

A GLIMPSE at part of the vast crowds that lined the streets of Dublin as they waited for the body of Michael Collins, their dead leader, to pass

THE FUNERAL OF MICHAEL COLLINS, the Irish leader, who was killed by a shot fired from ambush. The gun carriage is passing along a Dublin street

JUDGE WILKERSON, of Chicago, who granted U. S. Government injunction against railroad shopmen

STIRRING FINISH OF MULE RACE. For the second time in two years the Dutchess County Fair classic has been won by Mrs. J. Griswold Webb, driving dark mule. Miss Margaret Miller, daughter of New York Governor (driving white mule), was second

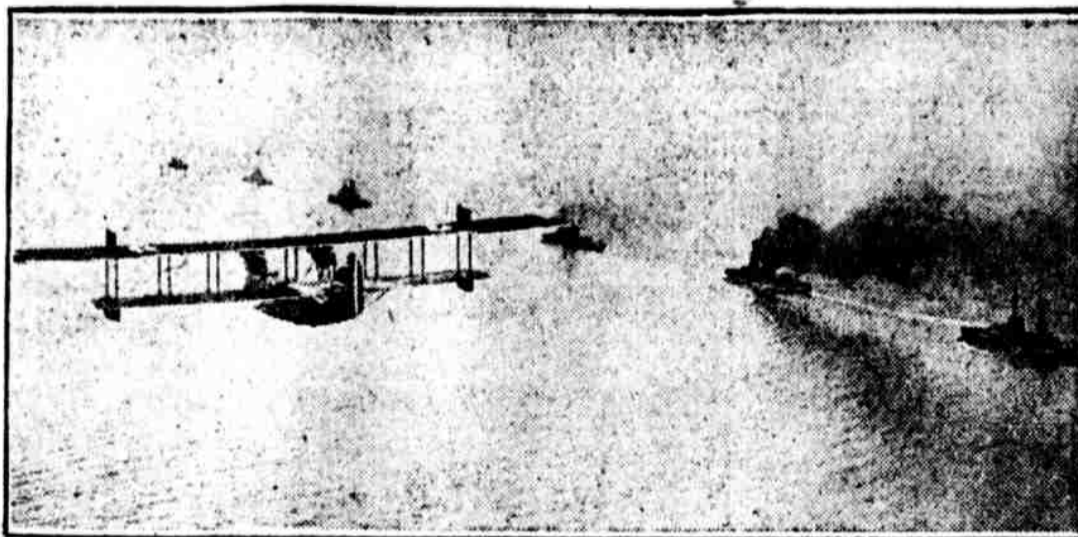

IT'S PROPER, SHE IS HIS NIECE. Sir Harry Lauder, the comedian, second to kiss the bride, Marie Lauder, who married George Neary in Scotland

U. S. TREASURY WATCH TOWER. Commanding a view of the top of the building, where sharp eyes watch for the smoke of another fire

THE "QUEEN." Miss Mary E. Murphy, of Overbrook

SEAPLANE ACTS AS GUIDE IN MANEUVERS. The F-5-L of the aircraft squadron connected with the Pacific fleet is directing battleships and acting as scout. The airplane has become a valuable factor in the battle practices of Uncle Sam's fleets

MANY GERMANTOWN GIRLS were on hand to assist the Germantown Boys' Club in the water carnival. See them in the club's canoe

SHE IS "MISS AMERICA." Miss Mildred E. Kellerman, of Mount Airy

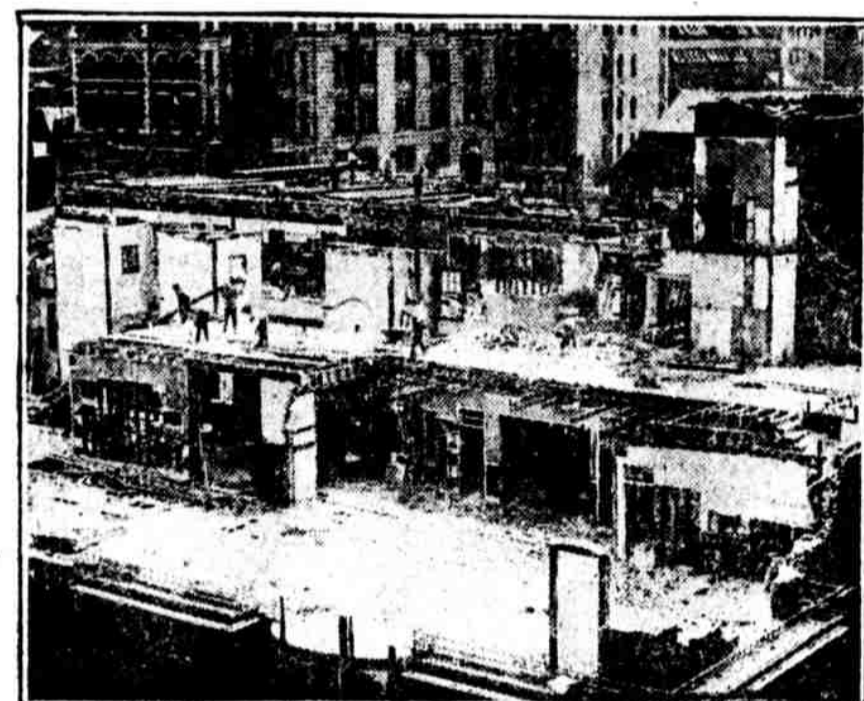

NOT A FIRE. Members of Hose Company No. 1, of McKimley, give their new fire apparatus a "try-out." The fire-fighters are proud of their equipment

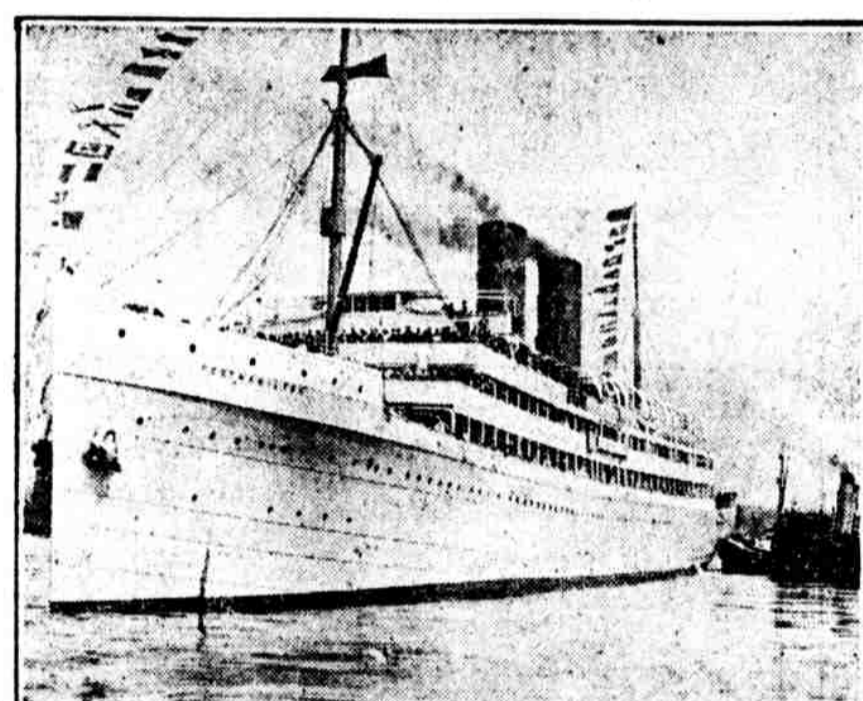

CECILIA MARTIN, star schoolgirl athlete of the District of Columbia

BUSY BASEBALL MANAGER. Johnny White, of the J. & J. Dohson nine, is having a busy season in the semi-professional set

PASSING OF THE BINGHAM HOTEL. Scores of men are doing a speedy bit of work in tearing down the property at the southeast corner of Eleventh and Market streets

THREE HUNDRED SHRINERS, their wives and an eighty-five-piece band are aboard the Fort Hamilton on an eight-day voyage. The ship sailed from Catharine street wharf on Saturday. Potentate W. Freeland Kendrick was caught as he said "good-by" to friends, through a porthole

U. S. SENATOR E. D. SMITH when not busy in Senate assists in Boy Scout work

LIEUT. COM. E. A. COBBY, adviser in Navy Dept. on fuel and transportation

"EDDIE" RICKENBACKER, the automobile racer, to marry Mrs. Adelaide Durant

G. M. JONES, of New York, heads banking division of Dept. of Commerce

MRS. R. E. TREMAN, better known as Irene Castle, the dancer, is recovering from injuries sustained when thrown from horse

ON THE BEACH AT DEAUVILLE, FRANCE. Miss Carrie Martyn wears a charming silk hand-crochet jumper

MEET AFTER SIXTEEN YEARS. Mrs. J. H. Hughes (left), of Worcester, Mass., has corresponded with Mrs. A. Pancoast, of Wildwood, all that time

DR. P. JAISOHN talks of Korean independence in Editorial Page article

MRS. ELLIS A. YOST going to congress of International Association Against Alcoholism

MISS A. M. HARDING, of Washington, is to marry Robert T. Oell on Thursday

HER BUSY WEEK. Two new poses of "Miss Philadelphia." Miss Kitty Mollieux, of 1414 South Forty-ninth street, is ready for her trip to Atlantic City

THE OLD BELLEVUE HOTEL. It was on the site now occupied by the Manufacturers' Club, at the northwest corner of Broad and Walnut streets. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs