Old Father Time Will Come Along—But There Are Still Three Days to Take Full Advantage of the Great August Sale of Furniture!

If in Your Inner Thoughts You Are Thinking of Doing Something

You would not like others to know about, be sure to drop it, and resolve not to do it.

You have to live with yourself, and your bad deeds will be sure to flock around you some time in life's later hours and give you unhappiness.

Let each day add to the crown of good deeds well done.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

August 28, 1922.

Among the Lovely New Gowns Ready for Women

are street, afternoon and dinner toilettes that copy quite faithfully some authentic Paris "creations," and have the added advantage of being much lower-priced.

They express a number of new ideas in fabric and line, for indoors and out. The collection of smart coat-effect dresses for street and afternoon is particularly good.

Prices start at $80.

(First Floor)

Women's First Autumn Tailored Suits Are on Conservative Lines—$37.50 to $45

Simple, practical suits, such as women wear for traveling, shopping, business and general hard service.

Materials are Poiré twills, tweeds, chevots, worsteds and men's suitings, offering altogether a choice of navy blue, black and gray and brown effects.

All are admirably man-tailored, with hand-tailored collars, and all the little details that make for perfection in a simple suit of this kind.

Coats are long and straight, with crepe de chine linings, and small differences in the way of self-strapping, pinch-tucking, etc. The various models, in sizes 34 to 44, are $37.50 to $45.

(First Floor)

Smart Millinery in Silky Black Hatter's Plush

It ought to enjoy some prettier name, for it makes some of the prettiest new hats this season.

The shapes are wonderfully varied and very becoming. One can put such a hat on at once and feel comfortable, saving velvet for later.

Quantities of charming examples are shown in the Gray Salons. They are a perfect millinery finish to either the tailored street gown or the afternoon toilette.

Priced $18 to $30.

(Second Floor)

Knicker Suits Made to Order

(In the London Shop)

Instead of having a habit for riding and separate knickers for golfing, one excellently made knicker suit may be worn for both sports.

Knicker suits, of imported tweeds and homespuns, made to order for $75 and up.

Separate knickers made to order for $28.50 up.

Also, we would be glad to make skirts to match knickers or suits, the price being according to material chosen.

(The Gallery)

New Fall Sports Coats for College and School Use

Young women particularly like one style in a soft all-wool mixed coating, it may be in the plain mixture or have a large check or indistinct stripes.

To accord with the new and fuller fashions, the cut is inclined to flare from the shoulder down, the sleeves widen toward the cuff and are trimmed with three small metal buckles, the narrow belt has one buckle.

For bad weather, the large collar may be turned up high, for such coats are intended for day in and day out wear. They come in pretty tan, gray and blue effects, entirely silk lined at $35 and the sizes are 14 to 20 years.

(Second Floor)

Flying Scarf Ends

Like reddening leaves, are signs of fall.

New wool scarfs have a lovely texture, and are rich in color. Browns, soft blues, dashes of deep orange and grays are shown, sometimes in stripes, or in large plaids.

Prices are $2 to $6.50, and an attractive scarf with pockets is $3.

(Main Floor)

New Spanish Lace Tunics

Recent fashion reports consider lace especially good, and the grace and natural drapery of the tunic falls in with the fashion for flowing line and draped effects.

$12.75 and $14.75.

(West Aisle)

Can You Use a Room-Size Chinese Rug?

Just now we are reducing a number from 15 to 20 per cent; for the reason that large new shipments are coming from Peking.

All the Tropical Suits Are at One Price Now

And it's a mighty low price, which is a good thing for a man to know. No matter what they were marked before

$12.50
Makes Any One Yours

By far the majority are Palm Beach suits in solid colors or fancy effects. With them are a few fancy mohairs and here and there a tropical worsted.

Every suit started the season at a great deal more—not one is reduced less than a third and some savings go up to a half. And the "tailored-in goodness" makes each suit distinctively good for seasons of wear.

There's one here for most any sized man, but the big, husky fellow and the small chap—those who find it hardest to get what they want—will have the biggest choosing.

(Third Floor)

The Stiff Cuff Is the Mark of the Man's Fall Shirt

Stiff cuffs and starched collars to match. It seems that all the new shirts have them, and men everywhere have smiled approval.

A smart outfit, they say, especially the newest to come. It is made of end and end madras in plain tan; a pretty shade, too.

The bosom is pleated, and altogether it is a trim-looking business shirt.

Price $4.

(Main Floor)

It Makes a Man Whistle Ragtime to Hear the New Shoe Prices

The price on the new shoes that are coming for Fall, of course.

Low, surprisingly so, and for a fact the majority of the shoes are low, too. Brogues in the oxford form on a new English oxford seem to lead the fashion.

But getting back to price—$8.40 is a trifle matter when compared with a solidly good pair of shoes, a pair that will wear and wear.

(Main Floor)

At present there is an exceptionally fine collection of diamond bar pins in the new fashions for the coming season. Some are straight, others gracefully tapering, or, again, the ends may be different from the center.

Prices begin as modestly as $160 and gradually mount to $800.

Old Father Time will come along Thursday night and close up this Sale. That will be the end of it and of its opportunities.

But you still have Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, three great days with opportunities at Wanamaker's such as no other store can possibly offer.

The whole great stock—in spite of unexampled selling—you can look at the samples on the floors now and you would hardly realize that there has been any diminution—all of them reduced 10 to 50 per cent.

An Unexpected Special Feature of the Closing Days

It is a collection of very fine bedroom and dining-room suits.

They represent some of the best things coming out of Grand Rapids.

For example, there are good, practical linen handkerchiefs, with plain hemstitched hems, at $1.38, $2.75, $3.85 and $5.50 a dozen.

Ink marking is 36c a dozen extra, or some girls prefer to have the entire name machine-embroidered at $1.25 a dozen extra.

(West Aisle)

A Piano That Was Worth More Than It Cost

It was an old one—so old that some people thought she was foolish to spend $125 of their hard-earned money for it.

But it hadn't been in the house a month before ten-year-old Jane was taking lessons, and revealing an unexpected "touch." And twelve-year-old Tom was thrumming airs, and discovering he had a voice.

And before long "Dad" had hunted up his old flute, and was staying home nights to practice long-forgotten tunes and play with Mary and the children.

You ought to see them now. Jane at the piano, Tom with a mandolin, Dad with his flute, and Mother singing!

Worth $125 to that family? In ways that money cannot measure, it has been worth its price ten times over and more.

(Egyptian Hall, Second Floor)

Don't YOU Want a Piano for $125?

You can get one for even less if you don't delay too long.

We still have some used pianos at $75, $100, $125, $150, $175, $200, $250 and thereabouts.

They have been put in good condition, and the old music is in them yet.

For children's practice, young folks' fun, small schools and chapels, the summer cottage, or wherever the need for music is great and the money to get it limited, any one of these used pianos will answer admirably.

Come see them tomorrow if you can. You can buy them on easy payments.
