

MCCORMICK'S WIVES ON VERGE OF FEUD

Harvester King Is Determined to Make Ganna "Greatest Opera Singer"

FIRST WIFE TO OPPOSE THIS

Chicago, Aug. 14.—A feud between Ganna Walska and the first Mrs. Harold F. McCormick is believed to be impending as a result of the Harvester King's alleged determination to make his bride "the greatest opera singer in the world."

Mr. McCormick is reported to have purchased a Lake Forest "love nest" for the Polish opera singer, whom he married last Friday in Paris. The purchase is said to have been made secretly under an assumed name by Mr. McCormick.

From Lake Forest, it is said, will be conducted his campaign to gratify Ganna Walska's operatic ambitions. The purchase of the property here and the probable effort by Mr. McCormick to win an engagement with the Chicago Civic Association for his bride is expected to precipitate one more clash between Mr. McCormick and Mrs. Edith McCormick, from whom he was divorced. The pre-nuptial promise of Mr. McCormick to put Ganna Walska in Chicago grand opera will bring Mrs. McCormick into the picture. Last year underwrote a deficit said to have exceeded $1,300,000 for the Chicago Opera Company. These favors, it was pointed out, tend to show that Chicago opera will be used by Mr. McCormick in furthering his expressed ambition concerning his bride.

Mrs. McCormick is expected to use every resource at her disposal to foil the plan.

In a recent chat Mr. McCormick remarked: "Mrs. Walska studies harder than any laborer. Her voice, always beautiful, has improved wonderfully. She sings in three languages. Her vocal masters who have coached her abroad tell me her voice is the purest they have ever known."

"What her success when she makes her debut abroad or in America. She will be hailed as the greatest singer of the times and she and I will be the proudest persons alive. Why, man, the very thought of her coming triumph thrills me!"

After her marriage, Ganna Walska announced: "I shall not let marriage interfere with my operatic career. That is understood by both Mr. McCormick and myself."

As far as Illinois laws are interested by Chicago lawyers and Judges, the marriage can never be legal in Illinois, unless they are remarried after a full year has elapsed since the divorce of Mr. McCormick by his first wife.

Jurists agree should the couple return to Illinois within a year of the divorce or afterward without first subscribing to a second marriage ceremony, they may be prosecuted.

It is pointed out by a citizen of the State may procure a warrant for the arrest of the couple should they come to Illinois without complying with the marriage law here.

Muriel McCormick refuses to comment on her father's marriage and her mother's reported intention to be Edith McCormick's bride.

"No one shall ever know how I feel about my father's marriage," she said, "because I shall never let them. Any man who is either of influence or intelligence, which I may or may not cherish, is locked in my heart and I mean to keep it so."

It has been rumored recently that Muriel had been reported engaged to a shaft from the bow of the small god, Eros, and is engaged to marry a young musician.

When this was suggested to the daughter of McCormick she sidestepped the issue with the following bit of playful wit:

"Really, how interesting. Could you tell me the name of the gentleman whom I am about to have the honor to marry? One really likes to know those things, he in divorce, you know. I'll say one thing at least: I'd have to be some one very special."

"I wonder now, couldn't you arrange to have me reported engaged to the Prince of Wales? That is fashionable, and, besides, I have felt rather slighted by the press. I rather fancy being Muriel in headlines."

IRISH IRREGULARS CAPTURE DUNDALK

National Garrison Overpowered in Surprise Attack—Convicts Liberated and Armed

TRIBUTES PAID TO GRIFFITH

Belfast, Aug. 14.—Large force of republicans entered Dundalk at 3 o'clock this morning, taking the national garrison completely by surprise. The attack was successful, and the town is now isolated, with republican troops patrolling the streets.

The Anne street police headquarters, which was occupied by the nationals, was the first objective to be stormed and taken. The garrison was captured. The jail was the next to fall, and all prisoners, who were mostly republicans, were liberated. These were supplied with arms and joined their recruits in the attack on the town, in which bombs were freely used. The railway station and general postoffice were taken in succession. After capturing Dundalk, the irregulars are said to have occupied Drogheda.

The republicans seized a railway engine, which was dispatched south with a view to blocking the rear and preventing the Free Staters from sending up re-enforcements.

Cork, Aug. 14.—(By A. P.)—The irregulars who evacuated Cork before the advance of the national troops have apparently been completely routed and are flying helterskelter into the hills of Northwestern County Cork. The barracks at Fermoy, north of Cork, were burned by the irregulars yesterday previous to their evacuating the town.

It is rumored that Daniel O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, has been arrested, together with Mary MacSwiney. The whereabouts of Eamon de Valera remains a mystery. All of eastern County Cork has now been taken by the nationals.

Dublin, Aug. 14.—(By A. P.)—The body of Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann Cabinet, lay in state today in Dublin City Hall. Thousands of mourners streamed by the bier.

The body will lie in state until tomorrow night, when it will be removed to the pre-cathedral. Archbishop Byrne will preside at solemn requiem mass at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, the funeral and burial at Glasnevin, Dublin northern suburb, immediately following.
