WOMAN TO DRAFT PINCHOT'S PLANKS

Mrs. F. A. Frazier Made Head of Republican State Resolutions Committee

CAMPAIGN AIDES ARE PICKED

The membership of the Finance, Executive, Resolutions and Ruses Committees of the Republican State Committee has been announced by W. Harry Baker, State chairman.

Women are well represented on the four committees, which will take active charge of the State campaign.

Mr. Baker announced that Robert E. Glendinning, chairman of the Finance Committee, had called a meeting of that committee for tomorrow at the headquarters of the Republican State Committee, 506 South Broad street.

Mrs. Fernada A. Frazier, of Pittsburgh, was named chairman of the Committee on Resolutions; John S. Fisher, former State Banking Commissioner, chairman of the Executive Committee, and John H. Myers, of Lancaster, chairman of the Committee on Rules.

Appointment of a committee on resolutions was merely a formal observance of the rules for it has been decided the State Committee will promulgate no platform. Gifford Pinchot, nominee for Governor, will make his fight on the platform outlined by him at Allentown Saturday less than the platform of the candidates had been gradually elimited. Appointment of a committee by him at Allentown Saturday last, which was identical with the platform in the primary contest.

OYSTERS TOMORROW

Yep, Season Opens and Oystermen Are All Set

A large part of the oyster fleet that operates in the big beds in Maurice River Cove in the Delaware River has all sails set today in readiness to garner the first harvest of bivalves when the ial oyster season opens tomorrow. Oyster planters hereabouts predict a good crop this year. The size and quality of the oysters are good, they say, and both will continue to improve as the weather and the water become

A round-up of the various alleged husbands of Mrs. Margaret Hasson Weatherwax is being made by police here and in other cities. The woman, who was married to Harry J. Barnett, S13 Columbia avenue, among others, was arrested in New York yesterday charged with bigamy.

Barnett married the woman, known to him as Mrs. Edward Ehring, eight months ago after a short courtship.

She disappeared last April.

Harold Weatherwax, of Bayonne, says he married the same woman August 7. She left him a few days later.

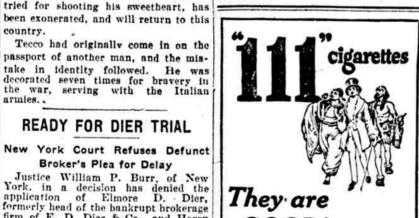

The prisoner told the police in New York that she was really Mrs. Edward Fhring. Reports have also been received by the police that she married a man named Hawley, of Twenty-fourth and Pine streets, some time ago. When Eleanor Lindley Will Represent Selected from 100 comely candidates,

A mysterious telephone call to Weatherwax at his home in Bayonne started the trouble which landed the woman in jall.

Weatherwax was informed by the caller that he had married the wife of Barnett. He got in touch with the Philadelphia husband. They started a joint investigation, which led to New York

York.

After learning the address of his missing wife, Weatherwax met her by chance on the street. She ignored him will be addressed her. He followed and caused Eugene Tecco, of Lansdowne, who was extradited to Italy in 1920 to be her arrest.
