Friends' Select School

The Parkway, Cherry and Sixteenth Sts.

Descended from the school officially established in 1689 by the Friends and still under their direct control, it has always stood for the religious element in education.

Aiming to combine the wisdom and experience of the past with the best in modern educational philosophy and ideals, it is both conservative and progressive.

Conveniently located in the heart of Philadelphia, it has on the school grounds a field ample for Hockey, Football or Baseball, as well as play equipment for young children.

The School Year Opens Ninth Mo. (September) 18

Office open for conference. Catalogues on request.

BINGHAM MILITARY SCHOOL
ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA
Sanitation—Safety—Quiet

Bingham is the oldest school for boys in the Southern States. For health and beautiful natural scenery it is probably not equalled by any school in the United States. Our visitors are always impressed with the safety and sanitation of our large groups of one-story brick buildings. Our boys are supplied each day with fresh milk from our own Pasture Dairy Herd. Non-Sectarian, but of pronounced Christian influence. Our pupils are received in the leading colleges on our certificate without examination. Our patrons belong to the smaller BUT higher schools of parents who choose the best for their sons. Northern people will be surprised at the low rate for this type of school.
