

FIFTY TOURISTS from Baltimore, Harrisburg and Philadelphia were slightly injured when a three-car electric train en route to Niagara Falls was derailed near Buffalo. State and Federal officials are conducting an investigation.

THE WINNING BALLOON. American Balloon No. 4, piloted by Major Westover in the international race for the Gordon-Bennett Cup at Geneva.

MRS. IVY GIBERSON and her attorney, Wm. H. Jeffrey, in Tom's River (N. J.) jail, where Mrs. Giberson is held, accused of killing her husband, Wm. Giberson, at Lakhurst, N. J.

ONE WAY TO SAVE A LIFE. Eleanor Eberle plays the "victim" as the Chicago coast guards demonstrate the use of a breeches buoy.

THRILLS FOR THE GALLERY! Skirmish near the grandstand in the polo game between Meadowbrook and Army teams at Narragansett Pier, R. I. The match for the Junior Polo Cup was won by the Army team.

EVELYN GREENE, an American movie actress, returns from Europe, where she has been doing motion picture work.

MISS RUTH ANDRAE has been elected as "Queen" of Brighton Beach bathing beauties.

GOING UP THE NESHAMINY CREEK. This large canoe is part of the equipment of Camp Brooke, located at Parkland and conducted by Philadelphia Elks. Two hundred Philadelphia boys are in the camp.

SOME EYES! Helene Fisher, a Paris entry in contest of largest eyes in France.

GLADYS DEACON, a Washington swimmer, has much on her shoulder. The kiddie at the left is holding a kitten, while the other child clings to a puppy.

SEÑOR DIAZ, rich Brazilian, stars in pictures, made by his own movie concern.

CAPITAL SWIMMER. She is Miss Eleanor Rowell, of Washington.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYE FOR 57 YEARS. President Lincoln gave W. H. H. Smith his first job in Navy Dept.

THEY HAVE WOMEN LETTER CARRIERS at Syracuse, N. Y. Miss Mary Doyle on her afternoon trip.

A WONDERFUL DIVER. Teddy Ulrich, of the Abington Y. M. C. A., a group leader at Dwight Camp, doing a swan dive in the pool of the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. outing camp at Downingtown.

MISS ELIZABETH McCARTER was snapped during Davis Cup tennis at Manheim.

JOHN GORECKI, husband of New York dancer, will ask court to set aside ruling which gave Martin, aged ten, to his wife.

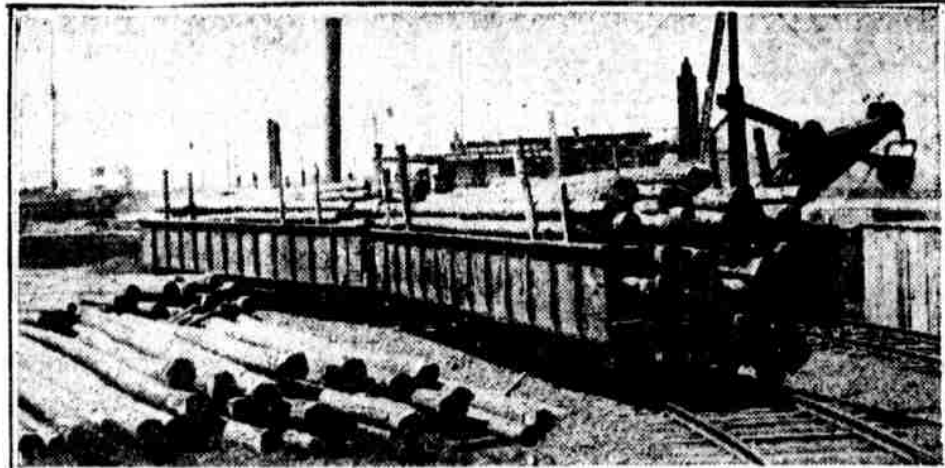

FOND OF TENNIS. Miss Josephine Rogers witnessed Spain-Anzac contests.

OFF TO EUROPE. Mrs. Harrington Mann, of New York, on the S. S. Bath.

RAG KITTENS THEIR MASCOTS. Mrs. R. H. Moore (left), of Chelsea and Mrs. Fred Stuhlman, of Philadelphia, on the beach at Chelsea.

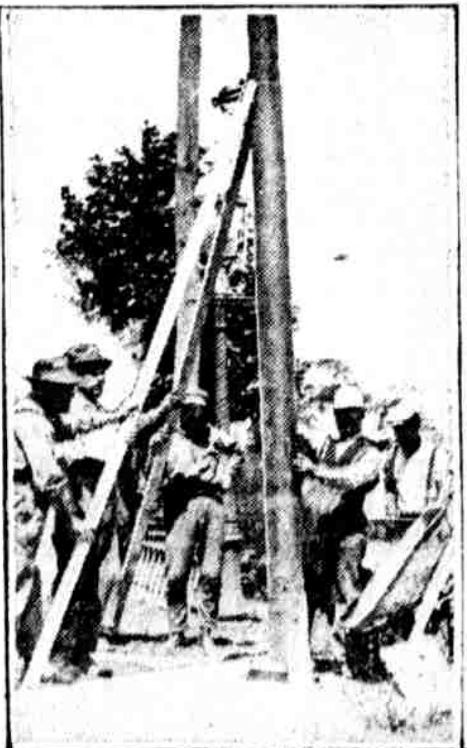

TIMBER FOR PILING IS ARRIVING BY RAIL AND WATER AT KAIGHN'S POINT, CAMDEN. Soon work will be started on the building of the mammoth Philadelphia and Reading Terminal. Steam shovel in the background is clearing the way. The man in the boat is getting the piling together.

FREIGHT JUMPERS. Out beyond Chicago a moving-picture company was staging a chase over a freight train for a feature picture.

IF YOU WANT TO TURN, FOLLOW THE ARROW. Glimpse of traffic lines at intersection of Broad and Somerset sts. Motorists must keep to the right of chalk lines.

SETTING STEEL POLES. These workmen were found along the new trolley line that will connect Frankford and Bustleton.

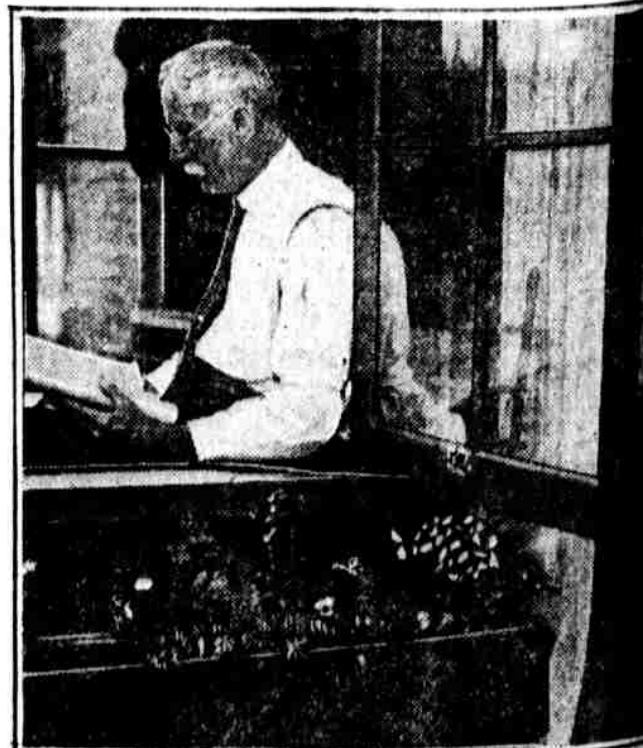

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

DO YOU REMEMBER THE HARRAH MANSION? It stood at the corner of Broad and Poplar streets, where the Metropolitan Opera House is now located. Send your old Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

BASEBALL GLOVE CARROT. Talk about exclusive shapes, take a peep at this. It was grown at Peterborough, England.

WATCHMAN AND HIS WINDOW GARDEN. John F. watchman at the Edward G. Budd Co.'s plant, at Twenty-second street and Hunting Park ave., knows flower growing.