

ON HER KNEES TO START HER DOG. Mrs. Henry West "seconds" Mill Hill Midget, in a race at the Westchester Kennel Club show at Rye, N. Y.

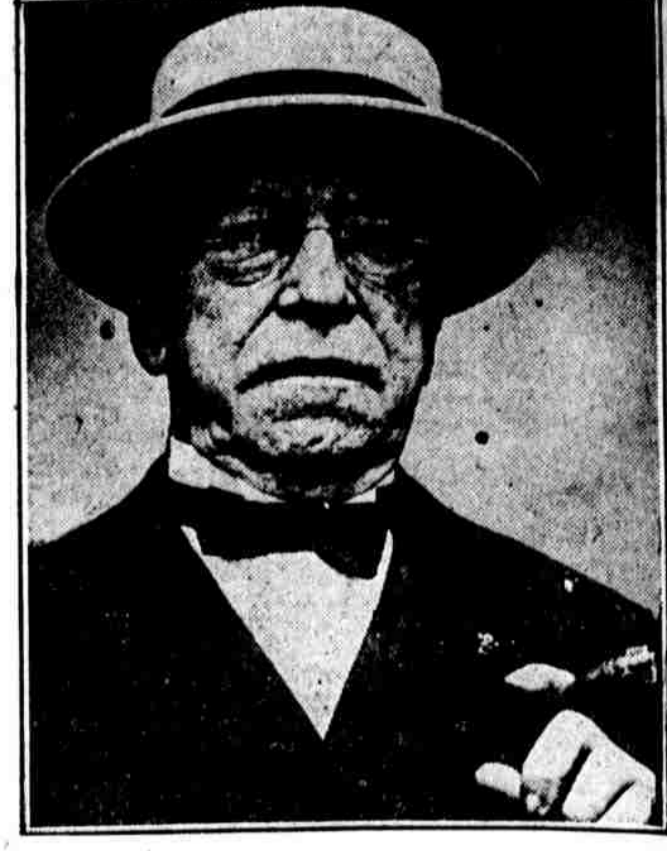

EDWARD KREN, Swiss architect, who, it is rumored, will marry Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick

WHERE SEVEN RAILROAD SHOPMEN WERE BURNED TO DEATH. Ruins of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Thirteenth street barnhouse at Pittsburgh, where shop workers slept. Firemen are searching the ruins for other bodies

SHE'S IN ATLANTIC CITY. "Miss Rochester" is ready for the annual pageant

JUST BEFORE HIS LABOR-DAY SPEECH. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, at Point Breeze Park

DR. C. P. FRANKLIN talks of effect of war on soldiers' eyes, in Editorial Page interview

CALLS HIMSELF "A CONGRESSIONAL DAIRYMAN." Congressman John D. Clarke, of New York, helping with the chores on his farm at Fraser, N. Y.

THERE IS STILL HOPE. Rescue workers at Jackson, Calif., report that they have heard signals from the forty-seven miners entombed in the Argonaut mine. The etching shows the Argonaut mine buildings

TWO OF THE RESCUERS descend main shaft of the Argonaut mine at Jackson, in a carriage. The men are equipped with oxygen tanks

"MOTHER" MARY JONES, for years a friend of labor, is seriously ill at the home of a friend in Washington

FIGHTING INSECTS ALONG ROOSEVELT BOULEVARD. Park Commission employees have been spraying trees and plants for several days

BUSY IN HER "FACTORY." Lillian Martin, three years old, making a paper chain at the "Friends" playground, at Fourth and Green streets

WATCHING DAVIS CUP MATCHES. Miss Audrey Hoffman, of New York; Craig Biddle and Craig Biddle, Jr., in a box at Forest Hills, L. I.

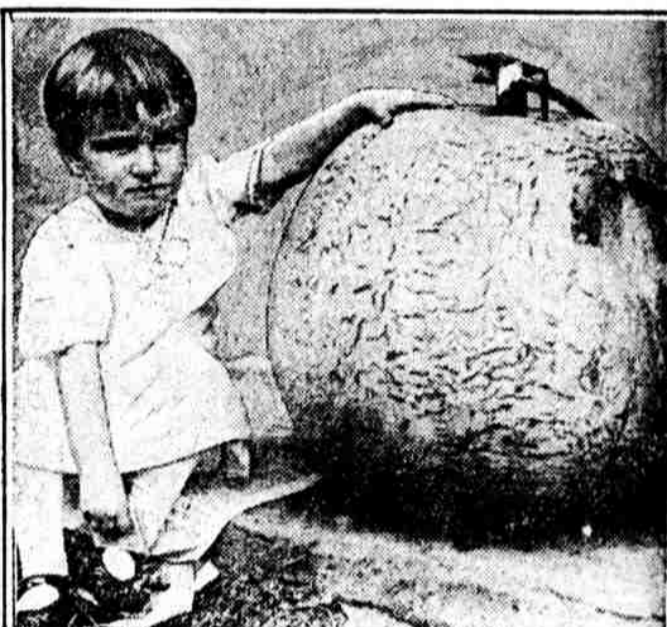

EDWARD S. MILLER, president of the club

JASPER LUND (left) sure can ring 'em, and Joseph Weideman, captain of the quoit tossers

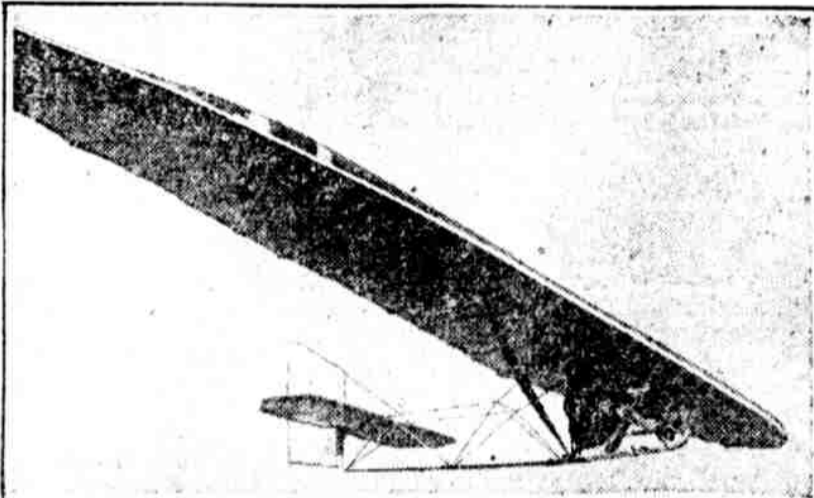

WALTER SCOTT with his Flemish rabbit

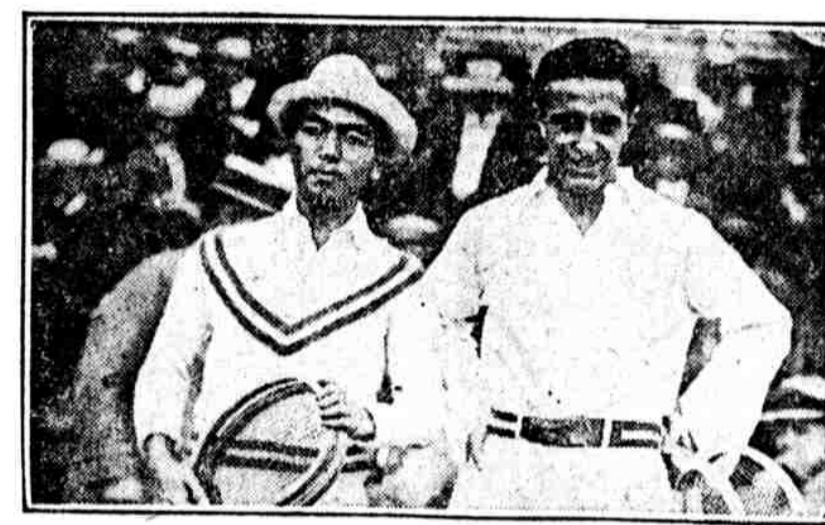

SOME PUMPKIN. It's in care of Esther Crosland

DISTRICT ATTORNEY CHARLES F. CLYNE, of Chicago, who assisted in preparing injunction against striking shopmen

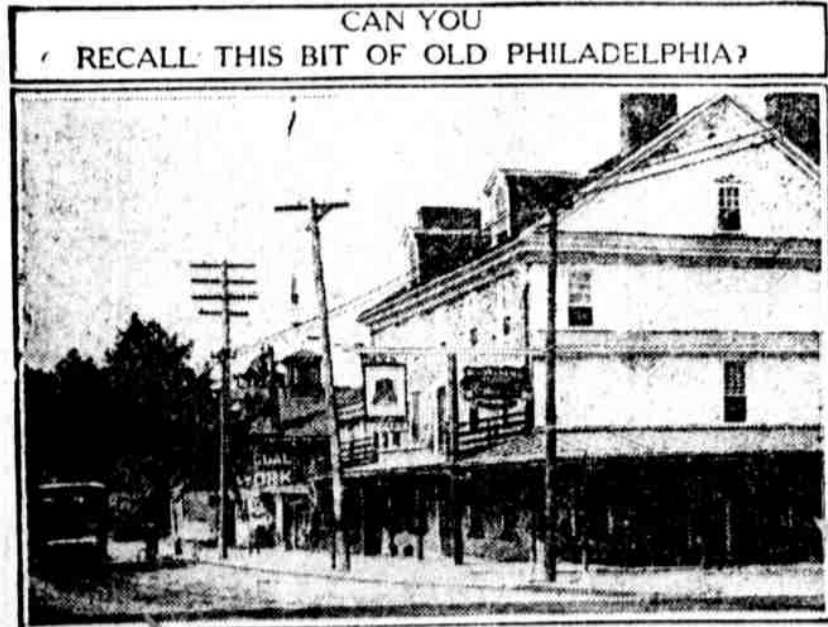

NEW TYPE GLIDER. This motorless one-decker plane piloted by Baron Freyberg-Harth near Berlin. It has a record of staying in air for more than two hours

THE SPANIARD WON. Zenzo Shimidzu (left), the Japanese star, went down to defeat in an exhibition game played at Forest Hills with Manuel Alonso as his opponent

JAMES L. FIESER heads domestic operations for American Red Cross

THE HISTORIC OLD BLUE BELL HOTEL at Island road and Woodland avenue. This building is now the property of the Fairmount Park Commission. Albert V. Johnston, 5163 Funston street, is the contributor

MISS TALALLAH BANKHEAD, daughter of Congressman Bankhead, of Alabama, is appearing in Washington theatre

JIMMIE RIDDELL getting balanced as he rides on father's shoulders in California aquaplane stunt

FUTURE CHAMPION—MAYBE. Jacob Wagner, 4 years old, of 1108 Susquehanna ave., at Strawberry Mansion

NEW YORK SOCIETY AT BELMONT. Mrs. Frank C. Henderson likes horse racing. She seldom misses the Belmont races

ELLEN VIRGINIA GIBB, of Camden, won out-of-town baby prize at Westville carnival

AN AMERICAN STAR. Miss Helen Sable, of Newark, N. J., who won standing broad-jump and broke record in 100-yard hurdles during games in Paris