Home runs were hit in six rounds. In the ninth the winner's made two hits and their final run.

Darkness Called Halt

The Stonehurst-Terminal fracas was halted in the seventh round by darkness, due to numerous delays and wrangling over the umpire's decisions.

The railroaders were in the running for three innings, but that was all. The score at this juncture was 2-2.

Stonehurst started a batting rally in the third and a trio of runs were pushed across.

The winning team looked great against the railroaders, especially with Dougherty pitching such a clever article of ball.

His one weakness was wildness. He issued four passes and three resulted in the railroaders' tallies. Each time he pitched a ball into the bases before the three outs were completed.

He passed the second man that faced him and then could not keep the sphere away from Shanahan's heavy budgeons.

The result—five hits, which mixed in with an error by Barney Slaughter, and another base on balls meant five runs.

In the second he retired the first two men and then ran into another storm. He did not weather this. After Piez had singled and Peterson's double was out, an unknown, took up the burden and pitched wonderful ball for the next

The granddope regarding home teams was shattered to smithereens in the games played in the northern section of the Philadelphia Baseball Association last night.

Winning in the initial contest away from home gives Bridesburg and Dobson a world of confidence, and as they are in action on their home diamonds this evening, certainly are favorites to get into the finals.

The winners owe the victories largely to the prowess of their respective hurlers. "Broadway" Jones, for Dobson, set the North Phils down with a pair of neatly hit and one run, while "Lefty" Stetly, who was the choice of Billy Whitman, allowed Stenton but three hits and a single run.

Ray Steindler, the losing pitcher for the North Phils, held the weavers to seven safeties, but the Bridesburg clubbers chased Liz Powell off the hill and also bombarded Wilson, getting sixteen hits in all.

Great Running Catches

Several remarkable running catches were injected into the play of the Phils-Dobson clash. Sandrow made a remarkable haul of "Bud" Weiser's drive in the ninth, and with one down in the Phils' half of the eighth, Manger walked, Johnny Len singled to right and then Moyer picked one off Sandrow's bat up against the right-field fence.

The weavers scored their runs in the third. Jones started on the way to win his own game by touching up one of Ray Steindler's choicest shoots for a double. He took third on a wild pitch and scored when Ziddie Trautwein singled to right. Jimmy Sharpe was out, Previous to last night the South Philadelphia Hebrew Association baseball team and the nine representing the Fleisher yarners had met on the diamond on six occasions and the Sphas won four times.

The Thirteenth and Johnson streets representatives continued to show their superiority over their rivals again when they mingled in the first game for the honor of advancing into the sectional finals of the Philadelphia Baseball Association.

The Sphas romped off with a shut-out triumph, the final count being 2 to 0 in favor of the boys piloted by Eddie Gottlieb.

Out of four pitchers warming up, Gottlieb selected Krepps as the most likely looking, and his judgment was verified when Krepps blanked his yarner rivals 2 to 0 and yielded but a single hit.

He had everything, and it was his best work since joining the team. Krepps has only recently returned after a sojourn in the South. He also fanned ten and walked one, while Grieshaber breezed nine and walked four.

The Sphas made their first run in the opening center. Landberg led off with a single. Robe Chambers walked and on Hurman's perfect bunt all hands were safe.

On Label Goldblatt's bunt on a squeeze play, Landberg scored, but Chambers was nicked at the plate.

The Johnson streeters again made the acquaintance of the scoring station in the sixth. Al Mouradian hit safely.

He proceeded to steal second and came home on Kravitz's hard drive to right, which Walker knocked down, but was unable to get his man at first.

Fleisher had men on the bases in a number of innings, but Krepps always arose to the occasion. In the second Molan was safe on Landberg's error. McGeehan sacrificed him to second.

Johnny Scott walked and Krepps tightened up and fanned Dougherty and Berriman.

In the fourth McNeill flied out. Nolan again reached first on Landberg's error. McGeehan was safe on a fielder's choice and Krepps again fanned two when he breezed Scott and Dougherty.

Again in the seventh did the yarners have a chance. McGeehan singled, Scott sacrificed and Dougherty and Berriman fanned.

Where Barnum Went Wrong

FOR twenty years or so we've all been hearing Barnum's classic remark—"The public likes to be fooled."

The public has always enjoyed this biting comment, because it came from America's best loved showman.

But probably many of us had our fingers crossed even as we nodded approval.

The past two years in the tire business has been a pretty good test of Barnum's famous saying.

If the public liked to be fooled, here was its heart's content. "Big Discounts" to the right. "Special Sales" to the left. "Bargains" on every corner.

Certainly no man who kept his eyes and ears open missing seeing the attempt to fool the public by drawing its attention away from the essentials of real value.

Why did car-owners refuse to lower their quality standards—why did more people than ever go to quality tires? Especially U. S. Royal Cords, which they used more and more to measure the market when they wanted a test of value.

In one way of speaking, Royal Cord leadership grew out of the confusing conditions put upon the tire-buyer.

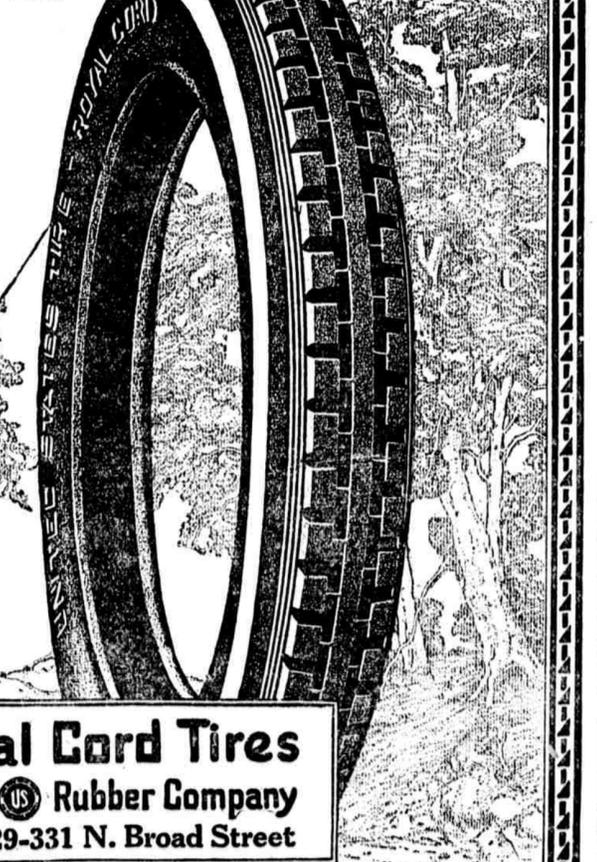

The car-owner, being a practical person, as a rule, did the practical thing.

He bought U. S. Royal Cord quality—and stuck to it.

The legitimate dealer lined up with the U. S. Royal Cord policy—and stuck to it.

The makers of Royal Cord Tires said "Go to a legitimate dealer"—and stuck to it.

Perhaps Barnum intended his remark about the public to be taken with a grain of salt. Note that he always gave his customers a whale of a money's worth.
