> Spring City-Royersford to Play the South Phils-Baltimore Black Sox at Shanahan

LANSDALE VS. STRAWBRIDGE

A busy mid-week list of independent games is on the twilight list for the local fans this evening. One of the contests brings together the South Philly Hebrews and Ardmore at Thirteenth and Johnson streets.

The Sphas will have their strongest line-up in the game, and the Main Lineary after research.

line-up in the game, and the Main Lincers are after revenge, as they were nosed out by Eddie Gottlieb's boys on Monday in a close contest at Ardmore. "Epp" Michell will likely twirl for Ardmore, while "Chickie" Passon will toil for the Sphas.

The South Phils are also at home at Broad and Bigler streets, with Spring City-Royersford, which is the Ambler team, of the Montgomery County League. Many local stars of note are in the visitors' line-up and should make.

in the visitors' line-up and should make the downtowners hustle.

In the section across the Schuylkill several games of importance are listed for the fans. James Bonner, who guides the destinies of Shanahan, has made arrangements with the Baltimore Black Sox to battle his athletes.

The churchmen had a winning streak of seven straight up to last week, when it was shattered, and they have dropped several contests since. Bonner is out to have his line-up all set for the big series and wants to take the number of the Baltimore invaders.

Strawbridge & Clethier will face the hardest kind of a proposition when it stacks up against Lansdale at Sixty-second and Walnut streets. Lans-dale is undoubtedly one of the best teams in this section, and Mellinger or Durbin will be on the hill against Mc-Millan or Johnson. Dobson at Stenton

J. & J. Dobson, one of the competitors in the northern section of the P. B. A., meets Stenton, its rival for championship honors. Stenton visited the Falls of Schuylkill last week GAN IS BLANKED

Independent Gossip

The South Phils handed Stonehurst a neat trimming at Broad and Bigler streets, score 13 to 1. Charlie Glock started on the hill for the West Philadelphians and after being treated rather shabbily gave way to Tom Friday. All told the downtowners amassed a total of fifteen safeties. The hitting of Spalding, with three hits, and the fielding of Lai and Dykes featured for the South Phils. Dykes played second base in place of Jimmy Sharpe, who has gone to Mount Holly. Relieher was back on the hill after an absence of Jimmy Sharpe.

The North Phillies handed Bridesburg a setback at Richmond and Orthodox streets. score 2 to 6. Costello was on the hill for the home team against Beloff, and the latter held Bill Whitman's sluggers to three hits. half of which were secured by Hanford. The North Phils made their runs in the second. Sandrow filed out. Carter singled. Mauger followed suit and Carter took third. Mauger then raced to second on a passed ball. Maurer singled, sooring Carter and Maurer with the runs that won the game. Leslie. In right field, made two of the most sensational catches ever seen in Bridesburg off the bat of Sandrow.

The Fleisher Yarners again turned Shanshan back at Twenty-sixth and Reed streets, 11 to 2. Curry started on the hill for the West Philadelphians, but retired in favor of Devine in the fifth. Fleisher had sixteen hits, while Bill Grieshaber yielded but five. Lefty Nolan, with a single and two homers;

St. Barnabas took kensington congrega-tional into camp at Sixty-fifth and Elmwood avenue, 7 to 1. Pot Elliott's hitting was a feature, the West Philly High lad having three singles and a double. It was the sec-ond straight win of the Skints by the scores of 7 to 1, Colonial ice fream having beat beaten by the same figures the night before.
