1922 INCOME TAX

Marked Decrease, Compared With Previous Period in Every State, Shown by Report $2,087,946,243 TOTAL PAID

Washington, Aug. 28.—A preliminary report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, signed by C. P. Smith, Acting Commissioner, shows that collections of income and profits taxes in 1921 were $3,228,137,073.78, and in 1922 $2,087,946,243.78, a decrease of $1,140,191,430.00.

The total internal revenue collections from all sources were $3,197,451,083 in 1921 and $1,807,005,978.95 in 1922, a decrease of $1,390,445,104.05. In every State there was a falling off in income and profits tax payments in 1922, as compared with 1921, while the decrease from 1920 collections was extremely small.

The New York State's payments of income and profits taxes for 1922 up to the date were $230,071,070. For 1921 the date were $241,736,708, or $234,445,000 more than in 1922, the percentage of decrease being 8.5. The heaviest percentage of loss in income and profits taxes in 1922 was in South Carolina, with a reduction of 24.2 per cent. In 1921 the collections in that State were $26,032,307, while in 1922 they dropped to $19,608,064. No State paid as much to the Government in income and profits taxes as New Jersey.

New Jersey paid $67,735,036, a decrease of 45 per cent; Delaware $33,400,000, decrease 60 per cent; Maryland $20,856,508, decrease 34 per cent; and Rhode Island $19,099,385, decrease 45 per cent; Pennsylvania $245,764,639, decrease 30 per cent. Taxpayers used paid almost 9 per cent of the internal revenue received. Income and profits taxes accounted for 65 per cent of the total. Excise taxes received $270,759,000. This was an increase of $15,000,000 over the amount collected from that source in 1921.
