TO FORM OWN FIRE COMPANY

Piqued Fire Laddies Put "Don't Handle" Sign on Their Engine

The phoenix which rose from the ashes will be overshadowed in fame by the women's fire company which will arise from the smoke of battle now bethe women's fire company which will arise from the smoke of battle now being waged in Mount Ephraim, N. J.

By practical deeds the fire lassies of Ephraim have disproved the claims of the firemen who contend that the gentler sex is unfitted for such arduous work.

Ever since Mrs. Susanna Beetle drove the engine to the burning home of Richard Cheathim and saved it with the aid of other firewomen, the community has been singing paens of praise about them, And today Mrs. Beetle was asked to organize a woman's fire department.

WOR Of Mrs. Beetle.

But some of the officers of the United But some of the officers of the United For Company, which is a private corporation, declare that what they did was proper official action. It seems that according to Section 3. Article 2. This plea for last night's action found little favor. Mrs. Beetle did not give her consent to starting a company, but is considering it. She made it plain it will not be the one of United Company.

The offer came while Mount Ephraim was in the midst of a turmoil. It was said, "and put it in a glass case. We'll caused by the action of the United Fire Company. Its members have been feeling the latter of the latter o feeling the lash of criticism since the women licked the fire in question. So in this state of mind they assembled in the firehouse last night, and during a somewhat boisterous meeting adopted a resolution setting forth that in the future no one but a member of the fire company can take out the apparatus unless they get permission from Chical John Ollet, or his assistant. After doing this bit of work the fire-men went forth with heads high and chests protruded—but all pride is scheduled for a fall. And so it came when more than twoscore of Mount Ephraimites urged Mrs. Beetle to start

Advertising Service Man

A position as an advertising service man is open with a large Philadelphia organization.

The man we need must be original in "copy" and illustrative ideas and a forceful, quick writer. He should have a knowledge of type faces, experience in ordering half-tone and line cuts, and the ability to make distinctive layouts quickly. His work will be done largely for local stores—large and small with occasional preparation of newspaper advertising "copy" for national advertisers. He must be able to grasp the selling points of a proposition with one telling.
