QUIZ WOMAN IN CHESTER SHOOTING

Police Say "Frances Smith, of Philadelphia," Can Give Important Details

VICTIM MAY RECOVER

Frances Smith is the name of the Philadelpi in woman suspended as an ac-complice of Joseph Williams, Front and Christian streets, held in connection with shooting of Joseph Rykel, Chester, with shooting of Joseph Rykel, Chester, late Thursday night.

County Detective Smith, of Chester, refuses to divulge the address of the woman. He says he quizzed her in this city today and that she corroborated the story told by Williams, who said there were four persons in the automobile from which the shot was fired.

The Smith woman will probably be present at a hearing tomorrow before present at a hearing tomorrow before Magistrate Elliot in Chester. At the hearing her testimony is expected to hearing her testimony is expected to have an important bearing on the case, which is supposed to be the outgrowth of a bootleggers' war in Delaware County. The preliminary hearing was originally set for Monday.

He is still in a semi-conscious condi-tion, however, and can make no state-ment regarding the shooting.

Just what part the woman played in the shooting is a mystery and will not be known until she takes the stand.

Another appear is expected to be worth. Another arrest is expected to be made soon by the Chester police, who believe two alleged automobile thieves are also implicated in the shooting. These young men live near the home of Rykel and are said to have been well acquainted with his personal habits. The police consider it significant that an automobile was stolen in that locality at
