine to measure three-quarters cup. Place in mixing bowl.

Peach Vanilla Sauce. Place in saucepan two cups of sugar, one and one-half cups of sugar, seven tablespoons of cornstarch.

Peach Fritters. Select firm ripe peaches, pare and place in bowl and sprinkle six peaches with one-quarter cup of sugar.

Peach Cobbler. This is an old Southern favorite, and one that a family will enjoy.

Try This Novel Dessert. Place layer of thinly sliced peaches in glass compote, sprinkle with sugar.

MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS. My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you tell me the quantity I will need to make two quarts of blackberry brandy?

My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you kindly give recipes for making preserves and jelly from the fresh citron?

My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you tell me if there is a country club or some place where a young girl who is fond of sports, such as tennis, golf and also dancing, can join?

Things You'll Love to Make

Convenient and Attractive Pocket Snacks. You will find that pocket snacks not only add to the attractiveness of your fork, but just as important, they are very convenient for carrying a handkerchief or powder puff.

Two tablespoons of whole cloves, two tablespoons of whole allspice, two sticks of cinnamon broken in pieces.

Two pieces of cadmus root. Tie loosely and place in the preserving kettle with the sugar and water, adding one cup of either the preserved or crystallized ginger cut in pieces.

Wash one-quarter cup of rice, and cook until soft in two and one-half cups of boiling water.

Read Your Character. Exercise for the Short-Headed. Have you one of those heads which is short from the ears backward?

Monday—Exercise for the Wide-headed. To "Katherine R." I could not put your letter in the column unless you care to give your friends away as a sale transaction.

Wants a Nickname. To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Please sell me a nickname for Geraldine, as it is too long and hard for me to say.

To Clean Nickel. To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—What should be used to keep the nickel on a coal range clean and bright?

Wants to Join a Club. To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Would you be so kind as to tell me if there is a country club or some place where a young girl who is fond of sports, such as tennis, golf and also dancing, can join?

Cooling Toilet Accessories. Things that will blot out the dust, heat and sunburn from one's vacation memories.

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

Our Down Stairs Store endeavors to be a thoroughly helpful store to people who are economizing with their purchases.

We Have Over 27 different Sections, with good assortments of a particular class of goods of a kind that we can recommend our customers to buy.

This Down Stairs Store is not to sell off old lots or broken assortments, but means to be a good store for people that choose to spend less money for what they need.
