

Semi-Pro Teams Will Be Busy This Evening

LANSDALE TO MEET STONEHURST AGAIN

Montgomery County League Champions Will Try to Beat Ryan's Nine Once More
SPHAS PLAY STRAWBRIDGE

LESLIE'S TWIRLING DEFEATS WILDWOOD

Allows Only One Hit and Billy Whitman's Bridesburg Team Wins Easily
SHANAHAN FINALLY LOSES

There's nine put itself in the limelight by holding Chapple Johnson's Royal Stars to a 6-to-7 score. The colored team grabbed off an early lead, but consistent playing by the home team enabled them to come within a run of tying the score. The game was staged at Second and Clearfield streets before a large crowd.
After the Old York Road Club had tallied five runs in the first inning, Leslie's twirlers, who were out for their game with the Weston Club they were stopped for the remaining eight innings. The visitors therefore got busy and by pushing over four runs in the ninth inning got an even break with the Old York Road Club. Gallagher, the hurler for Old York Road, made three hits and led the attack of the home team.

I. O. O. F. WINS, 8 TO 5

Beats Aldon A. In Speedy Semi-Pro Baseball Game
The Good Samaritan I. O. O. F. No. 89 won a fast semi-pro baseball game from the Aldon A. last evening by an 8 to 5 count. McCarty twirled a good game for the winning team, while Larsen and Austin were the other stars.

Will fight busy will have plenty to keep them busy this evening, for semi-pro games are scheduled in every section of the city.
Three big contests will be the features on the west side of the Schuylkill. And all of these games will be close and there will be plenty of action.
Stonehurst makes a flying trip to Lansdale to meet the Montgomery County champion in a return game. Nace Ryan's toppers entertained the Lansdale crew last Monday night, when the former's new field was opened at Forty-eighth and Walnut streets. Lansdale won, so Stonehurst is out for revenge.

Alex Leslie was in great form at Richmond and Orndorff streets and the Wildwood A. A. got only one hit, while Bridesburg was winning a semi-pro baseball game last night, 7 to 2.
The twilight hornets were out in droves and were treated to a game marked by wonderful twirling—on the part of Leslie. Besides allowing only one hit, he fanned ten batters—made two bingles, which accounted for four runs and issued three passes.

Cardinals Get Fred Toney

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 23.—Fred Toney, former New York twirler, whom the St. Louis Cardinals obtained by waiver from Boston a week ago, will not report to the Cardinals until next season, according to manager of the Cardinals, announced here yesterday.
Toney, who pitched for the Cardinals, was conferred with the pitcher.

Forty-eighth Ward on Top

Forty-eighth ward made its hit count yesterday, defeating Greenwood A. A. by a score of 11 to 2.

Strawbridge & Clothier meets the Sphas for the first time in three years on the home field, at Sixty-third and Walnut streets. It will mark the second game of the day for the Hebrews, who meet the Bacharach Giants over in Camden in the afternoon.
Colonial Ice Cream will be the guest of McCarty's Post American Legion, on the old Harry Mackey Club grounds. Forty-ninth and Spruce streets. The Colonials have been setting a rapid pace lately and will be out to beat the service stars.

After winning seven straight games, Shanahan was tossed out by 3 & 3 Dobson at Forty-eighth and Brown streets, 5 to 4.
St. Barnabas ran up its winning stride and hand by stopping the Archbishop Ryan Catholic Association at Sixty-fifth street and Elmwood avenue, 1 to 0.
The South Phils at the North Phils battled to a 5-5 tie at Broad and Bigler streets. Even with "Jeff" Tesreau, the former New York Giant, on the hill the home club was unable to wallop its way to victory.
Howard Lohr, the home-run artist, failed to make a home run, but "Leather" Sykes came through with a circuit smash, so the 5000 fans on hand were not disappointed.

Philippine Scores Knockout

New York, Aug. 23.—Filipino Flows, Philippine lightweight, knocked out Eddie Chiford, of Brooklyn, in the fourth round of a six-round match at Ebbets Field last night.
Frankie Owens, of New York, won the judges' decision over Paacho Villa, of the Philippine Islands, who weighed 115 and 116 lbs. Eddie Brady, New York featherweight, was given the judges' decision over Babe Herman, of California.

Eddie Bennis Germantown toppers were too fast for the Camden Black Sox, at Chelton and Magnolia avenues, and won with ease, 17 to 2. It was a farce from start to finish, and the colored boys from Jersey never had a chance.
A large crowd was on hand to see Stonehurst get back into a winning stride and hand a pretty lacing to Dick Smith's Philadelphia Terminal nine. After seven innings of playing, the Stonehurst was found to be a winner by a 9-to-5 count.
Fleisher evaded up their two-game series with Stenton last night. The Yarners, with Grieshaber on the hill, scored a 5-to-2 victory at Twenty-sixth and Reed streets. Manager Powell essayed the task of pitching the Germantowners to their second straight win, but the Fleisher batters were in fine trim and pounded him for ten hits. Both teams have been going along at a nice clip lately and the game should be interesting.

Richmond Giants Here

The Richmond Giants, the famous colored team from Virginia, is here again. The Giants will stack up against Bill Rudolph's South Phils at Broad and Cedar streets and Chelton avenue. Bedford isn't going so strong at the present time, and the colored lads have high hopes of winning.
Strawbridge takes on Stenton at Philadelphia and Musgrave streets. Billy Whitman's crew hasn't been feeling right since the North Phils defeated it, 18 to 5, a few nights back, and is anxious to compile a record of winning streak. Stenton, though, doesn't want to be the stepping stone for any other club's success, so will put up a fight.
Woodford Post American Legion, will leave the home lot to oppose Puritan at Second and Clearfield streets. Both teams have been going along at a nice clip lately and the game should be interesting.

The Philadelphia Royal Stars, one of the crack colored aggregations among the independents, is scheduled to give battle to Bedford, on the latter's grounds, and game of the day for the Hebrews, who meet the Bacharach Giants over in Camden in the afternoon.
Colonial Ice Cream will be the guest of McCarty's Post American Legion, on the old Harry Mackey Club grounds. Forty-ninth and Spruce streets. The Colonials have been setting a rapid pace lately and will be out to beat the service stars.

HARRISBURG MOTIVE POWER BATTLES PHILA. TERMINAL

Meet in Elimination Game for Eastern Section Title This Afternoon
The Harrisburg Motive Power will pay a visit to Forty-fourth street and Parkside avenue this afternoon at 3 o'clock to meet the Philadelphia Terminal in an elimination game for the Eastern region baseball championship of the Pennsylvania system. After the Eastern region championship is decided, the winner will play the winner of the Western region title for the W. W. Atterbury Cup, emblematic of the Pennsylvania championship.
The Philadelphia Terminal has eliminated the New Jersey and Southern region titleholders. Harrisburg won the right to meet the locals by beating Williamsport, 9-1, last week.
Jack Brackenridge, former Phils catcher, is leading the Motive Power aggregation against Dick Smith's crew. Phils fans hope to see over for Motive Power, while Brackenridge, former Athletic twirler, will curve them for the locals.
