Peggy Marsh and Husband Alone When He Was Wounded, Clifford Tells Police

CAMP GUESTS HAD RETIRED

Plattsburg, N. Y., Sept. 4 .- Interregation of stage and screen notables said to have been present at the camp of Jack Clifford on Chateaugay Lake last Thursday night, when A. "Buddle" Johnson was shot, accidentally, according to the stories told both by him and his wife, Peggy Marsh, actress and dancer, was planned today by District Attorney Jerry and Sergeant Boyce, of the State police.

In a statement to Sergeaut Boyce. Johnson said he shot himself accidentally while loading a .32 caliber revolver of Clifford's in preparation for a hunt. According to Sergeant Boyce, Clifford. who is a former husband and dancing partner of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, has teld the State police that it was not his resolver with which Mr. Johnson was shot. Clifford also has said, according to Sergeant Boyce, that none of the guests heard a shot, but were attracted to the Johnson apartment by scream, and in the belief there was a
