

NORTHCLIFFE RITES HELD IN THE ABBEY

Some of England's Greatest Men Among Mourners at Westminster

BURIAL IN OLD CHURCHYARD

London, Aug. 17.—Funeral services for Viscount Northcliffe were held at noon today in Westminster Abbey. Northcliffe has the last tribute to any Englishman whose position was wholly personal and unofficial gathered such an assembly.

The dean of Westminster expressed the public wish when he asked Lady Northcliffe to permit the rites to be celebrated in the abbey. The great company of eminent people gathered within the famous edifice, as well as the crowds of humbler ones in the streets outside, gave testimony of this. The service was arranged by Canon Carnegie. The opening sentences of the burial service, "I am the resurrection and the life," were sung in procession, followed by the Psalm, "Lord, thou hast been our refuge." The text was from Corinthians, xv. 51. "Behold, I show you a mystery. Then, following two hymns, the service was concluded with a sixteenth century prayer. The Dead March from "St. Paul" was played, and as the procession left the abbey, Chopin's Funeral March, The funeral procession wound its way to old St. Marylebone Cemetery in Finchley, a northwestern suburb of London.

Kipling Among the Mourners

Among the mourners were the widow, Viscount Northcliffe, aged twelve, and his six brothers, namely, Viscount Rothermere, Cecil B. Harmsworth, Sir Robert Lister Harmsworth and Hildebrand Aubrey, St. John and Vyvyan George Harmsworth, other near relations and members of the household staff were present. Diplomats attending besides George Harvey, American Ambassador, included the French Ambassador, the Serbian Minister, the Rumanian Charge d'Affaires, Colonial Secretary Winston Spencer Churchill and P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner; Sir Joseph Cook, Australian Commissioner; Premier Squires, of Newfoundland, and other prominent colonials. Others present were Sir John Knill, acting Lord Mayor of London, the director of the Times and the allied Northcliffe publications and representatives of all the London newspapers, news organizations, printing trades and distributing agencies, prominent among whom were Viscount Cowdray, Viscount Burnham, Lord Waring, Baron Mountagu of Beulah, Baron Stuart of Wortley, Sir Thomas Lipton and Richard Kipling.

Several hours before the funeral throngs of people, including many Americans, gathered along the streets leading to the late publisher's residence in Carlton Gardens. Throughout the morning there was a steady stream of distinguished visitors and relatives of the family. Floral offerings from all over the world were so numerous that the rooms of the Northcliffe home resembled a huge flower garden. There were many wreaths from representatives of American newspapers, business organizations and friends of the deceased.

Flowers From Employes

Scores of floral tokens came from the staffs of the various publications with which Lord Northcliffe was identified. Many of these were inscribed simply "to our chief." One of them was a huge sprig of roses from the night staff of the Daily Mail. Another was a mass of flowers in the form of a closed book from the day staff, bearing the lines from Longfellow's "Psalm of Life," beginning "Lives of great men all remind us."

Most conspicuous of all the floral offerings, perhaps, was a magnificent broken column of white flowers from the directors of the Associated Newspapers. Ambassador Harvey interrupted his vacation in Scotland to be present. He was accompanied by Consul General Robert P. Sanner and Post Wiegler, counselor to the American Embassy. Lady Northcliffe, who has shown splendid fortitude in the face of her great loss, has been deeply comforted by the constant stream of messages of condolence from the United States and Canada. She asked the Associated Press today to convey her profound appreciation of these expressions of thoughtfulness and generosity.

WOMAN JUSTICE DEFENDS SENDING RUNNER TO JAIL

Declares Atlantic City Athlete Attacked State Trooper

Atlantic City, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Gertrude Peoples, of Aberdeen, Justice of the Peace, defends her action in committing to jail Andrew McElroy, Atlantic City High School football athlete, who was arrested by State police during the relay race Monday. McElroy was running the last lap when stopped on the boulevard near Aberdeen. He was charged with resisting an officer and disorderly conduct. The runner's brother, J. T. McElroy, and William Collier were also arrested. Corporals Hollsworth and Campbell made the arrests.

"The policeman's head was badly cut and bleeding, and his clothing torn. He had been struck with a rock. I therefore committed the defendant, accused of resisting arrest and disorderly conduct, to jail for three days. I think I was justified," said Mrs. Peoples.

"The runner and the others with him

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 242 Moving the Coins
Set eight coins in a row so that they alternate—heads and tails, as shown in figure 1. The problem is to move the coins two at a time to other positions in the row, so that in four moves all the heads and tails will be together as shown in figure 2. In moving the coins two may be moved side by side each time. The proper moves are as follows: Move 3 and 4 to 9 and 10. Move 5 and 6 to 2 and 3. Move 8 and 9 to 5 and 6.

appeared to be unharmed, but Corporal Hollsworth was bleeding from a wound in his head and his clothing was torn. Before hearing the testimony, I took him into the kitchen and washed some of the blood from his head and bound it up.

"The report that McElroy, or any of those with him, were struck or in any way mistreated in my presence is absolutely untrue."

Testimony showed that McElroy refused to run to one side of the road when requested, used abusive language and pushed Hollsworth away, according to the magistrate. The brother then attacked the officer with a stone and when he fell all three pounced upon him.

The release of McElroy from the May's Landing jail was obtained on a writ of habeas corpus obtained from Judge William H. Smathers. Mayor Bader was indignant at the admission of McElroy, and said yesterday he "intended to get to the bottom of the matter."

McElroy claims that he was beaten with a blackjack while handcuffed.

P. R. R. Seeks Long Leases

Washington, Aug. 17.—Approval was asked from the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the Pennsylvania Railroad for a series of 999-year leases which the system intends to take upon a number of subsidiary corporations now being operated as a part of its main line. All the leased properties are owned and controlled by the Pennsylvania, but the lease arrangement would facilitate their handling, the application explained.

We're Going to Be in Business Next Winter

That's why we recommend the Convector NOW!

We're going to install hundreds of Convectors this Summer—hundreds of these better heating systems that are bringing a new standard of health and comfort into homes all over America.

We want to install YOUR heating system—a Convector in your home—RIGHT NOW—for three good reasons.

- (1) You'll be sure to have it ready for the first chill Fall day. (If it's a Convector, you can use it on the first chill day of Fall, for the Convector is more quickly and easily regulated to temperature change than any other heating system.) We'll be busy this Fall—we don't want you to suffer delay!
- (2) Our EASY PAYMENT PLAN and the Convector's moderate price make it a simple matter to have the Convector installed NOW.
- (3) We want it to be a Convector—because it is accompanied by a WRITTEN GUARANTEE of the L. J. Mueller Furnace Company to give satisfaction. We are always glad to give service to our customers who need service—but WE WOULD RATHER INSTALL A SYSTEM THAT ISN'T GOING TO REQUIRE ANY SERVICE.

The Mueller Convector saves 1-3 to 1-2 on fuel bills; ventilates all your home, day and night, with healthful, circulating, moistened air. No smoke, gas, dust or ashes—no heating apparatus of any kind in your living rooms. Installed in less than one day—warms every room to even temperature in houses of four to eighteen rooms; WRITTEN GUARANTEE with every installation.

Let us show you why Convector users are our greatest advertisement. LET US TELL YOU MORE ABOUT THE CONVECTOR. SEND THE COUPON—NOW.
