

"MISS HARRISBURG"
(Gertrude Shoemack)

"MISS DETROIT"
(Betty Madson)

"MISS CHESTER"
(Anna Marie Burke)

"MISS AMERICA"
(Margaret Gorman, who was "Miss Washington" last year)

"MISS TOLEDO"
(Loraine Foakey)

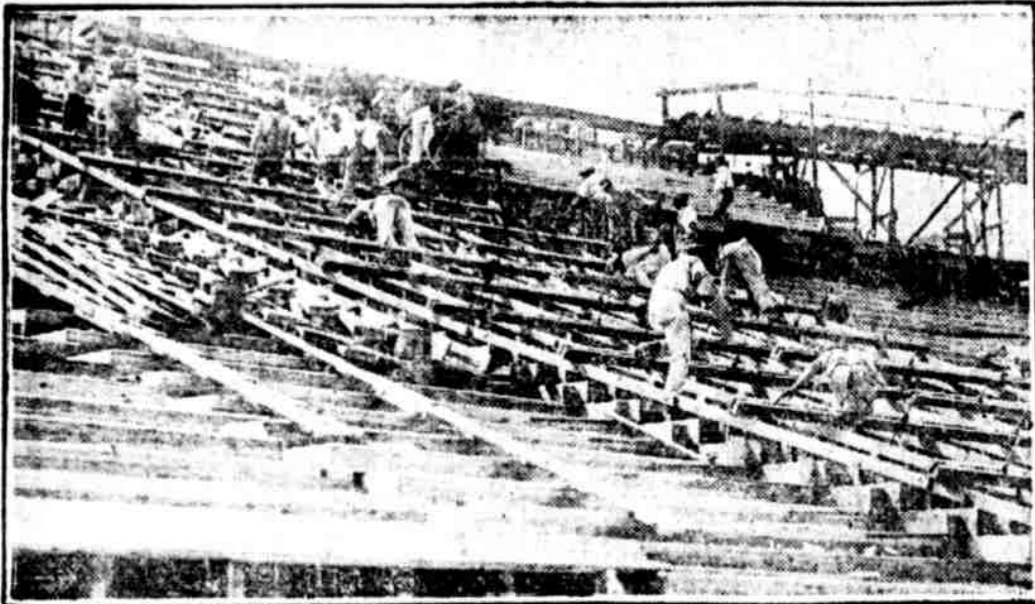

"MISS WHEELING"
(Mary Dague)

"MISS AKRON"
(Doris Widdersheim)

Just a few of the girls who have been selected to represent their "Home Towns" in the "Congress of Beauty," a part of the Atlantic City pageant, which will be held next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. They're all candidates for the high office of "Queen of the Carnival"

FILLING FORMS on the north stand of Franklin Field with cement, as the construction work of the great stadium is hurried. Penn's first football game of the 1922-23 season will be played on this field September 30

"MISS NEW YORK"
(Dorothy Hughes)

"MISS COLUMBUS"
(Katherine Campbell)

"MISS CLEVELAND"
(Mrs. Lella Charles)

More of the fair ones selected to represent their cities in the Atlantic City pageant

BUSY DELAWARE AVENUE. More and more each day traffic on the avenue that borders the Delaware River increases, due largely to the improved condition of the paving. The view was made at the foot of Market street

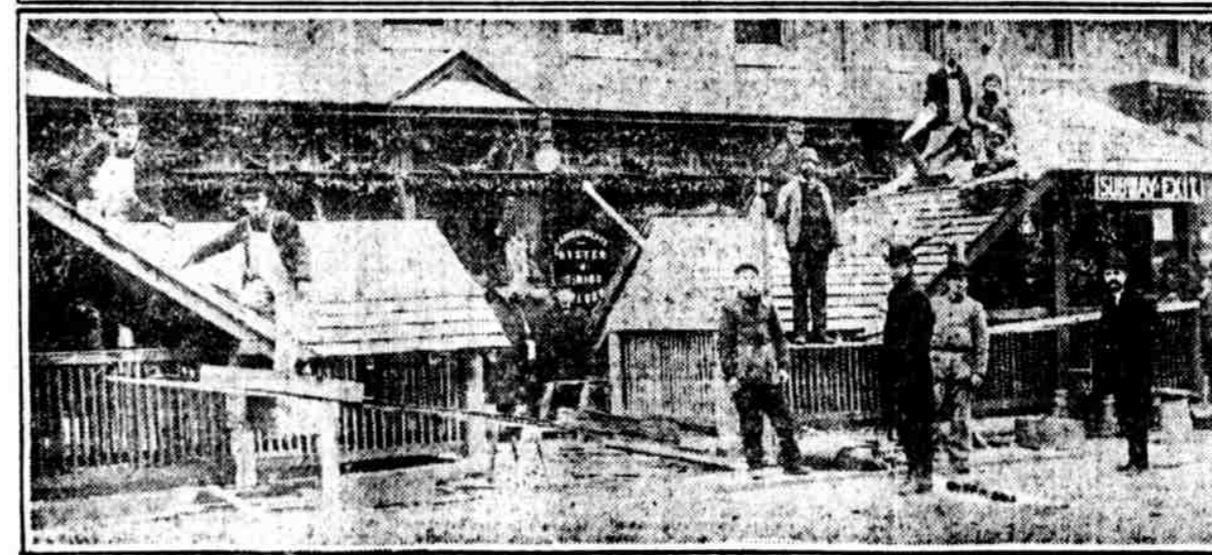

MRS. THEODORE TILLER, of Washington, heads movement to combat un-American propaganda

THAT'S THE WAY TO SEE THE ZOO. Dorothy Whitehouse (left) and Dorothy Crowther are in supreme command of the ponies as they ride along the paths to peep at the birds and animals

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

BUILDING THE FIRST INCLOSURE OVER THE EXITS AND ENTRANCES OF THE MARKET STREET "L." This one is located on the south side of Market, west of Fifteenth street. J. Herbert Saurman, superintending the work, is the contributor. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

H. O. WILBUR, Philadelphia business man, giving a few inside tips to Billy Burton, of New York, on the links at White Sulphur Springs

DIRECTOR OF GIRL RESERVES OF THE CENTRAL Y. W. C. A. She is Miss Josephine Blake Rock, of Chestnut Hill

MRS. MABEL DERBY, Democratic nominee for State Auditor of Delaware

W. W. ATTERBURY To head Sesqui-Centennial Committee. Mr. Atterbury is chairman of plan and scope work, while Mr. Mason will head finance activities

JOHN H. MASON

PLAYED POLISH SELECTIONS. She's Josephine Turek. The children took part in the closing exercises at the Big Backyard Playground, at Second and Pemberton streets, yesterday

SOME EYES. The prize-winner is Martha Batton

MAKING CANES HIS HOBBY. E. A. Buck, in the Soldiers' Home in Washington, does the work with a penknife

MRS. ELSIE SELLERS. Who is coloring poster and lantern slides for agricultural fairs

FAVORS BEER FOR STEEL WORKERS. Secretary Davis gives views in his latest book

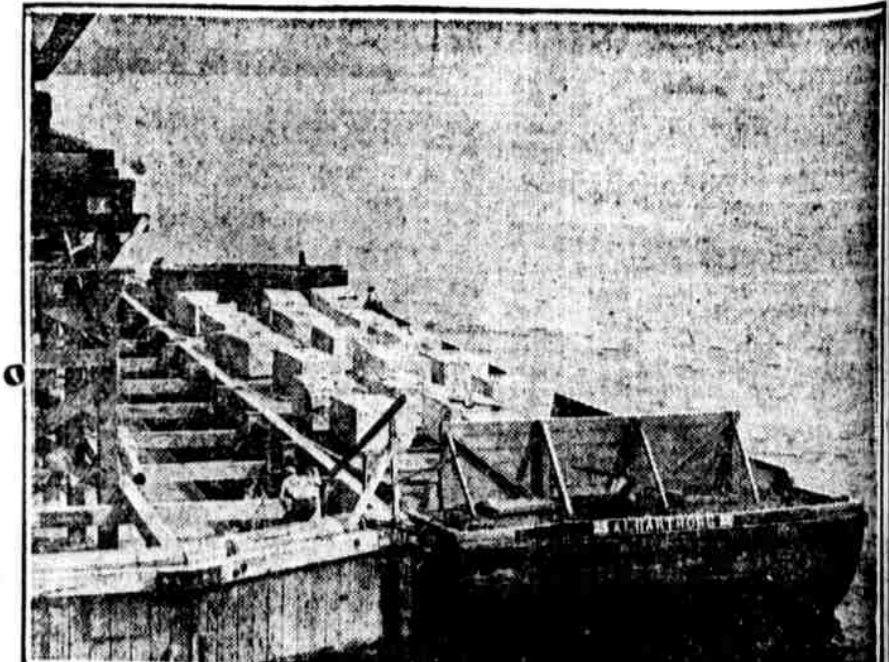

E. J. CATTELL talks of Philadelphia's greatest assets in Editorial Page interview

HUSTLING AWAY FOR THAT THREE-DAY VACATION. Saturday, Sunday and Labor Day call many Philadelphians to New Jersey resorts. They are crossing over Delaware Avenue as the samaritan works

HUMAN "TUGBOAT" IN ACTION. Herman Hunt makes a new record by pulling twelve rowboats, loaded with fifty-five persons, against the tide in New York Bay

DELAWARE RIVER BRIDGE gets its first granite. From the float it is being set in place on top of the Philadelphia caisson. Tons of granite have already arrived for the bridge work