

Falls of Schuylkill Forgets Rowing for the Moment to Gossip About Its Coming Golf Tourney

SIXTY REAL GOLFERS FROM ONE WEE SPOT SOUNDS LIKE RECORD

Falls of Schuylkill Neighborhood Tourney Is Challenge to Any Other Community in the Universe—Tom Gribbin Will Stage It at Country Club

THERE is one little old corner of Philadelphia that has risen up on his hind legs and tossed out a challenge to any other neighborhood in the world to duplicate the feat that it will stage next Monday, August 21.

Harry Jervis' Feat

THE Jervis boys, for instance, may not be so well known as some of these others to the folks outside the Falls, but we rise and ask, "Can they play golf?"

Jack Kelly—Linkman

FOR years this corner of our bustling city has held the world's championship as a rowing center. The scullers were headed by Jack Kelly, the greatest oarsman that ever sat in a boat.

An Association Formed

THIS is the third year that the Falls of Schuylkill has held its own tournament, limited entirely to those who were born there or are now living in that neighborhood.

The Big Day

IT ISN'T only the golf enthusiasts of the Falls who are looking forward with interest to August 21. Every one in the vicinity from little tots in pinafores to old graybeards are keenly cognizant of what this affair means.

ROSENBERG NEW CHAMP

Defeats Phil Krug for Johnny Wilson's Middleweight Crown New York, Aug. 15.—Dave Rosenberg, Brooklyn middleweight, hammered his way to victory over Phil Krug, of Harrison, N. J., last night in their fifteen-round bout before a crowd of about 12,000 at the New York Velodrome.

Scrap About Scrapper

Paquito Villa, bantam champion of Manila, is the best welterweight prospect in Philadelphia. He is scheduled to fight Eddie White at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, tonight.

Scrap About Scrapper

Paquito Villa, bantam champion of Manila, is the best welterweight prospect in Philadelphia. He is scheduled to fight Eddie White at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, tonight.

WINTERS BREAKS PIRATE HOODOO

Former Giant Holds Bucs to Seven Hits and Gives Phils Only Win of Season

CUBS AGAIN BUMP CARDS

AFTER thirteen reverses in succession the Phillies finally captured a game from Pittsburgh. Not once this season have Wilhelm's nets been able to write down a triumph against the peppy Pirates.

Rain that fell before and shortly after noon forced Mack and Speaker to call off the best game of the season.

LOGAN BOWS TO SMITH

Store Boys Take Lead in Series Two Games to One The Marshall E. Smith baseball team played Logan A. last night at Eighteenth and Rockland streets and the store won again, this time by the score of 7 to 0.

BRANDT BEATS NEWCOMB

Charley Sykes Eliminated by Bill Evans in Newspaper Golf Play The second round of the tilt for the Mastbaum Cup figured on the program at the Aronimink links yesterday.

SOCCER TEAMS PREPARE

Allied League Will Meet to Organize Circuits Tomorrow Night The half dozen division connected with the Allied Soccer League will gather tomorrow night at the Light House Boys' Club, Howard and Somerset streets, to receive applications for admittance this season.

UNDINE'S STAR SCULLER

George Allison, Schuylkill Navy veteran, who has rowed in more than 130 races during his career, which spans the last fourteen years

IT'S EASY TILL YOU TRY

Mother Directs Training of George Allison, Undine Star

Supervises Diet and Sets Limit of Daily Workouts for Famous Schuylkill Navy Oarsman—Has Rowed in More Than 130 Races

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK

"GEORGE, don't you touch that oarsman, a good sportsman and a game competitor."

Although Allison has been pulling a scull along the Schuylkill for some thirteen years, he is no tottering old man, athletically speaking.

Seulling with Jack Blessing, he captured the senior 150-pound double and finished second to Gilmore and Hapgood in the senior doubles.

Even aside from the nationals, Allison has been very successful this season. In the American Henley he won the senior doubles with Blessing and in so doing secured a fourteen-year-old record for the course.

ALLISON is one of the most popular athletes along Boathouse Row. Quiet, unassuming and modest, he is looked upon as an ideal type of oarsman and sportsman.

PITCH QUITS FOR CUP

Merchantville Defeats Pitman, 908 to 825, for Metzger Trophy Merchantville Quilt Club scored a victory over Pitman in their annual match at Pitman. The score was: Merchantville, 908; Pitman, 825.

DUNDEE AND FRUSH IN N. Y. 'TITLE' GO

Featherweight Stars Meet Tonight in Eyes of Commish

NEW YORKER IS FAVORITE

By LOUIS H. JAFFE A CHAMPIONSHIP match is scheduled at Ebbets Field, in Brooklyn, tonight. It is for the "world's featherweight title of New York State."

Dundee is picked by the dopsters to win. On form the New Yorker should, but it won't be easy sailing for the Scotch Wop.

That was several weeks ago and Willie Jackson was selected to assist in the American introduction of Marks. Whit Sid did to the man who once knocked out Johnny Dundee here in a round new to history.

There are a brace of Earls who are battling successfully with Nature's weapons these days. They are Earl France and Earl Baird, both Western wallpapers, who have been holding their own against Eastern rivals.

FRANCE is a lightweight and Baird is a featherweight, each representing the same colors—those of Sam Wallace, whose reputation as a manager dates back to the days when he handled the reigns of his brother, Leach Cross.

Table with columns for League, Name, and Record. Includes American League and National League data.

How Does It Strike You?

Cravath's Career By THE OBSERVER

GAVVY CRAVATH has played his last game in organized baseball. "Old Wooden Shoes" has come to the end of the trail as an athlete.

THE Phillies won yesterday and broke the Pittsburgh jinx that has been running riot since the season started.

Davis Cup Test One for Philadelphians

THE Davis Cup final round, which will be staged between Australia and Spain at the Germantown Cricket Club Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is a test for Philadelphia as well as the foreigners.

THE strategical move of the Finnish-Americans in starting Ilmarin Prim first in the sixty-mile relay marathon failed.

OLD JOHN BARLETCORN has scored more knockouts than any fighter that ever stepped into the ring.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.

THE man who wins it will be the king-pin of the Falls. He'll be able to strut into the "Gunboat" any old time at all, and get as much recognition as General Pershing would from a roomful of buck privates.