

THESE CLEARED THE WAY. New Jersey State Policemen Woege (in sidecar) and Simmons

STARTED THE RACE. Mayor Frank S. Van Hart, of Camden, pulls the "wicket" trigger

JUST AS THE PISTOL "TALKED." These long-distance runners were started from the Pennsylvania Railroad plaza, at the Camden terminal, to run the first lap of the relay marathon, which ended at Belmar, a distance of 65-10 miles

DIRECTOR CORTELYOU "subbed" for Mayor Moore during formal start at City Hall

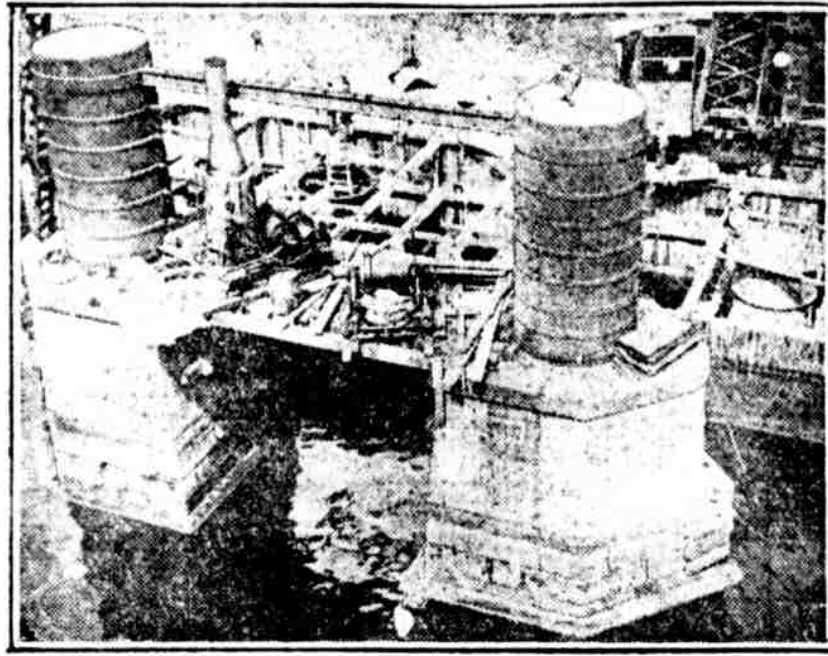

THE LAST RUNNER OF MEADOWBROOK TEAM, Andrew Hisler (right). He was welcomed to Atlantic City by Mayor Bader (left) and Samuel Dallas, A. A. U. head

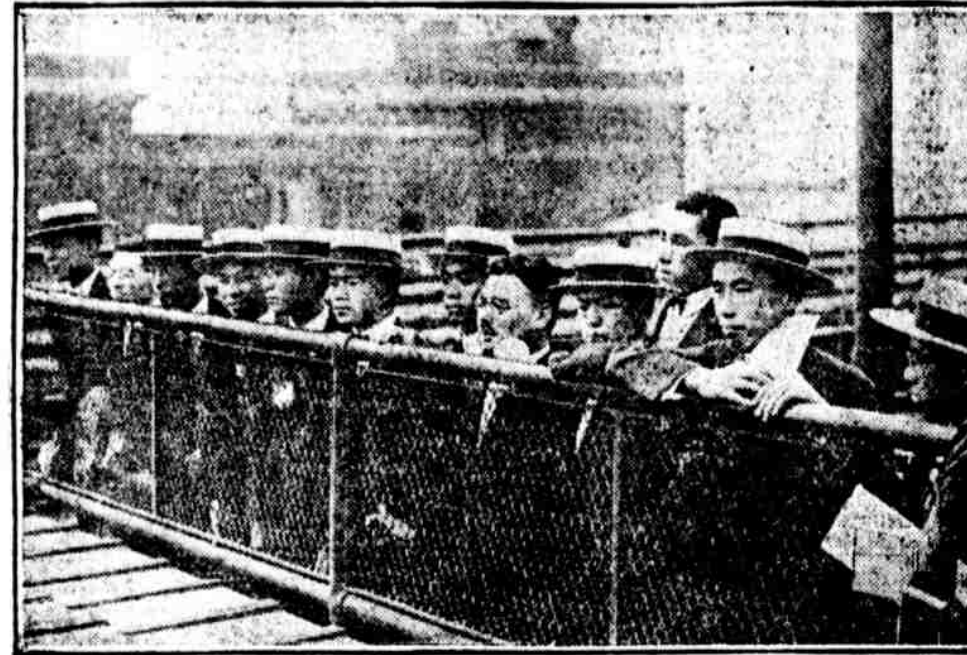

DID THEIR BIT IN HANDLING THE PHILADELPHIA TO ATLANTIC CITY RELAY MARATHON RACE, WHICH WAS RUN OVER NEW JERSEY PIKES YESTERDAY

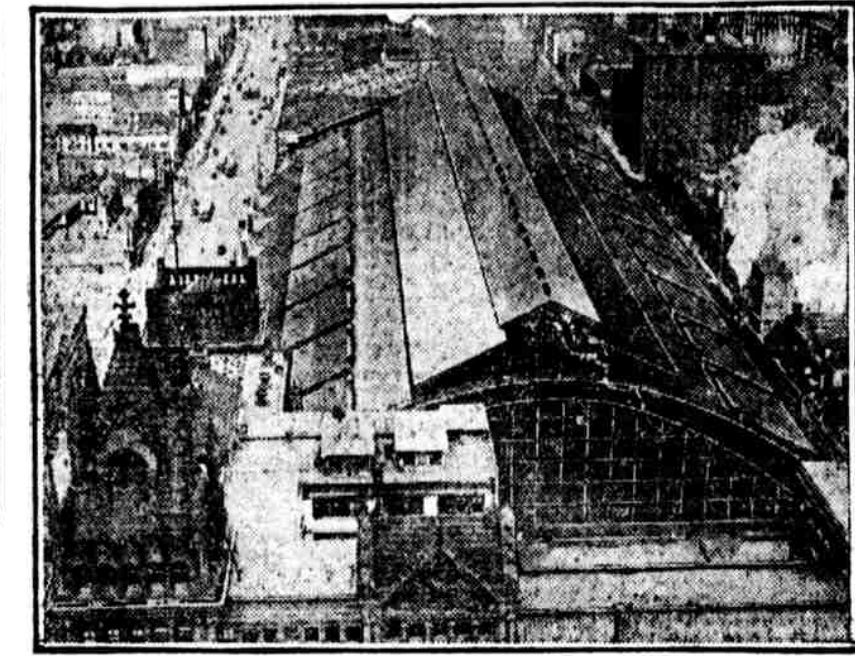

ON THE BEACH AT SOUTHAMPTON, LONG ISLAND. Introducing Angier B. Duke

LAST OF THE OLD SOUTH STREET BRIDGE. Workmen will soon get these two pillars out of the Schuylkill. In the background is one of the caissons of the new bridge

GIVING PHILADELPHIA "THE ONCE OVER." A dozen Japanese business men are in town as they journey to represent their country at the Brazilian Centennial

AN INTERESTING VIEW of the Pennsylvania Railroad trainshed at Broad Street Station taken from the clockroom in City Hall tower. A lot of Market street can be seen

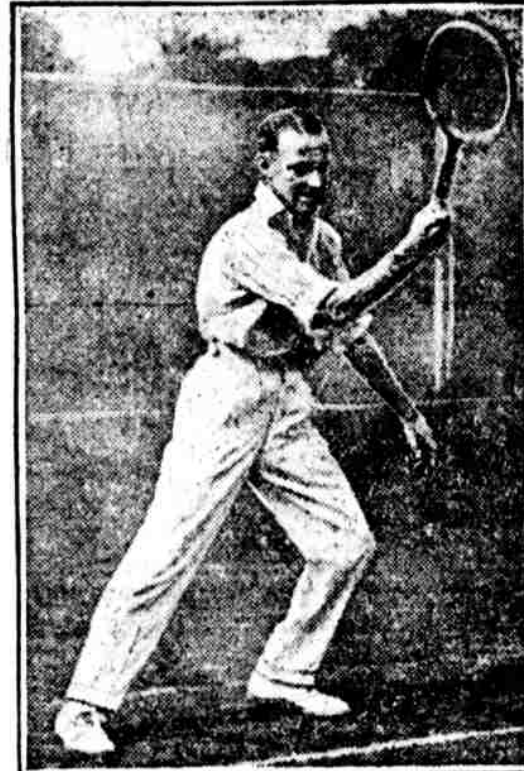

WINNER of last year's beauty title at Atlantic City, Miss Margaret Gorman, hopes to retain it

SOME PET. William, the fourteen-year-old son of Senator Stanley, and his duck, "Daddy." Young Stanley won Washington playground prize for trained pets

A "BUREAU OF INFORMATION." That's just what Park Guard Christopher Sheridan, of Rittenhouse Square, has to be. Oh, the questions!

PUTS AUSTRALIA IN DAVIS CUP FINALS. Pat O'Hara Wood won over Andre Gobert, of France, three sets to one at Longwood, Mass.

VISCOUNTESS NORTHCLIFFE, widow of England's famous publisher. Before her marriage she was Mary Elizabeth Milner

THESE BROTHERS PLAY SNAPPY TENNIS. Howard Kinsey (left) and Robert Kinsey, of California, defeated Vincent Richards and Francis Hunter in tournament at Southampton, L. I.

THERE GOES THE KEY OF WILDWOOD. Mayor Smith is handing it to Monarch John Lipsey, of Koran Grotto, Philadelphia, during Grotto's outing

MISS SARA WILLIAMS, champion swimmer of Washington's smart set

THEY'VE GOT A HUSKY LIFE-SAVING CREW AT WILDWOOD. In the group that is hauling out the boat are Crafton Unice, Captain Edward Fox, R. P. Walker, Ray Carson, Harry Hippie, Edward Young

L. E. SHEPPARD, W. S. STONE, D. B. ROBERTSON, W. M. DOAKE, conductors, engineers, firemen, trainmen BROTHERHOOD CHIEFS IN WASHINGTON. They were called to conference with striking railroad shopmen. Doake is representing W. G. Lee, who is ill

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE SOUTHEAST CORNER OF EIGHTEENTH AND WALNUT STREETS as it looked the morning after the blizzard of February 14, 1899. George B. Fillebrown, 5342 Baltimore avenue, is the contributor. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

THE QUEEN OF THE PACING TURF—Margaret Dillon (1:59 1/2) is shown here leaving her private car for the Belmont track at Narberth, where the Grand Circuit races start today

WANT TO BUY A DOG? Miss Joan Whitney was selling puppies at Southampton (L. I.) street fair

GREAT TO MEET A PAL FROM HOME. Captain Jose Alonso (left), of the Spanish Davis Cup tennis team, chats with Emilio de Motto, Spanish Consul in this city

LOOK at the morning mail held by Thomas B. Delker, secretary of the Lovers' Co-operative Union at Hammonton

A JACKDAW TRAINER. When not looking after postoffice duties at Purley, England, "Mr. Postmaster" trains wild birds

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER H. R. MANLEY (left) and George Roberts, his private secretary, are among the very busy folk in the Federal Building