

HORSE DOWN. The photographer was working on the Market street "L" when he noticed the accident below him. The animal slipped on the Water street pavement near Arch

GETS WEST POINT APPOINTMENT. James Reese Gregg, graduate of the Lewistown High School

LADY MAYOR AND CHAMPION SWIMMER OF HER TOWN. That's the distinction held by Miss Kathleen Dodd at Lewisham, England

CONNECTING FRANKFORD "L" WITH MARKET STREET "L." The work is being speeded up by stone workers, iron workers and carpenters. At the left, F. J. O'Toole, foreman of the carpenters. In the left of the photograph to the right is the switchman's tower, from which the junction switches will be controlled

HIS MORNING SHOWER. One of New York's citizens rides on a careful horse under a shower equipped by the city authorities

SENATOR FRELINGHUYSEN, who is fighting George L. Record for the New Jersey senatorship

INTRODUCING A CHAMPION. Dr. Robert P. Elmer won York round archery championship at Cooperstown, N. Y., by defeating James J. Niles, of Pittsburgh

"QUEEN" OF COLUMBUS. Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, sixteen years old, will represent that city in the Atlantic City pageant

TENNIS OPPONENTS. Georges Carpentier and Madame Carpentier during vacation days at Pourville, France. The third party is Jacqueline

JOHN THORNTON, one of Philadelphia's youthful golf stars. He swings a wicked club

THEY CALL HER "LITTLE SISTER." In the neighborhood of Fiftieth and Chancellor streets she is also called "tennis professional"

GERMANY IS HAVING MUCH SUCCESS IN MOTORLESS AIRPLANES. This is the newest type. The pilot is being aided in the start by a helper

PARADERS. They are Lorraine Grim (left) and Katherine Grim

MARCHING. The marchers carried many banners. This group was all tied up with a rope to which many American flags were fastened

ANNA KRUGER is preparing Sister Emily for long march

"BIG FRANK" LIKES BREAD. Helen Durkin, of Wilkes-Barre, was willing to share her lunch with the elephant. She's passing a slice of bread to the animal at the Zoo

MRS. W. L. BLITHE talks of children's country week in Editorial Page interview

SERVED HIS SENTENCE. Justice Norman S. Dike was found guilty of overwork and ordered to serve six weeks in Europe on vacation. He's back. So is Mrs. Dike

CHARGE OF INFANTRYMEN ACROSS "NO-MAN'S LAND"

CITIZENS ARE GETTING A TASTE OF THE SOLDIERS' LIFE AT CAMP DIX. The camera caught two phases of the activities

A WHIPPET TANK DEMOLISHES ARMY BUILDING

MRS. GEORGE DUNNING, who is active in the movement for cleaning polling places

JOHN H. YOUNG, flour inspector of the Commercial Exchange at Oregon avenue

MRS. HELEN BUCHANAN HITNER will be soloist at Lemon Hill concert tomorrow evening

PARADING ON BROAD STREET IN MAY, 1897. It's part of procession connected with unveiling of Washington Monument at Green street entrance of Fairmount Park. Mrs. George McConnell, of Washingtonville, is contributor

LOOKING WEST. Did you ever get a good look at the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad where they are carried over the Schuylkill? Over at the left is the Market street "L"

LOOKING EAST. A wonderful view of City Hall and the skyline of the central city skyscrapers. In the foreground are the Pennsylvania tracks that lead into Broad Street Station

MUCH BREAD FOR ANIMALS AND BIRDS. We are introducing to you John Geiger, the busy bread baker of the Philadelphia Zoo

BOTH VIEWS WERE MADE FROM THE ROOF OF A BUILDING AT TWENTY-THIRD AND ARCH STREETS