The end of this month will see the pennant race narrowed down considerably, with the prospects of September witnessing the Yankees, Browns and Tigers battling and the Pirates, Giants and Cards fighting it out at the same time. That is the general consensus now. Chicago and Cincinnati lack the pitching strength to keep up their bril-liant fights, while in the American the same situation exists with the White

x and Indians Macks and Phils Must Reverse Form

Whether the Athletics and Phillies are going to remain out of eighth place this season will depend on their showing with the Western clubs. At home the Athletics have played great ball all season, only to lose the ground they made up on the road.

The Phillies, on the other hand, in the last six weeks have been good neither at home nor on the road. Un-less the pitching staff that Wilhelm has been forced to carry all season shows a reversal of form, the prospects of keep-ing out of the cellar will not be so good. nightfall the first two rounds of the singles will have been completed.

That will afford an opportunity to start the doubles tournament tomorrow and finish the event on Saturday.

The entry list shows a surprisingly good representation of the best women tennis players in the country. With Miss Leslie Bancroft, of Boston: Mrs. Marion Zinderstein Jessup, of Wilmington; Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, of Los Angeles, and Miss Helen Wills, of San Francisco, all trying for the championship it is apparent that Mrs. Mallory will face the most spirited competition in her defense of the championship this year.
